

The Democratic Advocate

PUBLISHED EVERY FRIDAY BY The Democratic Advocate Company OF WESTMINSTER, MARYLAND.

Entered at the Postoffice Westminister, Maryland, Second Class Matter. All correspondents with this office should be addressed to "THE ADVOCATE."

TERMS:—$1.50 per year; 75 cents for six months and 40 cents for three months. Single copies 3 cents.

E. O. DIFFENDAL, Manager.

FRIDAY AFTERNOON, SEP. 9, 1921

BRIEFS

The public schools of Carroll county will open Monday.

Miss Etta Yingling, Webster street, is convalescing from an injured knee.

Dr. and Mrs. Jos. Lane Finley are spending some time at Grosenville, Queen Anne's county, Md.

Five of Elkton's jitney drivers were arrested yesterday, charged with soliciting wedding couples near the station, and fined $57.60.

Professor John C. French, of Monmouth, Ill., has accepted the position as principal of the Easton High School, succeeding C. A. McBride.

Bertha Jouis, colored, Baltimore, was run over by a Western Maryland train near Carlin's Park, last Friday and badly injured. She had her right arm and left foot severed.

James E. Young, aged 57 years, near West Chester, Pa., was found dead in a pasture field. He was gored to death by a vicious bull. His body was badly gashed by the horns.

Albert Jones, aged 73 years, son of the late Francis S. and Harriet Downey Jones, of Baltimore, died Sunday. His funeral took place Tuesday.

The barns and outbuildings on the William Moore farm, near Sykesville, were destroyed by fire on Tuesday of last week, with this year's crops and several hogs.

The Ford sedan that was sold to Mr. Frank Z. Miller, Willis street, was found to be a stolen car. State Officers came here last week and took it to Baltimore.

The State Roads Commission will open bids September 13 for the construction of two miles of concrete road from Motor's Station to the Emmersburg State road, connecting with the latter highway at Mount St. Mary's College.

Miss Miriam Dryden, instructor of English at the Crisfield High School, has resigned to accept a position at Western Maryland College, and the School Board has appointed Miss Annie Handy, of Marlon Station, her successor.

Miss Ida Sterner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Sterner, of Jefferson, and John Toot, son of Mrs. Kate Toot, near McSherrystown, were married Saturday, August 13, in Westminster, by Rev. Edwards, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob T. Frock entertained on Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Harry Devilbiss, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Myers, all of Hanover, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. George Devilbiss and daughter, Louisa, Myrtle and Roscoe Myers of Pleasant Valley.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Smith, of this city, entertained to dinner Sunday Mrs. Paul Johnson and two children, Helen and Melton, and Mrs. Oscar Huth, Mrs. John Suit, Mr. and Mrs. William Suit, and Miss Clara Suit, all of Washington, D. C.; Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Verrill, of Baltimore.

Those who visited Mr. and Mrs. John Crouse, of Mt. Pleasant, Sunday, August 28, were Ira and Mrs. J. Walker Thomas, of Baltimore; Mrs. Frank Crouse, Mrs. William Bish, Misses Hilda E. Frock, Nettie M. Frock, Messrs. John H. Frock and C. Edward Little.

William G. Simpson of the Federal Reserve Bank of New York City has visited friends in Westminster this week. Mr. Simpson was formerly with the Westminster Deposit & Trust Co. of this city. He now holds a responsible position and his many Westminster friends are pleased by his success so well deserved.

One evening last week, a street preacher, wearing a red shirt and blue trousers, entertained a number of Union Mills citizens with a sermon that was not lacking in plenty of living power. He claimed to be a former member of the Salvation Army. He acted as his own deacon and didn't miss the inevitable collection.

Mrs. George Groff, of Sykesville, brought to this office two eggs which one of her hens had laid. The one egg was a double one, one within the other and both had a shell and the other one had three yolks within. This hen has laid seven double eggs, and can be seen at Mrs. Groff's residence.

Mrs. A. W. Higgins, of Baltimore, received a badly sprained ankle Monday morning when the Reo roadster, she was riding in, turned turtle on the steep hill at the Maryland and Pennsylvania line. She was brought to the Westminster Hotel where her injuries were dressed and later taken to her home.

