

FANEY TOWN

On Saturday evening, July 23rd, at Trinity Lutheran...

Mr. and Mrs. George Hiltbrich spent the week's end with her sister, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Ogle, of New Windsor.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy C. Keefe and four children, and Harry Devilbiss, of Union Bridge, spent Sunday with Mrs. Keefe's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Gafer.

Mr. and Mrs. Mahlon Brown and niece, Miss Laura Copenhaver, spent Sunday with Mrs. Mary Stover and daughter, Mrs. Leah Koozt.

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Johnson and two children, of York, spent the week's end with Mr. and Mrs. George Newcomer. Mr. Johnson returned home Sunday evening. Mrs. and children remained. Mr. E. A. Newcomer and niece, Elizabeth Lambert, were callers at the same place Tuesday.

Mrs. Clarence King, who has been a patient at Frederick City Hospital for several weeks for treatment, returned home Saturday very much benefited by the treatment. Her many friends hope for a speedy recovery.

Mr. David M. Humbert was taken violently ill on Saturday, and was moved to University of Maryland, Baltimore, on Monday, for an X-ray examination to locate the trouble. Present reports are—no change in his condition.

Joy to the world, the electric lights have come at last, after much waiting and without warning. They shone forth on Saturday evening in all their sly splendor and have shone every night since.

Mr. Robert Stott, of New York, spent the week's end with his mother, Mrs. Margaret Stott, and aunt, Miss Anna Galt.

Mr. Robert Galt, of Hanover, spent the week's end with his mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Galt.

Misses Hazel and Louella Birkenstock, of Baltimore, are the guests of Miss Carrie Winter.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Rein Motter and George W. Motter motored to Cumberland and Frostburg and at the latter place called on Rev. Dr. Seth Russell Downie.

Clear View farm, the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Harner, was the scene of a happy gathering of relatives and friends. The following were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Harner: Mr. and Mrs. John Harner, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. George Harner, Mr. and Mrs. John Harner, Jr., and daughter, Velma; Mr. and Mrs. William Martin and four children, Mr. and Mrs. Luther Harner, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Harner and two grandchildren. Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Stambaugh, Misses Rose and Myrtle Harner, Messrs. Chas. and Donald Harner, and Mrs. Whitmore, mother of Mrs. Harner.

Miss Mabel Copenhaver, of York, was the week's end guest of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Shaum.

Mrs. Granville Bullock and children, of New Windsor, spent Sunday with her sister, Mrs. Norville P. Shoemaker and family.

Little Betty Ott returned from Frederick City Hospital on Monday very much benefited by an operation for appendicitis.

Miss Jennie Galt is the guest of her brother, Mr. and Mrs. J. Ross Galt, of New Windsor.

Quite a number of our citizens are camping at "Camp Welcome," near Zoars Mills, Pa., and entertained a number of visitors on Sunday at camp. The following were guests of the campers at supper on Sunday evening: Mr. and Mrs. Robert B. McKinley, Miss Jennie Galt and Mr. and Mrs. Norville P. Shoemaker and son. Everyone spent a very enjoyable time.

Miss Clara Bowersox returned from a six weeks' visit to friends in Washington and Augusta, Ga., accompanied by Miss Rae Stambaugh, of Augusta.

The following were week's end guests of Dr. and Mrs. Francis T. Elliot and family: Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Wilson and son, of Pittsburgh; Miss Agnes Ryan, of Layton, Pa.; and Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Button, of Conneville, Pa.

Misses Leila and Elizabeth Elliot, of Ballston Spa, N. Y., and Philadelphia, are guests this week of their brother, Dr. Francis T. Elliot, and family.

Mr. Robert Arnold has returned home from a visit to his sister, Mrs. Galt, of near Washington, where he has been under treatment for nervous affliction.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Orund, of Washington, are camping at Zora, Pa.

Mrs. Mary Stover and daughter, Mrs. Leah Koozt, entertained the following on Saturday: Mr. and Mrs. John Albaugh, and Mr. and Mrs. George Albaugh, of New Midway; Mr. George Overholzer, Mr. B. F. Hammaker, of Libertytown, was a caller at the same place on Tuesday.

SYKESVILLE

Chancellor Henry Bradford will be one of our lecturers at the Chautauqua we will have here next month, and it is said the value of his lecture cannot be measured in dollars and cents so don't miss it.

