

The Democratic Advocate

PUBLISHED EVERY FRIDAY BY The Democratic Advocate Company OF WESTMINSTER, MARYLAND.

Entered at the Postoffice, Westminster, Maryland, Second Class Matter. All correspondents with this office should be addressed to "THE ADVOCATE."

E. O. DIFFENDAL, Manager.

FRIDAY AFTERNOON, SEP. 16, 1921

BRIEFS

The public schools opened Monday with a large enrollment of students.

The big Hanover fair is next week. It is better than ever.

Spark's Circus will be with us next Wednesday. The show is well recommended.

Miss Bessie Rosenstock spent this week's end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rosenstock, this city.

Lightning struck a large stock barn of E. G. Stephen at Munice, Ill., and burned it with 1400 head of sheep.

A stock left Mr. and Mrs. John Case, Liberty street, a 6 1/2 pound son, Sunday morning.

About 50 citizens took advantage of the Luray excursion Sunday. The train consisted of 14 coaches.

Charged with threatening to burn the town of Crumpton, Edward Wise, colored, has been lodged in the county jail at Centerville.

Threats to destroy the new school building at Willowville, Pa., was made and an investigation is being made to find the perpetrator.

Mrs. Joseph Brooks and son, of New York, are guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph D. Brooks, Willis street.

A marriage license was issued in Ellicott City on September 10 to Harry Alvin Phillips, of Sykesville, and Ruth May Long, of Sykesville.

Mr. Harry Young, near this city, purchased the Mrs. Nelson Gilbert residence, on West Main street, at public sale Monday.

On Monday several members, with the fire truck, of Westminster Fire Company took part in the firemen's parade at Pikesville.

Pacific salmon which were liberated in the Susquehanna River last year are said to be making good growth, some weighing as high as 10 pounds.

Another garage to be opened on East Main street, Arthur Blizard is remodeling the first floor of his residence for a garage.

Jealously caused Richard Crawford to shoot and probably fatally wounding Miss M. L. Johnson, Baltimore, Monday. Crawford tried suicide but made a bad job of it.

Harrison W. Vickers, of Kent county, chairman of the State Conservation Commission, is advocating the shortening of the oyster season by one month, eliminating September.

Joseph M. Street, for many years editor and owner of the Harford Democrat, is in a serious condition at his home from a broken hip and other injuries sustained in a fall.

The Kent county Board of Education will award by competitive examination on September 24 scholarships at St. Mary's Seminary, Charlotte Hall School and Blue Ridge College.

E. Clarke Fontaine, of Pocomoke City, has been appointed by the State Board of Education as district supervisor of high schools on the Eastern Shore and Southern Maryland.

Mr. and Mrs. Charley Dull and family, of Patapsco, James Elton and Louise Zentgraf, of Snyderburg, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dull.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Mitchell, and daughter, Miss Elizabeth, East Main street, left today for a two weeks' visit to relatives and friends in Indiana and Illinois.

Frederick Blue Ridge League pennant winners, became champions of Maryland, when they defeated Princess Anne, the champions of the Eastern Shore League. Frederick won four out of five games.

George W. Crum, 64, former County Treasurer and one of the wealthiest and best known citizens of Frederick county, died suddenly Sunday afternoon at Frederick while in an automobile with a party of friends.

George Bossinger, 14, Lewistown, Pa., was playing with a rope used for carrying hay to the mow for a swing, slipped and entwined around his neck, hanging him. His body was found by his father.

There will be a woman's meeting held at Fairview, Saturday, September 17, at 2 p. m. The subject will be short cuts in sewing or fall millinery. Every woman in the vicinity is invited.

Messrs. Leland Jordan, Melvin King and Ezra Harbaugh came rolling in on high gear Sunday afternoon from their trip to Canada. Their car was conflagrated with pennants of nearly every city they passed through, which covered it completely. They were gone two weeks and were well pleased with their little vacation.

After a raid by Federal prohibition and narcotic agents on the Greek steamship King Alexander at New York, Friday, in which seven members of the crew were wounded by pistol shots, Frank J. Fitzpatrick, chief narcotic officer, who had taken part in the raid, committed suicide at a nearby pier.

Mr. Earle Owings had the first load of worm seed still at Nick Barber's worm seed stills.

Morgan Run school opened Monday with 18 scholars on roll. Miss Ruth Colthas is teacher.

St. Paul's Reformed Church Bible class held an outing at Flickinger's grove, near Taneytown, yesterday afternoon.

Miss Lou Easton and Miss Louise Barnhart, of East Orange, N. J., are visiting among relatives in this city and county.

Judge James A. C. Bond, who spent a two months' vacation in Europe, arrived home Monday well pleased with his trip.

The body of Capt. Harry J. Selby, who was killed in France, arrived at his home, West Friendship, Tuesday. His funeral will be held Monday.

The school teachers of Washington county will receive a 10 per cent cut in their salaries. The school board expects to save $26,000 by their move.

Revival meeting will start at Zion Methodist Protestant church Sunday night. Song service at 7.45 and will continue until 8.15. All come out and bring a friend.

The Carroll County Farmers' picnic Saturday was well attended and enjoyed by a large gathering of people throughout the county. The Pleasant Valley Band rendered the music.

Mr. Robert Myers and family, West Main street, who spent the summer with Mrs. Myers' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jehu Royer, at Spring Mills, have returned home.

Mrs. H. D. Fowble, West Main street, is convalescing from a badly injured finger, caused by a can opener knife slipping. The wound is less than three inches.

A lecture will be held at Frizell-Hugh Hall September 18, at 2 o'clock p. m., by F. W. Plankner, Bible student. Subject, "Where Are Our Dead?" Everybody welcome.