The Tidewater Transportation Company, which operates a freight and passenger motor bus service from Washington to Southern Maryland, may expand its operations by a freight service from Baltimore to Sykesville. Negotiations have been under way for some time by which the Tidewater Company would acquire the business of the A. W. Arndt Transfer and Express Company, which at present conducts the Baltimore-Sykesville service.

Mrs. C. C. Beach and daughters, East Green street, have returned from a visit to Lorman, Miss.

Miss Eva Johns, New Windsor, was a bridesmaid at Strite-Selbert wedding at Clearspring.

Sparks circus will be in this city on September 21. This is the first circus to exhibit here for several years. It will come from Hanover.

The lecture that was to be given Sunday by Rev. W. S. Plankner, at the Frizellburg Hall, has been postponed indefinitely.

Miss Esta Wampler and Helen Throne, of York, Pa., were guests of Miss Bertha Harman, Pennsylvania avenue.

Miss Grace Gunther, of Baltimore, was a week's guest of her sister, Mrs. Jesse Chrest, Pennsylvania avenue.

P. O. S. of A. Camp No. 68 will hold a picnic and ball game at the Hall at Smallwood, September 17. All welcome.

Ross J. Blocher, Manchester, has resigned as commercial instructor and director of athletics in Havre de Grace High School.

Miss Cordelia Myers, East Main street, returned home after spending the summer with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. M. O. Myers, Pen Mar.

Miss Beryl Summers, of Warfieldsburg, entered the Sheppard and Enoch Pratt Hospital, Towson, Thursday, where she is taking a training course in nursing.

The State police have given notice that they will enforce the law requiring horse-drawn vehicles to carry lights at night. The penalty is a fine ranging from $5 to $50.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Carter, of Sykesville, announce the engagement of their daughter, Mary Carroll, to Charles J. McAuliffe, of Baltimore. The wedding will take place in the early fall.

William Holton, 60, teller in the Centerville National Bank, yesterday afternoon shot and probably fatally wounded himself while in a rear room of the bank. No motive can be assigned as to the cause of the deed.

Duke of Westminster, b. g., by Duke of Liberty, owned by G. N. Hunter, this city, won a fast race at Wilmington, Del., yesterday. The first heat he won in 2:11, giving Duke a new race record of 2:13. He is staked in a big race at Reading, Pa., next week.

Returns from Tuesday's Registration in 13 precincts out of 25 show a gain for the Democrats. The figures are Democrats 192, and Republicans 157. A number of Independents changed their affiliation to vote for Republican and Democratic candidates.

The Rev. Harold L. Shipley, Mount Airy, of the Baltimore Conference, has been appointed to the Methodist Episcopal charge including the Yellow Springs and Lewistown churches. He will succeed the Rev. E. H. Lamar, who resigned on account of ill health. He will reside at Lewistown.

Mr. and Mrs. Christy, noted gospel singers of Baltimore, who delighted all with their fine music at the county Sunday school convention at Alhumi Hall, will be at the Sunday School Rally at Pleasant Valley Sunday afternoon, September 11, at 2:30. All Sunday school folks within reach are invited.

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Tyler, of Baltimore, are on a two weeks' vacation, visiting Mr. Tyler's aunt, Mrs. Wood, of New York. They will also visit Tighman Island, Crisfield and Ocean City. Mr. James M. Stoner, Pennsylvania avenue, this city, will visit his daughter and son-in-law, for the week's end.

The Western Maryland Railway Company filed an application with the Interstate Commerce Commission to issue $1,275,000 first refunding mortgage bonds to be used as collateral security for a loan of $1,000,000 from the Government. The petition stated the money will be used for the erection of elevators in Baltimore for export trade.

A state meeting of the American Legion was held at Richmond Armory, Baltimore, Tuesday and Wednesday, and was well attended both days by Legionnaires of Carroll county. J. Leonard Jordan, East Green street, was elected a member of the executive committee of the Legion. Dr. Eugene Walsh, Smith-Billingslea, and Francis C. Keeler were selected for delegates to the State Convention.

