Hazleton, Pa., July 14.—Mrs. Andrew Fierro, mother of nine children, is home from Brooklyn, N. Y., credited with having captured John Brienza, who decoyed her 17-year-old daughter, Mary, to Brooklyn under promise of marriage and then deserted her, it is alleged.

Despite the size of Brooklyn, Mrs. Fierro wandered around the streets until she encountered Brienza, whom she downed with an umbrella, keeping him down until the police arrived. Brienza, who was held for the United States Court by the authorities, is said to have a family in Italy.

A ROUND OF ENTERTAINMENT.

The residents of Westminster and Carroll County generally have been treated to an unusual round of amusement during these summer months. No sooner had the home coming week so admirably arranged by the firemen reached its successful close than there were evident plans in progress for the big lawn fete on the grounds of St. John's Church. The flying horses are already attracting the eager children and it is reported they are to enjoy their first ride tomorrow night. It will be good to hear the organ tones again for it will tell us that at least the children are having a good time.

This annual diversion arranged by the various committees of St. John's congregation will not run true to form if it does not include interesting events for the older folks as well as the kiddies. The usual waffle supper with all its trimmings is promised by the ladies in charge. The school house will be turned into a dining room where party tables will be arranged.

Amusements of various kinds and handsome booths will occupy the grounds. There will no doubt be interest and entertainment for all patrons.

WOMAN'S MEETING IN PLEASANT VALLEY.

A community meeting was held at Pleasant Valley last Tuesday. A woman's meeting was held in the afternoon. Miss Day met the women and gave a demonstration in millinery on the lawn of Mrs. Elmer Kindig. There were about forty women and girls present and they all decided to go home and make hats. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Chas. Leese on August 16th, and the night meeting will be August 23rd. An all day meeting will be held on the 16th for the women and they will bring their lunches. Every woman in the community is invited. Let's make this a big meeting and have a good time. The subject for discussion will be announced later.

The evening meeting was enlivened by the presence of the Pleasant Valley Band to whom the community is indebted for its splendid music. County Agent Fuller gave a talk on fertilizers, and Miss Day gave one of her interesting talks, and Miss Everett told of the plan of work for the women in the county for the coming year. At the close, the two hats which were made at the afternoon meeting, were raffled off to pay for the expenses for the rent of the hall. Mr. Chas. Leese was elected president of the Community Association.

ELDERSBURG MEETING.

On July 12th Miss Ola Day gave a talk at Eldersburg on short cuts in sewing using the sewing machine. The next meeting will be held July 27th at which time a millinery demonstration will be given. Each woman is invited to bring a yard of material for gingham, silk or organdy hats.

THE THREE B'S.

A bright woman, not so long ago, wrote the following: "As children, we learn the three B's; as men and women, we should learn the three B's—Bright, Brave and Busy. And the secret of our old age, if we succeed in reaching it, is the two D's—'Don't Worry,' and 'Drink Water.'"

JEALOUSLY COSTS LIVES OF LOVE AFFAIR RIVALS

SPURNED SUITOR KILLS MAN WHO SUPPLANTED HIM, THEN MAKES HIS OWN SUICIDE CERTAIN.

Crazed by jealousy, Samuel Bowman, 38 years old, lay in wait at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Eichelberger, at Krentler's School House, two miles south of Hanover, and when their daughter, Mrs. Minnie Reah, 27 years old, a widow, and her suitor, Samuel M. Rohrbach, 26 years old, returned at 11:20 o'clock Saturday night, he opened fire with a double-barreled shotgun, wounding Rohrbach so badly that he died seven hours later, and seriously injuring Mrs. Reah. Bowman then fled to the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Bowman, Sr., half a mile distant, and both shot and hung himself.

Young Rohrbach and Mrs. Reah spent the evening at the Dubb's Church picnic. They drove to the Eichelberger home in an automobile and were about to alight when Bowman stepped out from behind a tree and fired without a warning from a distance of 10 feet. The first shot struck Mrs. Reah in the neck and shoulder, and the second hit Rohrbach in the chest and blew off his jaw. Dr. H. M. Alleman, of Hanover, was summoned and he ordered both injured persons removed to the York Hospital, where Rohrbach died Sunday morning. He then informed Chief of Police Crabbs of the tragedy.

