

Notes By The Way

SEND NO MONEY

For ten years or more, some syndicate firms have been sending out catalogs, offering to sell on the installment plan, adding to the price of the goods more than enough money to cover the interest on the sum invested...

Now, some of the firms, wanting to have cash, advertise a lower price on necessities of the home, in all its departments, saying, "Send no money, but pay when you receive the goods," which means, "Collect on Delivery..."

A LETTER FROM A CRIPPLE

We have written in these columns about hundreds of thousands of invalids and cripples, but have never given any of their letters. We select one of many from our desk, and will give the address to any one who is interested...

COXEY'S ARMY AGAIN

It will be remembered by some of our older readers, in 1894, one year after the panic of 1893, that a man by the name of Coxe, started in Ohio, where he had been engaged in cattle-dealing, headed for Washington, gathering idle men on the way, expecting to have 100,000 until he reached the Capitol City...

THE PREACHER'S JOB.

Last Sunday in a Sunday School Bible class we heard the following story illustrating a minister's work: "In the days of long ago, before the advent of the automobiles, and in a neighborhood, where, seemingly horses were scarce, a crowd of S. S. members including the teacher, who was also the preacher, loaded many good things in a wagon, it was decided to push the wagon up hill, all willing to help the preacher to guide the wagon tongue. Going up a small hill, the preacher, instead of guiding, found that he must pull to the utmost to keep it going, and soon learned to his consternation, they were all on the wagon, and he was the only one working..."

A TERRIBLE ACCIDENT

Last week I wrote about the largest aeroplane in the world, nearly 700 feet in length, built and paid for by the U. S. Government, about to make its trial trip across the Atlantic Ocean. We protested against the cost, $1,500,000 wondering, where the benefit was in such a large expenditure of the nation's money, when it could be put to better use.

GOING TO EXTREME

It is a well known fact that the desire for notoriety will lead men into extremes, but until now, it seemed that women would "overdo" only in the matter of dress. Several years ago, two men accomplished the feat of swimming across the English Channel in 21 to 23 hours, without resting for food or water...

WHAT LESS THAN A DOLLAR

Thousands of farmers, many in our neighborhood, are threatening to drop out of the market, on account of a destroying moth, and must take less than a dollar for it, when many of them paid three times as much for seed wheat, and a large price for fertilizer. We can only find two reasons for the low price of wheat.

OUR STATE ROAD

The past two weeks a gang of men from Westminster, have been repairing the State Road North of Jessel, from the Pennsylvania Line Southward. On Saturday one of the men said, "We will keep on until we reach the railroad."

A PICTURE OF HEAVEN

One day a minister selected for his text, "Heaven," and made his subject so plain, so eloquent, and so convincing, that one of his congregation, at the close of the service, came to him, and said, "Parson, that was the best sermon I ever heard you preach. It showed me Heaven plainer than I have ever been shown before. But you did not tell us where Heaven is!"

A WOMAN VOTER'S OPINION

From Illinois we received the following: "Now that we too have the ballot, men say matters are steadily growing worse. Of course, it is easy to put the blame somewhere. Life is not easy for most of us poor mortals in these days of the world's woe. Our worldly wise men, with all their commissions, conventions, and investigations, do not seem to be helping matters much. But we must have hope. We must have faith and trust in the Lord whence cometh our strength, and our help in time of trouble, a very present help in every time of need."

W. J. BRYAN'S SPEECH

Although Bryan was defeated when his many friends wanted to make him President of the United States, he has been enabled, in all these intervening years, to do more good to his fellow-men, and the world in general, than if he had been the Executive Head of the Nation. Recently he made a powerful address at the Christian Endeavor Convention, in New York City, on "Peace and Patriotism." In part, he said, "Patriotism requires Peace. With the Senate and the House voting by large majorities for disarmament, I believe war will be put where Lincoln wanted to put Slavery, in the process of ultimate extinction."