The body of Lloyd G. McRea, son of Mr. and Mrs. James D. McRea, was disinterred from Westminster cemetery by F. A. Sharrer & Son, undertakers and shipped to Clint, Texas. Young McRea was crowned in the stream at Cranberry on June 22. Mr. McRea and family moved to Texas this week, their former home, which is the cause of the removal of the body.

A fine new Studebaker "Six," driven by Howard Hull, of near Silver Run, overturned on the Littlestown pike, at the Winard farm, Sunday morning about 12:30 o'clock, badly damaging it. The big car skidded, and before it could be controlled, had crashed through a fence and turned over on its right side. The top was crushed, fenders on the right side were bent, windshield and frame were demolished and the body otherwise twisted.

Together with 99 others, the indictment against Rev. Kenneth G. Murray, Methodist minister and active uplift worker of a decade ago, and a former Carroll countian, has been set aside in Baltimore Circuit Court. In the indictment, Rev. Murray is charged with attempting to assault Olin D. Williams. The minister disappeared in 1915, and he has never been located. A capias issued after the return of the indictment was returned by deputy sheriffs.

Columbus Dize, of Crisfield, was found dead on his wife's grave in a cemetery near the above place.

Mr. Joseph Brooks, of New York, is a guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph D. Brooks, Willis street, this week.

Dominic Ward, of Beryl, W. Va., in attempting to jump a freight on the W. M. R. R. at Westernport, fell under the train and was killed.

Mr. Edward Swinderman, this city, is building a comfortable and attractive residence on Liberty street extended.

Manchester Fire Company was voted a $50 contribution by the Westminster Fire Company Wednesday evening.

Charlie Chaplain, the funny screen artist, has been sold for $10,000 by his attorney, Goldsmith, who induced Charlie to pay Mildred Chaplain, his discarded wife, $100,000.

Miss Nellie Campbell and Master Ernest Linton, of Baltimore, have returned home after spending some time with their cousin, Mrs. Frederick Gore, of Louisville.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Ebeling and son, of Ohio, and Mr. and Mrs. Yates Murphy and children, of Baltimore, and Master William Powder visited Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Gore, of Louisville, last week.

The Westminster Fire Company accepted an invitation to take part in a parade being held by the Pikesville Fire Company, at Pikesville, next Monday. The company will take their new fire engine.

Messrs. John and William Manning, this city, left yesterday on a business trip to Orrville, Ohio. They will also connect pleasure with their trip and visit their brother, Charles Manning, who is a contractor in the same city.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman C. Moore and son, of Scranton, Pa., who have been spending some time with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Schweigart, West Main street, left Wednesday to visit the folks of her husband in Virginia.

The Westminster Fire Company was donated a purse of $20 in gold from the citizens of Manchester for their services at the recent fire of their little city. The company accepted the generous offering with many thanks.

Miss Lottie Lenora Slinger and Bruce Paul Eyer, both of Rocky Ridge, were married by the Rev. J. O. Wrightson, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church, Mrs. Charles Martin was mistress of honor and Charles Martin was best man.

Infuriated because a New York subway train door stuck and interfered with their leaving a train early Monday, three gunmen started a fight in which one man was mortally wounded, another's skull fractured and 1200 passengers thrown into a panic.

William Newman Cover, of Keymar, and Mildred May Speak, of LeGore, were married at Charlestown, West Virginia, on August 15, by Rev. T. M. Swann. The wedding was a complete surprise to the parents and friends of the contracting parties.

Within the past ten days, at various times, five horses of Beauford Coursey, a young farmer of near Barclay, have been cut and slashed. Investigation resulted in the arrest of Alex. Carney, a negro farmhand, recently discharged.

Mr. Claude Mitten, who conducted the barber business on East Main street, for many years, has discontinued same and has opened a green-grocery stand in a room under his residence, next to Keeler's grocery store, on East Main street. Fresh goods at all times.

Sentences of 10 years each in the Penitentiary were meted out Tuesday by Judge Forsythe in the Howard County Court to George T. Lemm and Philip Arpacano, who pleaded guilty to assaulting Mike Rife of Ellicott City in his automobile last Saturday night with intent to kill.