Chief Crabbs notified police headquarters in York, Gettysburg, Littleton and Westminster to be on the lookout, and then organized searching parties. Hundreds of persons soon gathered and a network of searchers covered the surrounding woods and fields. They were highly increased by the crime and probably would have inflicted bodily injury had they caught the assassin. Fear of this is believed to be the reason for Bowman's suicide.

When Mrs. Reah was questioned as to the identity of the murderer she was reluctant to say, but finally mentioned Bowman's name. Special Officer Frank Scheivert, accompanied by five men, drove to the Bowman house and saw a man peep out from behind a window shade, but, being armed only with revolvers, they hesitated before entering the house. Chief Crabbs was summoned and Bowman's father told him there was no use searching for his son, as he believed the boy had committed suicide.

Shortly thereafter Corporal Snyder, of the State police, found a note tacked on a porch post, reading as follows: "Father and mother: You will find my body under the pear tree back of the barn. Please bury my body at Dubb's Church.—Samuel."

Going to the place directed, Corporal Snyder found the body, clad only in a shirt and overalls, suspended from a tree. Standing on a step-ladder Bowman had tied a rope around his neck and then shot himself thrice in the chest with a revolver. Bowman's barking dog first attracted the policeman's attention and attacked him when he approached the body.

THEODORE SHRIVER, FORMERLY OF TANEYTOWN, COMITS SUICIDE.

The dead body of Theodore Shriver, formerly a resident of Taneytown district, was found on July 12 in the woods by John Hershey, near Hanover Pa. He is supposed to have deliberately committed suicide, by shooting himself through the heart, as a 22 caliber revolver was found lying by his side. He had been missing since Sunday night, but it was first supposed that he had quietly gone away somewhere, perhaps to Taneytown.

He suffered a severe attack of blood poisoning last spring, and since then his health seemed weakened.

Mr. Shriver lived as a young man for many years with the late Daniel Harmon, of Taneytown district, and occasionally visited Taneytown. He was 44 years old.

Surviving him is his wife, who was formerly Mrs. Edward Marshall. She was married to him about 15 years ago. Her maiden name was Miss Fannie Few. His first wife, who was Miss Sarah Stonelifer, died shortly after their marriage. He is survived by two sons, Herman and Harry, at home, and the following step-children: Mrs. Herman Gresson, Walkersville; Mrs. Amanda Pouse, Reading; Mrs. Roy Noel and Edward Marshall, at home. He also survived by two brothers and a sister: Alfred Shriver, Washington; Arthur Shriver, of Hanover, and Miss Minnie Shriver, Union Bridge.

RAILROADS "SWAP" ENGINES FOR TEST

B & O IS ANXIOUS TO SEE WHAT THE NEW TYPE W. M. LOCOMOTIVE WILL DO.

The Western Maryland Railroad and the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad swapped engines in order to carry out most rigid and thorough test of the remarkable new 800 class Western Maryland engines, 40 of which were recently purchased by the company.

Western Maryland engine 808 was sent over onto the Baltimore and Ohio road Friday noon by way of Cherry Run to let them see what it is able to do. It has been intimated that this road is contemplating making purchase of this type of engine and to completely install certain parts of their system with them.

In turn the Baltimore and Ohio sent to the Western Maryland a "Mickey" engine number 440, a new class known as the Mikados, recently purchased.

A test run was made of the latter locomotive, on the Western Maryland tracks from Cumberland to Williamsport. It took from Cumberland 90 loaded cars, with tonnage of 5,714 to Williamsport, a distance of 80 miles, in six hours and ten minutes. This is considerably less than that the new 800's will do it, it was said.

A report of the Western Maryland engine test has not yet been received, and has as yet, not been completed. The attractive force of the 808 is 65,200 pounds, just 5000 pounds greater than the B. & O. engine, which accounts for its greatly increased drawing power.