A number of our young folks went to Glenwood Club House last Friday night for a dance.

Miss Martha Campbell, of Wheeling, W. Va., has been visiting at the home of Ex-Senator Wade Warfield.

Mrs. W. Allport is on the sick list. Miss Mary Morris is visiting Miss Polly Wills, of Charles county.

Mrs. Jas. Gaitner returned to her home from the Eye, Ear and Throat Hospital, Baltimore, last Saturday. She had one eye operated on and will return Thursday to the hospital for operation on the other eye.

Misses Lexana Wilson and Josephine Hanning, Wilson Waterhouse, Jack Hanning and Frank Coniff, all of Wheeling, W. Va., are visiting at the home of Mr. Wade H. D. Warfield.

The bridge spanning the Patapsco here has been replanked and is now safe and sound.

The Misses Jones, of Front avenue, entertained the Up-to-Date Card Club, last Friday morning.

Mrs. Bessie Barnes spent several days in Baltimore last week.

Mrs. Elizabeth Brown has been visiting friends in Gaitner the last week.

Miss Ruth Bennett, of Newport News, is visiting friends here. Mr. R. R. Bennett, Sr., and son, Walter, have been touring Western Maryland and Pennsylvania, for the last week, visiting friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bennett and children and Mrs. Roy Fowble and son, LeRoy, of Baltimore, spent the week's end at the home of Mr. Edward Arrington.

Mrs. R. R. Bennett, Jr., entertained the Queen Esther's Monday evening. Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Jones and daughters, Ethel and Virginia, spent Sunday in Washington, motoring over there with Mr. and Mrs. David Dean and son, David and Major A. M. Hall.

Mrs. Raymond Arrington and children are spending some time at the home of Mrs. Arrington's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Jenkins.

Mrs. Richard Bennett, Jr., leaves Saturday to spend a week with her parents, at Marion Station, on Eastern Shore.

Mrs. Roger Hall, of Eldersburg, has been spending some time with her sister, Mrs. Joshua Barnes, nursing their father, Mr. Wm. Leight, who is ill at the home of Mrs. Joshua Barnes.

Miss Louise Presman, of Baltimore, who with her mother and sister, is spending the summer at the Hoggs Mansion, met with a very painful accident one day last week. While out riding horse back, with Mr. John Stem Bennett, her horse became unruly and threw her. Miss Presman was taken to a Baltimore hospital and it is hoped she is not seriously hurt.

Mrs. John Morris gave a dance and lawn party for her daughter, Francis, Tuesday afternoon and a few of her young friends.

UNIONTOWN

Miss Alice Lamb visited Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lamb, of Hanover, the first of the week.

Dr. Kemp attended a Forward Movement meeting in Frederick the past week.

Miss Alice Lamb spent several days with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lamb, of Hanover, the first of the week.

Miss Nellie Weaver was the guest of Mrs. John Jones and family of Hagerstown, on Tuesday.

Dr. Kemp visited Rev. Paul Yoder and family of Jefferson, York county, Pa., on Monday.

Mr. M. D. Smith and family and Mr. George Sionaker and family motored to Annapolis the past week, while there they called to see Dr. Gilbert and sister.

Mrs. Carrie Englar Schofield, of Arlington, called on Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Routson and other friends on Sunday.

Messrs. Nevin Crouse and Clarence Lockard and Misses Loretta Weaver and Nellie Hann were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Smith, of Hagerstown, on Sunday.

Rev. J. P. Crowson has returned from his vacation, which he and his family spent at his father's home in Parkley, Va.

George Romsper is visiting Rev. H. C. Dobson and family in Northumberland county, Va.

Miss Morris, of Baltimore, and Mr. Norman Otto, of Washington, were week's end visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Weaver. Mr. Otto returned to Washington on Sunday, accompanied by his wife and son, who has spent the week with her parents.

Mr. Wm. H. Shaw is visiting his sister, Mrs. Edwin Cover, of Easton.

Rev. Murray Ness and family and Miss Lord, of York, were entertained at Dr. Kemp's the past week.

Uniontown Lutheran—St. Luke's (Winter)—9-30 Sunday school, 10-30 Chief service with sermon by the pastor.

St. Union—1-30 Sunday school, 2-30 Divine worship.

Church of God, Uniontown—Sunday school at 9:00 a. m. No preaching service, pastor is having his vacation.

