The operetta which will be rendered by the Music Department on Friday evening, April 23, under the direction of Professor and Mrs. Fletcher, promises to be the best one ever given. The scenery, as painted by Miss Ann Snader, is in keeping with the natural character of the operetta. This is always the most largely attended event during the year.

The annual debate between the two Preparatory Literary Societies, the Emersonian and the Hiawathian took place in the Gymnasium last Friday evening. The question debated was resolute. The principle of the closed shop should be established in American industry. The question was affirmed by the Hiawathian society whose speakers were Mr. Joseph Rittenhouse and Mr. Joseph Whitacre with Mr. Norman Warner as alternate. The speakers on the negative side were Mr. Ollie Jones, Mr. Lester Judy, with Mr. John Palmer as alternate. The judges in the debate were Senator Smith Snader, Professor C. O. Miller and Mrs. Murphy. The decision was unanimous in favor of the negative.