The Harve de Grace Republican, one of the oldest weekly newspapers in Maryland, has passed into new hands. The owner, William S. McCombs, disposed of the plant to Stanley M. Barratt, William O. Leithiser and George T. Lyon, all young men of Harve de Grace, for $3000.

The home of Mr. Samuel Baumgardner, located between Emmitsburg and Keysville, was destroyed by fire recently, causing a loss of between $7,000 and $8,000. The fire originated from a defective chimney. The neighbors hurried to the scene and managed to save some of the furniture. It is said there was only $800 insurance.

Upon the advice of physicians in each case, the Montgomery County Commissioners have adjudged Edward Clagett and Alice G. Stabler, both of that county, to be of unsound mind and have directed that they be committed to Springfield Asylum, Sykesville, for care and treatment.

"If any one tries to tell you what kind of weather we are going to have next winter, or next summer, or whether it's going to rain on the Fourth of July or snow the day before Christmas, just give him a kindly look—but don't believe him. No person knows what kind of weather we'll have even next week, and any long-distanced guessing is bunk." So declared Government Meteorologist Henry Pennywitt, when he was asked what sort of winter Pittsburghers were to expect.

Those who were entertained Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Powder, of Honey Hill Farm, were Mr. and Mrs. D. T. Buckingham, Mr. and Mrs. Yates Murphy, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Ebeling, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Gore, Mrs. Robert Campbell, Mrs. Edith Miller, Mr. Harry Myers, Mr. Ernest Linton, Misses Nellie Campbell, Carrie Murphy, Lorraine Gore, Messrs. Ernest Linton, Jr., Delbert Ebeling and Edwin Murphy.

Mr. and Mrs. Cleveland Logue, of Baltimore, were Monday evening guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joshua Logue.

Mr. and Mrs. Roland Wiener, of Hampstead, visited Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Banker Sunday past.

Mrs. Weber Lippy and children, of Baltimore, spent some time at her home, in this city.

It is estimated that more than 9,000,000 Russian babies are threatened with starvation.

Miss Betty Reese, Willis street, was very pleasantly entertained with a birthday party yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. Harry Albaugh, of Hanover, is visiting Mrs. Levine Billingslea, East Main street.

Mr. James Shilling, has accepted a position as salesman for the Fisher Motor Co., this city.

The stork visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Greenwood and left them a fine big baby boy.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Fred Boisvert, Carrollton, are entertaining the latter's mother, Mrs. Wm. Hyna and brother, William, of Willard, N. Y.

Carroll Post No. 31, American Legion will hold its opening dance in the Armory on Friday evening, September 30.

A Ford automobile lost a wheel at the Forks of the Road Monday night and damaged the running part to some extent. No one was injured.

Three were killed in Detroit, Mich., when a three-story brick building on Mulet street was wrecked by a gas explosion. Windows for blocks were shattered.

St. Paul's Reformed Church steeple was struck by lightning during the heavy thunder storm Tuesday evening. The bolt struck the cross and came down the side of the steeple tearing off the slate and damaging the electric wiring.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. VanFossen and daughters, Eleanor and Margaret, Misses Rosella Wisner and Helen Logue, all of Kennett Square, Pa., spent the past Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Wisner, Patapsco.

Those visiting Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Schaeffer on Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Stern and family, of Pinksburg; Mr. and Mrs. Lee Schaeffer and family, of Snyderburg; and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kohner and little son, Edward, of near Greenmount.

Those who were visitors at Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Gummel's on Sunday last were Mr. and Mrs. Lee Albaugh, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Albaugh, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob H. Gummel and Mr. Luther Bosson.

The Westminster Fire Company and Westminster Band took part in the firemen's parade in Manchester, Monday. Twenty-seven firemen and about the same number of the band were in the line. The dinner served to the men was excellent and much enjoyed.

The ladies of Bachman's church, Bachman's Mills, will serve a supper at the church on Thursday evening, September 15, or on the first fair evening following in case of inclement weather. Ice cream, cakes and home-made candies will be on sale. Nace's orchestra will furnish music.

