

MELROSE

Edna, the 12 year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Bankert, of near this place, was hurriedly taken to the Maryland General Hospital at Baltimore, on Monday last where she was operated upon immediately for appendicitis.

Miss Myrtle Strevig, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Strevig, of north of this place, was overcome by heat on Monday last. She was under the care of Dr. J. H. Sherman.

Grace, the ten year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Geiman, of near this place, returned home last week after being a patient at a hospital in Baltimore for the past twelve weeks, where she was operated upon for appendicitis.

Wentz's Union Sunday school will hold its annual picnic and festival on Saturday afternoon and evening, August 20th, in Mr. Harvey Vosling's grove, north of this place.

Bachman's Union Sunday school will hold a lawn festival at the home of Mr. Horace Leppo on Saturday evening, July 23rd. The orchestra of Westminster will furnish music.

Mr. Theodore S. B. Fridinger, of Main street, Manchester, has a stalk of corn measuring 9 feet and 10 inches. Anyone doubting this can see same at his home.

Rev. J. M. Fridinger, wife and daughter, are spending sometime at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Fridinger, of Manchester. Mid-Summer communion will be observed at St. Jerusalem's Lutheran Church on Sunday morning, July 24, at 10 a. m.

MANCHESTER

The relatives and friends of Rev. George Everhart were notified of his death Saturday morning at his late residence, Lanvale street, Baltimore, aged 90 years. His death was caused by heat prostration.

Miss Susan Bixler sold her home on Main street, to Mr. Theodore Fridinger for the sum of $600. It was one of the homes in the fire area. Mr. John Leese, whose home was burned, will not rebuild on the old site, but has bought a lot-40 feet front from Mr. George Loring, York street, and will build a modern home in the near future.

The Misses Cox, whose wood and coal shed was burned, has replaced it with a large building, convenient for the two families.

Mrs. Hattie Ronamus and children, of Charlestown, S. C., are here visiting her mother, Mrs. Susan Bixler.

DENNINGS

The farmers are all about done hauling in wheat.

Mrs. David H. Stem and two daughters, spent last Thursday evening with the Mrs. Chase near Taylorsville.

Denning's champion fisherman took a trip last Saturday, but he did not have very good results.

We are glad to say Mrs. Harris is able to be out auto riding.

Mrs. Edgar Jenkins is improving slowly. Those on the sick list are Mrs. David H. Bair and Mrs. Guy Stem.

Some of our farmers have threshed and the best yield is 21 bushel per acre.

Those who called on Mr. David Bair and family Tuesday evening were Mrs. Charity Mumford, Miss Carrie Warner, Howard Bair and David Stem.

Those who spent Sunday evening with Mr. David Bair and family were Mr. C. T. Manahan and family and Miss Carrie Warner.

We are glad to see the good and refreshing showers again.

Mrs. Charity Mumford is spending a few weeks with her brother, Mr. Howard Wantz.

UNION MILLS

Rev. John S. Adam, pastor of the Reformed Church, Silver Run attended the World Convention of Christian Endeavor Societies, New York, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Yelner have reached Hanover, Kansas, on their California trip. They were delayed several days on account of hub-deep mud.

Sunday, on the State road, about four miles south of Union Mills, an automobile occupied by George W. Hook and Leslie Irwin, collided with another machine, in which the passengers were six of seven people from Baltimore, whose names we have been unable to learn.

Mr. Ira G. Lawyer and Mrs. Charles Croft returned home from the Maryland University Hospital, Baltimore, where they had been patients for about two months. While yet invalids they are both regarded as on the mend.