THE VOTERS NOT TO MAKE REPUBLICAN TICKET—A FEW SUGGESTED LEADERS RUN THINGS.

The Skyline Herald July 14 says: "At a meeting of Republican county leaders in Westminster on Monday an effort was made to clear the decks for action in the primary fight for the office of Register of Wills. There have been five active candidates in the field for this nomination. According to reports received here, all but two of these have been eliminated. Those reported to have dropped out of the race are Edwin M. Mellor, Skylineville District; M. M. Trossell, of Myers District; and Levi D. Moss, of Uniontown. This leaves W. E. Bricker, of Taneytown, and Wesley Brooks, of Westminster, the present deputy in office, still in the field. It is said that Mr. Brooks was not invited to the conference and that the organization will back Mr. Bricker. Mr. Brooks will remain in the field and promise to give the organization the fight of his life in the primaries. He is an aggressive and capable young man and has had a long experience in the office. Mr. Bricker is well known and popular and the race is likely to be a strenuous one. The women are the unknown quantity in the situation. This will be the first occasion of their activity in the primaries and whether they will fall in line with the organization and take Mr. Bricker, or play along independent lines, remains to be seen. They will determine the result. It is said that some of the eliminated candidates are not a little puffed at being shunted aside.

The only candidate thus far announced on the Democratic side is Millard H. Weer, of Skylineville, and his friends figure that the situation in the Republican ranks is very likely to help his candidacy, in case of his nomination."

WOMAN'S MEETING IN WESTMINSTER.

About forty women met on the lawn of Mrs. Edgar Myers last Friday afternoon. Various sections of the county were represented and a County Federation of Women's Homemakers' Clubs was organized with Mrs. Edgar Myers as president; Mrs. Chas. Peitz, vice-president; Miss Edna Erb, secretary, and Mrs. James Beacham, treasurer.

The occasion was also a farewell for Miss Day, the District Home Demonstration Agent, who has been such a help to the women in the county. A very pleasing entertainment was given as follows: Piano solo by Miss Caroline Fouts; vocal solos by Mrs. Shriver and Miss Louise Fouts, and a reading by Miss Margaret Snider. New Windsor. Miss Everett discussed the plan of work for the coming year, and Miss Day gave a very interesting discussion of what the women of the State are doing and what the College will do to assist the women of the various sections who are interested in home making.

After the program refreshments were served and a social time enjoyed by all. A heavy rain storm kept people from coming, but a very pleasant time was enjoyed by all.

KEYSVILLE MEETING.

The women held an afternoon meeting at Keysville and Miss Day gave a talk on kitchen mileage showing the saving of mileage by a conveniently arranged kitchen, and she also showed an exhibit of clothing.

The night meeting was well attended. County Agent Fuller gave a talk on fertilizers, and Miss Day and Miss Everett gave short talks on women's work.

The next meeting of the club will be August 25th.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION

SIXTY-SIX SCHOOLS WERE REPRESENTED—THE ATTENDANCE WAS 700—OFFICERS ELECTED—DR. WOOLSEY LEADS IN SONG SERVICE.

The annual convention of the Carroll County Sunday School Association was held in Alumni Hall, Westminster, Tuesday July 19, County President, Rev. J. Walter Englar presiding. The convention opened at 9:45 a. m. with a song service, led by Dr. Charles A. Woolsey, of Baltimore, followed by a devotional service in charge of Dr. Norman Ward, president of Western Maryland College. Mr. and Mrs. James V. Christy, Gospel Singers of Baltimore, were present and delighted and inspired the convention audiences with their gospel songs at the sessions, both day and evening.

The address by Mrs. A. W. Karnell, of Philadelphia, on "Responsibility of Christian Parenthood" was an earnest appeal for religion in the home and offered much food for thought.

Rev. John Watchorn, of Philadelphia, gave a forceful and forwarding book address on national problems. Dr. Hamm, representing the Maryland Sunday School Association addressed the convention on "Financing the State and County Work."

