

BUZZARD'S GLORY

Well, we are a little disgraced but still in the ring and will try and give you some of the latest doings from this section of the globe.

Charles Conaway has leased "Lake Martick" from Carroll Oak Tanning Company, and will run opposition to Jake Long, of McGinnis Siding in the bathing business the coming summer.

The competition of the two will be watched with interest by people of this community.

We have learned of an entertainment to be given at Tannery store next Friday night at 8 o'clock. Jake Long, the chief peanut cracker and humorist, will be present with the latest jokes and song hits, such as, "How are you going to wet your whistle when the whole darn world goes dry?" Uncle Henry, and Fitz will hit up a two-step waltz. Music will be furnished by the "Tannery Snoot Band," led by Charles Conaway.

Col. Fitz is contemplating of setting his new incubator with thirty selected sweet potatoes to supply the community with sprouts by the first of the month. Come early to avoid the rush.

Geo. Shafer, who has been suffering with sore throat, called upon Dr. Christy Wike, who recommended swallowing a piece of fat meat tied on a string and pulling it back. Geo. very nearly died from strangulation, but is improving rapidly.

Chas. Brehm, who has been quite ill with a log on the toe, is improving. Adam Foster's mule Maud is relieved of its winter coating of hair by Charles Brehm. The instrument used for the work was a lawn mower and a dehorner. Part of the mule's tail was removed by a careful manipulation of the dehorner.