Frizzellburg—No preaching service. Wakefield—No preaching service.

MILLER'S

Mr. and Mrs. John K. Miller spent last Friday at Hanover, Pa.

Little Miss Marguerite Giller and Master Bender Giller had their tonsils and adenoids removed at a Baltimore hospital last Wednesday. Both are improving at this writing.

Miss Fern Miller spent last Wednesday and Thursday with her sister, Mrs. Luther Wentz, at Greenmount.

Mrs. Vertie Warner, of Baltimore, spent Saturday and Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Rinehart.

Mr. Chas. Giller, Jr., spent last Thursday at Sabillville visiting his aunt, Miss Emma Giller, who is a patient there, and found her very much improved.

Master Parker Miller, of Baltimore, is spending some time at the home of Geo. Bollinger, Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Miller and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Miller and daughter, Frances, spent last Sunday visiting the former's brother, Mr. Noah Miller and family, of Westminster.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Miller and daughter, Mildred, and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Miller and son, Melvin, spent last Sunday at the home of John K. Miller and family.

HAIGHT

On Saturday last a pair of horses belonging to Carroll Williams broke loose when they were hitched at Shipley & Bonner's at Gamber, and ran home. They were found in the barn yard. Nothing was broken except one of the lamps on the surrey. Mr. Williams and family fortunately were in the store at the time. Those horses must have been running a pretty good clip as Mr. Harry Williams gave chase in his automobile but did not catch them. This is one case where horses beat a machine.

Herbert Schmidt, son of Mrs. George Schmidt, Oakland Mills, had the misfortune to cut his heel very badly while playing a few days ago, which will cause him to be laid up for some time.

Mrs. Rachel Gamber, wife of Carroll Gamber, is in a Baltimore hospital and may have to remain there for some time, as her condition was reported to be of a serious nature.

The steam shovel arrived from Baltimore on Saturday last, and work was begun on Monday grading for the completion of the Oakland Mills Road which is expected to be finished this fall. Detour by way of North Branch.

Roland Tawney, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Tawney of Oakland Mills, cut his chin in some mysterious manner recently, which required Dr. Norris to put a plaster on the cut.

Harvest is about over here at last, much to the relief of the farmers, as they were about frazzled out from the hot weather and handicapped which they were working under.

Harry Shephard, wife and daughter, and Mr. and Mrs. Ringan, of Walbrook avenue, were guests of O. E. Phillips on Sunday last. Miss Katherine Phillips accompanied them home and will spend the week.

Rev. E. Carl Maxwell, of Freedom circuit, while on his vacation in West Virginia, had a rather varied and exciting trip, which he greatly enjoyed.

SANDYVILLE

Sunday School at 9:45 at Sandy Mount, this Sunday morning. Preaching at 10:45. C. E. at 8 o'clock led by Geraldine Young.

The Mite Society will meet next Friday afternoon, August 5, at the home of Mrs. Berlin Capie. If inclement, on Saturday afternoon. Members cordially invited.

Sandy Mount Sunday School will hold its annual picnic in the grove adjoining the church Saturday afternoon, August 13. Ice cream, cake, lemonade, candy, bananas, and other things at the booths for sale. Lunch, as last year, will be served at 5 p.m.

Misses Anna and Doris List spent last week with Misses Nulda and Edith Martin.

Mr. and Mrs. John List, Mrs. Katherine Zulck, son and daughter, Misses Carrie and Lillian Gatzel, of Baltimore spent Sunday with Mrs. Mary Miller.

Master Edwin Kroff spent the week's end with Thomas Martin.

Mr. and Mrs. James Child and daughter, Mildred, of York, Pa., and other relatives from Baltimore, are spending sometime with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Tanner.

Mrs. Luther Brown, Mrs. Paul Brown and daughter, and Emma Brown are spending several days at Pen Mar.

Mr. Harry Westaway, of Chicago, is spending a month with his mother, brother and other relatives.

Mrs. L. W. Caples and daughter, Lottie, spent a couple days in Baltimore this week.

Mrs. Ernest Stockdale, who had an attack of appendicitis, is much improved.

Miss Grace Yingling spent the past week in Westminster with friends and attended the Chautauqua.

HOUCESVILLE

Mrs. Robert Henderson, of Baltimore is spending a fortnight with her brother, Mr. Elmer Richards.

