Two High School Boys Arrested. Yesterday the thieves that entered the hardware store of D. S. Gehr, about a week ago, were arrested, with some of the loot on their person.

The young men are students of Westminster High School. Suspicion pointed to these two young men, as they were seen loitering around Gehr's store on the evening of the robbery by one of the teachers, and what more convincing evidence against them was a compass saw and brace and bit were missed from their report.

The instruments were taken to Gehr's and matched up to those used in boring the holes and sawing out the door. Mr. Currens, care taker at the High School, also noticed the young men in the cellar. The cellar was searched and several of the missing articles were found. Both were arrested under the circumstances and taken before State's Attorney Brown. The boys confessed their guilt and handed over what they had with them. The May term of grand jury will hear their case.
