BIRD HILL

The people of Deer Park and community gave their minister, Rev. Link and family, a surprise in the way of a donation, Tuesday night. He was called on the phone Monday night and asked to be at home at 5 o'clock and so was expecting a wedding. When the crowd gathered they donated them with flour, meat, butter, milk, sugar, jellies and everything to make one happy. They told them they were glad to have them back for another year. Rev. Link thanked them for their kindness and hoped to do more for them this year than last. They had music on the piano, violins and horns, also some fine singing, until a late hour when refreshments were served of cake and lemonade to 75 visitors. All returned home after having expressed themselves of having an enjoyable evening and wished the minister and family a pleasant year.

The Women's Lodge of Smallwood will hold their annual festival in the Hall, May 28. Will also have an address and recitations for memorial.

Church Services at Lineboro.

The past week has been a most blessed and inspiring one for the Lutheran church in Lineboro. Services were held each evening. The pastor, Rev. Richard, speaking upon the general theme "Life," the subjects being "The Separated Life, The Consecrated Life, The Indwelling Life, The Abundant Life, The Victorious Life." Excellent music was furnished by an augmented choir and an intense spiritual atmosphere characterized every service.

On Wednesday evening six new members were received, three by letter and three by baptism. At the preparatory service on Saturday afternoon a class of 20, perhaps the largest in the history of the congregation, was confirmed. The main auditorium was filled for this solemn and impressive service.

On Sunday morning, despite unfavorable weather conditions, the largest communion on record was recorded and an offering of $225, much in excess of any previous offering was laid upon the altar. These records were attained without the slightest special effort. They were only the little more abundant outpouring of that which normally characterizes the congregation.

On Monday evening a congregational reception was given to the 22 new members received during the year. Christianized fellowship prevailed in a faultless way. After a hymn and scripture reading and prayer, a program followed. Musical numbers were rendered to the delight of the large audience by Mrs. C. F. Stick and Mr. W. L. Rupp and the Misses Stick. A most appropriate address was given by Rev. C. W. Nicely, Hanover.

Refreshments were served to all present and an hour of fine social fellowship followed, after which America was heartily sung and the benediction pronounced. The memories of this week's feast of the better things are most precious and will linger forever in the hearts of many of the partakers and for them we give God the praise.

Aid Society Meeting.

The Ladies' Aid Society of Ebenezer Church, of Winfield, met April 7, at the home of Mrs. Louisa Farver. Forty members were present, notwithstanding the inclement weather. The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. L. V. Zile.

The evening's program opened with singing, scripture reading and prayer, which were followed by the regular business routine.

Selections were read by Mrs. G. V. Conaway and Mrs. Ollie Buckingham; recitation by Mrs. Mabry; duet by Mrs. Maggie Buckingham and Mrs. Ollie Buckingham, the concluding number being a solo by a little boy.

The Society decided to hold a chicken supper Saturday, April 23rd, in Winfield Hall. Suppers to be served from 5 o'clock in the afternoon until late in the evening and the price to be reasonable.

After the serving of splendid refreshments the meeting adjourned to meet again Thursday, May 5th, at the home of Mrs. Samuel Bair, of Winfield.
