TRAINING CAMP FOR YOUNG MEN

TO BE OPENED AT CAMP MEADE, MARYLAND, ON AUGUST 1ST. NO CHARGES WILL BE MADE

Splendid Opportunity For The Youth Of The State To Secure Valuable And Healthy Experiences. A free summer camp, with all expenses included, railroad fare paid, is offered this summer by the government to 1,200 young men between the ages of 16 and 35 who reside in Pennsylvania, Maryland, Virginia and the District of Columbia. This Citizens' Military Training Camp will last for thirty days, commencing on August 1st, and will be held at Camp Meade, Maryland, about half way between Baltimore and Washington. Attendance at the camp will not cost one cent to any of the candidates who are selected to go. They may either pay their railroad fare from their homes to Camp Meade and be reimbursed as soon as they arrive at the rate of five cents for each mile traveled, allowing an ample margin for meals and other expenses en route, or if they prefer they will be furnished with a ticket before they leave home and allowed not to exceed $5.00 a day for their meals while traveling. Upon arriving at Camp Meade each man will be supplied with a complete set of uniforms and equipment. He will then be assigned to quarters in comfortable permanent barracks. When mess-call sounds he will find a well-cooked meal ready for him paid for by the government and prepared by army cooks who are now going through a special course of training at the Camp Meade Cooks' and Bakers' School to prepare them for duty at the camp. All the mess attendants will be supplied from Regular Army regiments stationed at Camp Meade. Should he have need of it at any time he will find a well-equipped hospital free of charge with competent army surgeons and dentists.

In return for this he will be called upon to devote his mornings to military drills and exercises under the direction of officers specially selected from the Infantry School at Camp Benning, Georgia for duty as instructors, and will be encouraged to spend his afternoons in athletics and games under the supervision of officers specially trained to supervise such activities. While he will live in permanent barracks, he will frequently take short hikes through the beautiful rolling and wooded country of Southern Maryland, carrying the infantry soldier's field equipment and ending the march by going into camp and spending the night under canvas if the weather is good. Some of his meals in the field he will cook for himself in his "mess kit" and others will be served to him from rolling kitchens. The military part of the day's program will include demonstrations of all the modern military weapons, such as Tanks, Artillery, machine guns and trench mortars by veteran regular troops stationed at Camp Meade, as well as the actual drills in which the candidates will take part. It is hoped that they will become sufficiently interested to affiliate with the National Guard or Organized Reserve when they return to their homes, thus fitting themselves to be leaders instead of followers if they should ever be called upon to serve their country in case of another war, but attendance at the camp involves absolutely no obligation, moral or legal, to perform any further military service. Off duty hours will be well provided for, and candidates will be encouraged to spend all their time in camp by providing them with amusements so that they will not want to leave it. There will be movies and other forms of entertainment every evening and frequent concerts by some of the fine Regular Army bands stationed at Camp Meade. The religious atmosphere will not be neglected. Two chaplains will devote their entire time to the Citizens' Camp and to the management of a service club where candidates will be entertained in their spare time. Other chaplains of six different denominations on duty with regular troops of the camp will be available for advice and counsel. The Military Training Camps Association, composed of graduates of previous similar camps held at Plattsburg, New York, and other places, are in active charge of receipt and forwarding of applications through their nearest local representative, O. O. Ellis, Room 404, Title Annex Building, 11 East Fayette street, Baltimore, but if he cannot be conveniently reached, information and application blanks can be secured and arrangements made to obtain without charge the very simple physical examination by writing to the Commanding General, Third Corps Area, Fort Howard, Maryland. Applications should be forwarded as early as possible, as the final selection of applicants must be made well in advance of the opening of the camp on August 1st. In case the number of applicants exceeds the capacity of the camp, vacancies will be apportioned in proportion to their population, and the individuals selected by a method which will insure that each locality and each individual applicant has an equal chance.

IN MEMORIAM.

In sad but loving remembrance of my dear husband, Melville A. Shauck, who died four years ago, June 21, 1917. Today recalls sad memories. Of a loved one gone to rest; An die one who thinks of him today, Is the one who loves him best. By his loving wife.

In sad but loving remembrance of our dear son and brother, Melville A. Shauck, who was so suddenly taken away four years ago today, June 21, 1917. Dear son, how well we all remember. Of the day you left our side; Many friends spoke words of comfort, But our hearts were sorely tried. Oh how we love you, Melville, dear. No heart on earth can tell; But Jesus loved you better still, And called you home to dwell. By his loving Father and Mother.

Rest in peace, dear brother. Four long years have passed away Though art gone, but not forgotten; We think of thee day by day. From this world of grief and trouble, To the land of peace and rest, God has taken our dear brother; Where he will find everlasting rest. By his sister, Mrs. Chas. F. Breitweiser.

I cannot understand why I had to part With him whom I loved so dear, But God who doeth all things well Will some day make it clear. We cannot tell who next may fall, Beneath thy chastening rod; One must be first, but let us all Prepare to meet our God. By his sister, Mrs. A. C. Bossom.

My heart is sad and lonely, Yet my grief too deep to tell, But time will come to my soon, That I may wish him well. I did not want to part with him, But God knew what was best, Some day I hope to meet again, In that sweet land of rest. By his sister, Maud E. Shauck.

In sad but loving remembrance of my dear husband and father, Robert N. Koonz, who died June 12, 1921. As death has robbed me of my husband, And tears now often fill my eyes; My life has changed, my hope has fled, As I, life's path alone must tread. Lonely the house and sad the hours, Since my dear husband has gone, But oh, a brighter home than mine, In heaven is now his own.

Farewell dear husband, again fare well, Soon I shall rise to thee; And when we meet, no tongue can tell How great my joy shall be. By his loving wife, Mrs. Clara E. Koonz.

Dear father you'll never be forgotten, Never will your memory fade; Sweetest thoughts will ever linger, Round the grave where he is laid. Dear father's hands I miss them so, How I miss your smiling face, But you left me to remember, None on earth can take your place. More and more each day we miss him, Friends may think the wound is healed; But they little know the sorrow, That lies beneath our hearts concealed. Farewell dear father, a sad farewell, The loss to us no tongue can tell, Dear hands that did so much for us, God knows they worked continually. But they are gone today, By his sons and daughters.

In sad but loving remembrance of our dear mother, Mrs. David H. Frock who departed this life three years ago June 21, 1918. Dear mother you are gone but not forgotten, Nor will you ever be, For as long as life and memory last I will remember thee. I cannot forget you dear mother, Though long may be the years; And often in the lonely hours, I wipe away the tears. By her daughter, Mrs. Edward I. Myers.

Three years have gone dear mother, And I miss you more and more; But some day perhaps we'll meet you, On that bright and happy shore. Rest on dear mother with the angel throng, In heaven so bright and fair; We all shall hope to meet at last, On that Eternal shores. By her daughter, Mrs. Clayton Gelman.

Her memory is a dear today, As in the hour she passed a way; We did our best God only know, To save her life we could not do. By her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Frock.