The attendance at the afternoon session was perhaps the largest in the history of the association, there being about 700 present. Addresses were made by Colonel Joseph H. Cudlipp, of Baltimore, on "The Art Supreme," a talk on boys; by Mrs. A. W. Karnell on "The Building of a Christian Nation."

Rev. H. K. Ober, of Elizabethtown, Pa., gave a most impressive address on "Childs Rights." "Taking Care of Our Base of Supplies" was the subject of an interesting and instructive address by Dr. C. J. Broomfield, Pittsburg, Pa.

A heavy rain storm interfered with the attendance at the evening session but those present were delighted with the singing and the addresses. "Echoes of the Tokio Convention" by Dr. Ober and "The Call of the World" by Dr. C. J. Broomfield.

In every particular the convention was a splendid success.

The greatly increased attendance indicated a broadening interest in general Sunday school work. There are 163 schools in the county and of these 66 were represented at the convention.

The following were elected for officers for the year: President, J. Walter Englar, New Windsor; First Vice-President, George W. Yeiser; Second Vice-President, Herbert W. Woodson; Third Vice-President, A. M. Hall; Secretary, George Mather; Treasurer, Denton Gehr; Supt. Adult Division, Rev. W. C. Parrish; Supt. Children's Division, Mrs. J. S. Adam; Supt. Home Department, Jesse P. Garner. Additional members of the Executive Committee, Rev. C. W. Welch, Rev. G. Wilbur Shipley and C. Edgar Nusbaum.

The 1921 Chautauqua opened yesterday afternoon. The speakers were greeted by an overflow audience which proves that the Chautauqua is as popular as ever with our citizens.

WESTMINSTER DEFEATS MT. AIRY.

HAVE NOW TAKEN THEIR LAST SIX GAMES.

Westminster defeated Mt. Airy on the latter's field Saturday, July 16th, by a score of 8 to 7. The game was interesting and exciting throughout despite the fact that our boys outbit their rivals nearly two to one. Ned Duncan had two bad innings, the sixth and seventh, and it was in these two that Mt. Airy made all of its hits and runs.

As usual, Westminster got busy in the first inning. Phil Myers was patient and received free transportation to first. Joe Smith sacrificed him to second, and the ever-reliable Rube Sayers brought Myers home with a clean single to left. Myers started things again in the third with a single to center. He was forced at second on J. Smith's infield tap. Billingslea then sent Smith to third on a hard single to right field, from where he scored on a wild throw. The fifth was Westminster's big inning. Joe Smith got a life when his grounder to third was muffed. Billingslea and Sayers each singled to center, filling the bases. Keller tapped to Buckley, and Smith was out at the plate, leaving the bases still clogged. Barnes then belted one to left for two bases, cleaning up Duncan's neat sacrifice advanced Barnes to third, from where he scored on a wild throw of L. Smith's infield tap. Motts scored when Branderburg's fly to left was dropped.

For Mt. Airy, Kolb started the sixth by fanning. Then Walker singled to left and Beck received a base on balls. Joe Smith and Billingslea took care of Newton, both runners scored when Branderburg made a wild pig of McDermott's grounder. Watkins then doubled to center scoring McDermott. Westminster scored what proved to be the deciding run in the seventh on Barnes' double to left and Duncan's single to right. The seventh was truly a hair-raiser, and Mt. Airy came within one of tying the score. Walker doubled; Day, Kolb and Smith singled in succession, and after Beck's grounder forced out Kolb, Newton tripled to right. Four runs crossed the pan during this nightmare, and the tying run was on third with only one out. It was right here that Duncan tightened up and forced McDermott to fan and Watkins to fly to Myers. Neither side reached first after the seventh inning.

The executive committee of the Carroll County Poultry Association wishes to impress upon the citizens of the county the necessity of supporting this enterprise through advertising in the premium list and sustaining membership in the organization. Also it invites all those through special cash premiums to notify the committee at once what specials they wish to offer, for this information will be incorporated in the premium list also.

