Mr. Frank Ward, our old reliable huckster, had a good talk with Chas. Brehm, one day this week. He told Charles it was some water down at Falls Hill, that he ran his machine through water to test over the railroad and it pulled good; just then Adam Foster came along and said, that's pretty good, Frank, stop down at the house and have one on me. Frank said I need one, I feel like the breaking up of a hard winter. He also told Adam that he has engaged thirteen dozen capon eggs from Bud Schafer, and said there is a great demand for those eggs in Baltimore.

The people of this community are greatly alarmed over a queer disease, Dr. Wike reported George Martin as having inflammatory. The doctor thinks a turpentine bath will bring him alright. "I was talking to my old friend, 'Mysterious' Ralph, Saturday night. He came up to me all out of breath and said he just knocked a nigger down and put a sign on his eye, which reads: 'closed for the season.' Several cords of chestnut suckers which were cut for tooth picks by Messrs. Brehm and Foster, were carried away by the high water last Friday evening.

Saturday night a week ago, Ans. Shafer and Frank Sies were seen drawing straws to see who should take 'Faithless Mary' to the movies. It is understood that Shafer took Mary and Frank took 'Loose-Footed Lacy.' Now they are figuring on how to make money enough to take them to the movies and treat them.