AN AUTOMOBILE WITHOUT A CHAUFFEUR

At last there is something "new." Long ago people dreamed of aeroplanes. They became a reality. The question has often been asked, "What will be next?" Last week, in Dayton, Ohio, when the policemen were astonished to see an automobile spin along the streets without a chauffeur. It was a driverless radio automobile from McCook Field, controlled by a radio 1000 feet behind it. The automobile itself contained no wireless and is said to be the first of its kind publicly exhibited by the air service.

"PREACHERS AND TEACHERS."

No other professions in the world are so much "talked about" and "accused as the above-named, and, with a few exceptions, are the poorest paid, comparing the preparations, or apprenticeship an individual must undergo before he can be adopted as a real member of either profession. Last winter, one of our boys, after many years of preparation, was fortunate to be located at a place where he received as pastor of a small church, the sum of $1,500, and as teacher, $1,000—a salary of $2,500 a year, this however, was an exception, and but few experience it.

HIGH-WHEELED BICYCLES

It was not so many years ago, less than a score—when the old-time high-wheel bicycles were seen on all roads and public highways. We had the "Bike" fever, and purchased one. Learning to ride it caused many minor bruises on various parts of the body, and perspiration soaked fast enough to cause two shirts to be saturated in a short time. On one of our trips, the large wheel struck a stone. Result: rider and outfit in the fence corner, the wheels on the overturned "bike" revolving rapidly.

ICE CREAM CONE STRIKE

Children in New York, Boston and other large cities, have paraded the streets, protesting against the high prices of ice cream cones, since materials have come down in price. Why they boycott the dealers who try to take the advantage of the youth of our land? Or, why not do as the children and older people, as well, did before the frozen delicacies were introduced? People lived then, and perhaps had better stomachs and teeth than at the present day.

HENRY FORD AGAIN

Besides being a Peace Advocate this great automobile financier is planning great things. He is starting at Muscle Shoals, Alabama, a factory to produce aluminum, and a factory to manufacture cotton cloth for use in his big business. The town of Muscle Shoals, Ala., expects soon to be a city of 100,000 population, as it will require thousands of men to do the work connected with carrying out the things he is planning.

THE DIFFERENCE IN EXPENSE

A full page advertisement in a newspaper, reads "Everytime you bake at home you save one-half of what it costs to buy your bread. Now that flour is cheaper, good home-made bread, with a flavor and nourishment all its own, is more than ever taking place of more expensive foods in millions of homes." The advertisement ends with a plea to buy magic yeast powder to make good bread and save money at the same time.

BIGGIES AND AUTOMOBILES

When we hear the question asked, "Why don't you get an automobile, it reminds us of about 25 years ago when the question, some what altered, was asked, "Why don't you get a buggy?" And it was "Lien said, perhaps more than once, "If you do not have a buggy you cannot expect to get a girl." Those times are past and gone. Many of those young people did not get a buggy, and yet they were happily married. The same lesson can be applied to the automobile and the present day.

CONUNDRUMS AND ANSWERS

Why is U the gayest letter in the alphabet? Because it is always in fun. Why are false friends like the letter P? They are always first in pity and last in help. Why is the letter T like matrimony? It is at the end of quiet and at the beginning of trouble.

THE LARGEST POULTRY FARM

In and around Petaluma, California, 35 miles from the Pacific Ocean, are more eggs and chickens than in any other like space in the world. The climate is ideal, the only difference being summer and winter is rain during the winter months instead of snow. The largest poultry ranch occupies 45 acres and runs 50,000 chickens, all of the White Leghorn variety. The average ranch contains but a few acres, and 5,000 chickens can easily be managed by a married man and his family.

REMEMBER THE GOLDEN RULE

Many people take a delight in unreasonable teasing, and though it is only meant in good-will, yet the same parties would not appreciate the same done to them. They also forget the Bible injunction, Matthew 12:50: "But say unto you, that every idle word that men shall speak, they shall give account of in the day of Judgment."