Mrs. Grace Grumbine is on a two weeks' visit to friends in Mt. Airy.

T. W. Buchman and wife spent the past Monday in Baltimore.

T. W. Buchman received a birthday envelope with an X in it last week from a friend living at Fort Wm. McKinley, Philippine Islands.

The Wesley Baseball Club defeated the Arcadia team on their grounds and the Junior Team defeated the Lawdale Club on their home grounds.

The Wesley base ball club will hold its first picnic in the grove near their diamond and will have two games during the afternoon.

Two car loads of granite and a car load of sand have been ordered for Wesley church. Every farmer in the community should become interested, and plan to help haul every time a car load of material arrives. Now is a good time to do his part. It will be a real picnic and the pay. Eternity will tell.

Mr. Joseph Pope, Mr. Robert Henderson and Mrs. Clara Richards spent the week's end with Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Richards.

Mr. John Johnson, of Baltimore, is spending the summer with his uncle, Mr. E. J. Hoffman.

Mr. Luther Hoffman is spending a week with friends in Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph B. Boyle, of this city, have returned from a visit to Mr. Boyle's brother, Dr. John Brooke Boyle, of Croft, Va. The scenery over the Blue Ridge Mountains and the Shenandoah Valley Old National Pike was beautiful. The visit was most enjoyable and both returned feeling much improved from their visit. Dr. Boyle accompanied them home for a short visit.

Public Sale!

The undersigned will sell at public sale, where she resides on West Main street, at Forks of the Road, Westminster, on Saturday, August 13, 1921

at 1 P. M., the following articles:

2 bed room suit, stands, rocking chairs, gas lamp, pictures, druggets.

COAL OIL STOVE, Lamps, clocks, clothes baskets, towel rack, looking glasses, window blinds, screens, stair carpet, stair carpet pads, step ladder, matings, buffet, china, closet, kitchen sink with cupboard top.

THREE BURNER GAS STOVE, three burner gas oven, refrigerator, kitchen table, flat irons, fruit jars, jelly tumblers, roasting pan, meat saw, kitchen range, in first class condition, a good baker.

Terms—Cash. MRS. ROSA M. DEVILBISS.

THE TERM "PERFECTED-VALVE-IN HEAD" MEANS MORE THAN IT SAYS. A NASH DEMONSTRATION IS PROOF.

FROUNFELTER BROS.

T. W. Mather & Sons WESTMINSTER'S LEADING STORE

Men's Shirt Sale 98c

By a fortunate purchase we are able to offer you several hundred dozen of shirts worth $1.50 each at the low price of 98c. These are high grade goods, well made and full cut, all sizes from 14 to 17 1/2 and come in a splendid assortment of patterns. This shirt sale is for this lot only. It will pay you to buy several at this special price.

Men's Hose 25c

We put on sale at the same time several hundred pairs of Men's Black Hose, fine mercerized lisle and silk plated goods, that formerly sold at 50c at the special price of 25c a pair.

T. W. Mather & Sons, Westminster, Md.

Special Notice!

Beginning August 1, 1921 BENJAMIN DORSEY will represent HARBAUGH BROTHERS dealers in Hupmobile and Dodge Cars Westminster, Maryland.

Write to-day for your copy of Wheat growing for profit. Public Sale! The undersigned will sell at public sale, where she resides on West Main street, at Forks of the Road, Westminster, on Saturday, August 13, 1921 at 1 P. M., the following articles: 2 bed room suit, stands, rocking chairs, gas lamp, pictures, druggets. COAL OIL STOVE, Lamps, clocks, clothes baskets, towel rack, looking glasses, window blinds, screens, stair carpet, stair carpet pads, step ladder, matings, buffet, china, closet, kitchen sink with cupboard top. THREE BURNER GAS STOVE, three burner gas oven, refrigerator, kitchen table, flat irons, fruit jars, jelly tumblers, roasting pan, meat saw, kitchen range, in first class condition, a good baker. Terms—Cash. MRS. ROSA M. DEVILBISS. THE TERM "PERFECTED-VALVE-IN HEAD" MEANS MORE THAN IT SAYS. A NASH DEMONSTRATION IS PROOF. FROUNFELTER BROS.

Open Air Concert Stem's Corner

Morgan Chapel Band Saturday, July 30, 1921 AT 7 P. M.

A. J. STEM.

PATRONIZE OUR ADVERTISERS.