

COMMUNITY PICNIC.

The Farm and Home Council are planning a Community picnic in which we are trying to get together the various sections of Carroll county. The meeting will probably be September 17th, although that date will be decided by the committee later.

TO TOUR BIBLE LANDS

Group of Clergymen and Educators to Make Trip.

Party Will Trace the Missionary Travels of the Apostle Paul Through Near East.

Boston.—Missionary journeys of Paul the Apostle will be retraced by a group of 25 educators, clergymen and others who will make a tour of exploration and study of Bible lands this summer under the leadership of Prof. Albert E. Bailey of the Boston university school of religious education.

The party will inspect the synagogue in Corinth, which has recently been excavated by an American archeological expedition headed by Dr. Ralph Cooley of Newton, and will visit also the site of Paul's famous speech to the Athenians on Mars hill. Other stops will be at Thessalonica, Smyrna, Ephesus, Tarsus and Antioch.

Returning, the party will leave Naples for Havre, from which port they will sail for the United States on August 29. At Naples, Professor Bailey will leave the party and continue around the world studying and collecting specimens of religious art for the university. In Java he will explore the Boro Bodur, Buddhist temple, said to contain the finest specimens of Buddhist art in existence.

WILL TEACH WORLD TO PLAY

Cleveland Offers Course in Playground Recreation to Young Men and Women.

Cleveland, O.—Young men and women from all parts of the nation come to Cleveland this summer aiming to teach the world to play.

They will attend the summer course in playground and recreation teaching offered by the Cleveland School of Education. The school opened with registration at Western Reserve university June 20. Invitations to enroll have been sent to 10,000 college men and women.

Lowland Haynes, director of the summer course, says a large amount of the work will be devoted to the handling of children and adults at play. Haynes is director of the Cleveland Recreation Council.

Associated with him on the faculty of the summer course are a number of well-known authorities on playground, community center and other recreational work.

Students of the summer school will get practical experience on the playgrounds of Cleveland and suburbs.

GONE 25 YEARS, SEEKS WIFE

New York Woman Falls to Recognize Her Spouse, Now Seventy-seven When He Drops in on Her.

New York.—When "Andie" Fuerpinger of Pearl River, N. Y., came marching home again a few days ago, his wife did not recognize him.

Still, as R. Van Winkle discovered, 20 years make changes in any man, and Fuerpinger was away 25 years.

Mrs. Fuerpinger was eating her dinner near the open door when the old man came up the walk. Her four children are grown, and she has four grandchildren. She always said that some day "Andie" would come back, but it was 25 years ago that she stopped searching hospitals and advertising in newspapers for him. Then, while she was at her dinner, "Andie," seventy-seven years old, came up the walk.

Nab Bandit Who Killed 100. Puebla, Mex.—Tacho Placido, a bandit with more than 100 personal assassinations and many other crimes, has been captured in the mountains above Puebla and has been brought here for trial. Placido never was a rebel against the federal government, but is alleged to have pursued a general marauding career.

Russia Reopens Seaports. Copenhagen.—Complying with the British-Russian trade treaty, the soviet government has opened to foreign ships the ports of Murman, Archangel, Nicolai, Sebastopol, Feodosia, Novorossk, and (as soon as the mines are removed), Kronstadt, Rostoff and Mariampol.

Kill Big Hawk Swooping Down on School Children. Saranac Lake, N. Y.—Attacking a motored full of little school children near here, a huge hawk, long hunted by farmers, and campers in the Wadhams section of the Adirondacks, was killed by the driver.