SPURNED RICHES TO GAIN LOVE CALIFORNIA HEIRESS GAVE UP FORTUNE TO WED CHAUFFEUR

Whether [Ruth Hart Casero, for years mentioned as heiress to some of the many millions of Howard Hamilton Hart oil magnate and mining man, has forever alienated herself from the good graces of her foster father by her marriage to Ralph Casero, once the family chauffeur, remains for time to tell. For more than 10 years Howard Hamilton Hart gave Ruth Hart, who was taken into his home in 1911, the education and luxuries permitted by an income from many millions. She was sent to Europe to complete her education.

WASHINGTON LETTER

It was a splendid assemblage that gathered last March to witness the inauguration of President Harding, after eight years of Republican wandering in the wilderness, largely due to President Taft's strong leaning toward corporate interests and to Republican legislative favors to the big rich. The crowd on the Presidential pavilion and the reserved sections was made up largely of silk-hatted gentlemen whose names are found in the lists of the directors of the big industrial corporations, railroads and banks. There were many greetings, much of handshaking and congratulating, but perhaps nothing was more enlightening than the brief confab between one of the guests and one of the wise old Republican Senators who had seen McKinley and Taft come and go. The director was in fine fettle—the conditions were auspicious. He remarked, "We looked about on Republican Senators, Representatives and hangers-on, sleek, prosperous and without number, that 'if looks as if the millennium has come.' 'Yes," replied the old and wise Senator, "and that same millennium will, within a few months, blow up with a loud bang."

KILLS HIS BROTHER OVER BILL FOR $1

Ralph Penrose, 36, was shot to death by his brother, Norman, 26, in a boarding house at Elkins Park, Pa., after the men quarreled over responsibility for a telephone bill for $4.11. Both brothers are wealthy, and sons of Samuel J. Penrose, 323 South Main street, Doylestown, Pa., reputed to be one of the richest farmers in Bucks county.

SHOOTS KIN TO DEATH IN BOARDING HOUSE AFTER QUARREL

The shooting occurred at the boarding house at Spring avenue and York road, Elkins Park, conducted by William Connard. The brothers made their home there and had rooms next to each other. The brothers were heard quarreling in the dining room by Miss Elizabeth Connard, daughter of the proprietor. High words were followed by blows. Miss Connard told police Norman was worsted in the encounter and withdrew to his room. Ralph walked into the garden in the rear of the house. Suddenly, police say, Norman leaped from the window of his room with an automatic pistol and fired four shots at Ralph in the garden below. All missed. Ralph rushed into the house, while Norman pocketed the pistol and ran downstairs. They met in a small parlor in front of the dining room and fought again. Miss Connard, with her 14-year-old niece, Dorris, sought to separate them, but they were brushed aside by the men, who broke furniture and upset lamps in the struggle. Again Ralph was the apparent victor. As Norman was hurled aside, Miss Connard told the police he again drew the pistol and fired. The bullet struck Ralph in the neck. He staggered into another room and fell. He soon died and followed his brother. He stopped and gazed at him in silence. Then he turned to Miss Connard. "I guess I've shot Ralph," she told the police he said to her.

AMERICA

Lowell Mason, organizer of Bowdoin Street Church, in Boston, asked his friend, S. F. Smith, to write him some patriotic verses for a special day. Smith wrote the well loved words of "My Country, 'Tis of Thee."

SMALLWOOD

The Deer Park picnic was a greater success this year than it was for many years. Everything helped to make it so. The weather was ideal. There were different games as attractions and ice cream and cake and confectiary in abundance with a splendid supper to be had instead of going home hungry. The gross receipts were $417.92. The two games of base ball were very much enjoyed. One of the games was won by the Smallwood team and Gamber was the other. The volley ball and dodge ball games were also enjoyed. At night there was a splendid and interesting address by Rev. Walck. The occasion was enlivened by the Taylorsville band.