The Christian Endeavor society of the Methodist Protestant Church, this city, will convene for the first meeting of the Fall Sunday evening, September 11, at 7 o'clock. Topic, "How to Make the Most of Our Bibles." The meeting will be in charge of the president, Wilfred M. Copenhaver. All members and friends of the society and church are extended a cordial invitation to be present.

Mr. and Mrs. Joshua Logue and family, entertained Sunday Mrs. Schmidt, Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Insley and son, Charles, Mr. and Mrs. William Dean, and Mr. Lloyd Dean, of Baltimore; Mrs. Schmidt and Mrs. Insley and son, Charles, are spending the week, Mrs. Richard Owens and daughter, Christina and sons, Boyd and Otto, also were Sunday evening guests.

Those calling on Mr. and Mrs. Charles Streitz Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Snyder and daughter, Grace, and Miss Altie Streitz, of Pleasant Valley; Mr. and Mrs. Aaron W. Long and daughters, Caroline and Mary, of Baltimore; Mrs. Harold McCreey and son, Leonard, of Milton, Pa.; Miss Annie Ruby and William Streitz. A very pleasant day was spent.

Myers Goldstine, York grocer, and Elmer Jacob Eichelman, proprietor of a garage at Lancaster, Pa., were killed and a score of others were injured in auto accidents occurring in that section Sunday. Goldstine was taking a party of Harrisburg men to their homes, when at a point near Abbotstown his small car was struck by a big auto coming out of a crossroad. The small car was rolled over four times. Goldstine practically being decapitated. The five other passengers were all injured.

IMMANUEL LUTHERAN CHURCH, MANCHESTER.

Harvest Home service September 11, Bible school rally September 25. The Sunday school will hold an outing in Druid Hill Park September 10. Will leave the church at 9 o'clock. The Men's Bible Class will hold a chicken soup supper and social September 17. The Ensor Quartette of Baltimore will sing. Come and spend the evening with us. Rev. C. G. Leatherman and family attended the reopening services at his home church September 4, at Utica Mills, Md. Rev. C. A. Shilke, pastor. The speakers for the evening were Rev. Leatherman and Rev. A. R. Wentz, of Gettysburg Seminary.

SUNDAY SCHOOL RALLY AT MT. PLEASANT

The third of a series of Sunday school rallies being planned by the Carroll County Sunday School Association will be held in the Mt. Pleasant Methodist Episcopal Church, Gamber, on Sunday afternoon, September 18, at 2:30 o'clock. All Sunday school folks within reach are invited.

CARROLL REFORMED CHARGE.

St. Matthew's, Pleasant Valley—Sunday school 9 a. m. Harvest Home service 10 a. m. Uniontown District Sunday school Convention 2:30 p. m. St. Benjamin's—St. Benjamin's Congregation will meet with the Sunday school Convention at Pleasant Valley at 2:30 p. m. J. W. Reinecke, pastor.

SALEM CHARGE.

St. John's (Leister's)—Sunday school at 9 a. m. Preaching at 10 a. m. St. Benjamin's (Kriders)—Sunday school at 1 p. m. Preaching at 2 p. m. These services will be conducted by the Rev. Charles Gruber, of Gettysburg. A full attendance of the members is desired.

JESUS LOVER OF MY SOUL

Charles Wesley was sitting at his desk by an open window, when a dove chased by a large hawk, flew in. Wesley saved the bird, and the incident inspired him to write his famous hymn, "Jesus, Lover of My Soul."

BLEST BE THE TIE

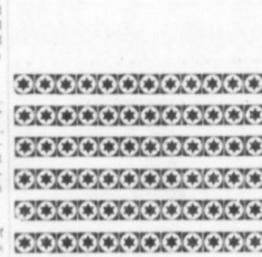

Is the dearest of all Christian Hymns, written by John Fawcett, an English clergyman in 1772.

ON JORDAN'S STORMY BANKS

Was written by a man who never saw the Jordan river, but was inspired by his imagination to draw a picture of the beauties of this hymn, which has been sung all around the globe and even on the banks of the Jordan River.

PAROCHIAL SCHOOL TO OPEN SEPTEMBER 12.

It was announced in St. John's Church on Sunday that school will open at 9 o'clock September 12. It is said the number of pupils enrolled surpasses all records in the history of the school. The business course will have at least twice as many pupils as during the last term. Several new Sisters of Notre Dame will complete the faculty.