The committee has planned to give full value for every cent contributed towards making the Mid-State the largest and best poultry show in rural Maryland. The advertising is well worth the money, for 2,500 copies of the premium list will be thoroughly distributed by mail. The rates are: 1 page, $10; half page, $5; quarter page, $3.

ARE YOU DOING YOUR PART?

As to sustaining membership in the association, this committee has a right to expect the support of every poultry raiser in the county. A list of members will appear in the premium list and thus testify to the interest that is displayed in this commendable undertaking. The dues are $1 a year and entitles the holder to free admission to the show at all times, and that also, is worth the price.

We claim that the enterprise is entitled to the support of all our citizens and we urge upon them the necessity of getting behind the management and making the Maryland Mid-State Show a yearly feature of national repute.

Send in your advertising copy and membership dues to Herbert G. Mathias, Secretary, Westminster, Md.; Dr. G. Lewis Wetzel, chairman; Walter H. Darfield, C. Irving Robb, Milton P. Myers, H. J. Jones, Thomas W. Kemp, Herbert G. Mathias, Capt. John N. Weigle, D. F. Shipley, Jr., Edgar C. Yingling, William E. Frock, Ray C. Hook and Frederick W. Fuller.

On Saturday, August 13, the annual picnic will be held in the park by the Sunday School and the J. O. U. A. M. This is a popular event and sure to draw a big crowd. It is expected that Congressman Zihlman and Linthicum will be present to make addresses. There will be many other features of interest. Refreshments will be served from the booth erected on the ground. To all these services the public is cordially invited.

The park is under the management of a commission of which Charles Krise is president; Wm. Renner, secretary and Denton Wachter, treasurer, and they are sparing no efforts to make it a community centre. The people of the community have worked together very harmoniously and supported the movement very liberally. About $1,500.00 has been spent and everything is paid for.

Unlontown, Pa., July 12.—Tasting ice cream for the first time in their lives, Joe Jabie and his three sons, living in the mountains near Unlontown, disposed of 61 dishes of the delicacy at the frat sitting.

The quartet entered a local confectionery store and ordered "some of that stuff," indicating the ice cream a man beside them was eating. They continued until each had devoured 15 dishes, with the father taking one extra. They then departed for home apparently in a happy mood.

YOUNG GIRL IN THICKET; SKULL CRUSHED, EYE GONE

CLARA LENNOX, 14, FOUND NEARLY NAKED AND UNCONSCIOUS, VICTIM OF BRUTAL ASSAULT.

New Castle, Pa., July 15.—Her head crushed in and one eye gouged out, Miss Clara Bell Lennox, 14, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lennox, of Moody avenue, this place, missing from home since yesterday, was found at 5 o'clock this evening in a thicket, four miles from here, by Deputy Sheriff Boyd, of this place, and Constable Banon, of West Pittsburgh. She was rushed to the Shenango Valley Hospital here, where her condition was said to be critical. Hospital attaches said her chances for recovery are slight.

The discovery was brought about by two New Castle boys, whose names local police did not obtain. They had been picking berries near the thicket and heard moaning. Frightened by the moans, the boys left the place and notified Deputy Boyd.

Boyd, accompanied by Constable Banon, went to the thicket and found the girl 200 feet from the roadway, all her clothing having been torn off except one shoe and one stocking. The girl had raised herself on one elbow, and was making an effort to move when the two men discovered her. It is supposed that the girl suffered her injuries fighting to save her honor.

Stuffed in her hat, found a short distance from where she was lying, were the girl's dress and undergarments. They were soaked with blood. Miss Lennox, it is said, had no marks on her body other than those on her head and face. A blunt instrument, it is believed, caved in her skull, causing one eye to be knocked out.

GET THE HOOK

Secretary of the Navy Denby has reprimanded Admiral Sims for his foolish speech in London, saying that whenever the Government wished to express itself, it would do it through official sources. Are we to understand from this that the speech of Ambassador Harvey which was a slander upon the name of America and as insult to all the soldiers living and dead who fought in the World War, is approved? It must be so, otherwise why should he not receive the same summons that Sims received to come to America and explain.