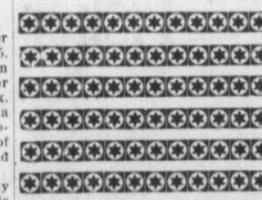

Printing

of all kinds done at this office on short notice--

Give us a trial

Democratic Advocate Co

T. W. Mather & Sons WESTMINSTER'S LEADING STORE

School Sale!

School Shoes

For Boys, For Girls, For Growing Girls $4.50 Sizes 2 1/2 to 7

All solid leather tan lace shoes, welt stitched soles, a very good wide toes, welt stitched so they can be resoled with sewed soles, extra value at $4.50. Other styles at $3.00, $4.00, $5.00 and $6.50.

Shoes for Misses $4.00 Sizes 11 1/2 to 2

All solid leather tan lace shoes, welt stitched soles, a very good looking shoe, and a great shoe for wear. Extra value at $4.00, other styles at $2.50, $3.00 and $5.00.

Shoes for Children $3.00 Sizes 8 1/2 to 11

All solid leather tan lace shoes made for service and wear, extra value at $3.00. Other styles for $2.00, $2.25, $2.50 and $4.00.

School Shoes for Boys A heavy shoe at $3.50

Heavy tan grain blucher shoe, all solid leather soles and counters, guaranteed to wear. Sizes 2 1/2 to 7, $3.50, sizes 1 to 2, $2.00, sizes 11 to 13 1/2, $2.50.

Lion Brand Shoes for Boys $3.00

A genuine Lion Brand boy's shoe made of brown Hardy Hide, heavy soles, great for wear, sizes 2 1/2 to 5 1/2 $3.00.

A Dressy Shoe $3.00

Good quality tan shoes, English last, solid leather soles. Sizes 1 to 5 1/2 $3.00, sizes 9 to 13 1/2 $2.50.

For Big Boys---Shoes at $4.50

Good quality tan calf shoes, English last, and rubber heels. Sizes 6 to 9 $4.50.

School Dresses Gingham Dresses $1.50 6 to 14 years

Good quality gingham dresses, cut full size, nicely trimmed, some with white collar and cuffs, others with dark collars and cuffs. Extra value at $1.50.

School Dresses $2.00, $2.50 and $3.00

Our best quality ginghams and plain materials at these prices, made in the most attractive styles, all fast colors. Sizes 6 to 14 years.

Middy Blouses $1.25

White middy blouses made of real Lansdale Jeans, either white or blue collars and cuffs, sizes 6 to 20. Extra value at $1.25.

Children's Sample Sweaters

We were fortunate in securing a lot of fine all wool sweaters for children from 3 to 6 years. Every one all wool and in a variety of colors and combination of colors. Sweaters worth $3.00 to $3.50 will be sold at $2.50; $3.50 to $5.00 values at $2.95.

Boys' School Pants 85c

Good quality khaki pants for boys from 6 to 14 years, only 85c.

Corduroy Pants $1.50

Guaranteed corduroy pants for boys from 6 to 15 years, made knickerbocker style, extra value at $1.50.

Boys' School Blouses 75c

Percale, Chambray and seersucker gingham blouses, extra well made, sizes for boys from 6 to 14 years only 75c. Best Khaki Blouses 85c.

Serge Jumper Dresses $3.98

Jumper dresses of all wool serge, nicely trimmed, sizes 14 to 20. Extra value at $3.98.

New Fall Millinery

We are ready with a splendid assortment of new Fall hats. Dozens and dozens of ready to wear hats are here for your selection as well as a large stock of untrimmed shapes. Miss Lowry is again in charge.

New Fall Dresses

We are now showing the best line of ready to wear dresses ever shown in Westminster. Canton Crepe, Crepe de Chine, Messaline, also wool dresses of serges and Tricotines. All reasonably priced and the newest and most attractive styles.

School Supplies

Complete line of tablets, note books, composition books, rulers, crayons, companions, book bags and lunch boxes.

T. W. MATHER & SONS WESTMINSTER, MD.