Norman H. Lippy, son of Sarah C. and the late William D. Lippy, died at the residence of his sister, Mrs. Clyde U. Dovell, Baltimore, Tuesday. The body was brought to Krieger's cemetery today and interred.

Glen Oden, a half Indian and halting from Iowa, escaped from jail last Friday and was captured the next morning at Keymar. Oden is being held for the November term of grand jury. He was used as a trusty. Seeing his chance he walked away.

The September meeting of the Women's Civic League will be held at the residence of Mrs. John D. Bowers, on Park avenue, on Thursday evening, September 22, at 7.30. It is hoped that there will be a large attendance.

Mrs. Edward H. Clark, a seventeen-year-old Rockland County (N. Y.) telephone girl, who answered an advertisement for an attractive housekeeper and married her wealthy employer, is now suing for a separation. This is a case of an old man's darling.

A bridge is to be built in 90 days across the Hudson from Yonkers, N. Y., to New Jersey, using Uncle Sam's useless wooden ships. It will last ten years and be a scientific engineering feat because the tide will raise the boats and therefore raise the bridge.

Those who visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Gummel on Sunday last were Mr. and Mrs. Earl Gummel, of Greenmount; Mr. and Mrs. John G. Yingling, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Wise, of Snyderburg, and Mr. Charles Gummel, of Meadow Lawn.

Governor Ritchie, of Maryland, will be the chief guest at the fall meeting of the Delmar Press Association and the Maryland Press Association at Easton, Md., on Monday and Tuesday, September 26th and 27th. Invitations have been extended by S. E. Shannahan, of Easton, who is president of the Delmar Association and secretary of the Maryland Association.

Mayor Herbert A. Atherton of Newark, Ohio, was removed from office by Governor Harry L. Davis on charges of gross neglect filed by the Newark Law and Order League. Evidence showed, the Governor announced, that gambling has been running wide open in Newark, and that Mayor Atherton was derelict in prosecuting the gamblers.

For the first time since woman suffrage was granted in West Virginia a woman election official, of Wheeling, W. Va., has been indicted, charged with making false returns. The Ohio county grand jury, investigating the recent city election, returned indictments against Effie Crummitt and four men, who served as clerks at a voting place.

Those who visited Mr. and Mrs. John Deal and family, of White Hall, September 4, were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dull, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Stagner, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Dull, Vernon Yingling, Wilbert, Mildred, Naomi and Emory Dull, Mabel, Charles, William and Dorothy Stagner. They all started from Manchester in Edward Stagner's Maxwell truck. All had a good time.

Messrs. Charles W. Graf and A. Jennings Greene, two Manchester boys, employed in the Electrical Department of the Pennsylvania R. R. Co., Baltimore, left Saturday, September 10, on a business trip to St. Louis, Mo., Fort Smith, Arkansas, Poteau, Hodgden and Eubanks, Oklahoma. They expect to be gone about a week or ten days.

N. Chas. Graybill and wife, New Windsor, attended the Graybill reunion in Pennsylvania last Saturday at which there were about 1500 representatives of the Graybill family present. On Sunday they were present at a harvest dinner at the home of Samuel W. Hoff and on Monday they, with Dr. Edw. C. Bixler and family and other relatives from that vicinity, attended the fiftieth anniversary of the marriage of Elder and Mrs. Uriah Bixler, West Main street, this city.

We will start on our three month work of Fall next Thursday.

Mr. Nicholas Mummaugh, of Landonale, has improved his residence with water and bath.

Granville L. Wachter, of Frederick, sued A. O. Davis for $1500 and received a verdict for one cent.

Mr. Harry Greenhault, who fell between two boilers at the Gas House Friday and seriously injured himself is convalescing.

A card from Mr. John Manning, this city, received at this office shows that he and his brother, William, arrived safely at Orville, Ohio.

Mr. Geo. N. Hunter, accompanied by a number of friends, left this morning for Reading, Pa., where Duke of Westminster is entered in a race today.

Miss Helen Wisner, of Patapsco, who lived with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis H. Wisner, is attending a private school in Baltimore this winter.

Master Harry Shipley, of this city, underwent a successful operation, Thursday, a removal of adenoids and tonsils at St. Joseph's Hospital, Baltimore, Md.

Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Albert and daughter, Miss Frances, of Waynesboro, Pa., were guests of Mrs. Albert's mother, Mrs. Eli Butler, West Main street.

Last evening 600 people attended the Bachman's Church festival at Bachman's Valley. Nace's orchestra rendered music that kept everybody carrying a smile.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Westaway, of Evergreen Farm, gave a birthday surprise party on Wednesday evening in honor of Miss Florence Halfleigh, of Muscatine, Iowa.

Mrs. Annie M. Slagle, proprietor of Slagle's hotel at Emmitsburg, died Friday night at a hospital in Gettysburg, Pa. She was well known throughout Maryland as a hotel manager.

Religious services for Salem charge—St. Benjamin's—Sunday school at 9 a. m. Preaching at 10 a. m. by Rev. M. L. Smith. St. John's—Sunday school at 1 p. m. and preaching at 2 p. m. by Rev. C. G. Leatherman, of Manchester.

One hundred and twenty-five pounds of trout was the catch made yesterday by Paul Leidy, Arthur Stonesifer, Arthur Zile and Dr. Geo. E. Baughman in the Chesapeake Bay below Annapolis. The largest trout was 5 1/2 pounds, caught by Dr. Baughman.

A number of gentlemen from this city returning from a day's outing at Eastport Sunday evening witnessed a bad automobile smash between Annapolis and Baltimore. Two passengers were injured, who were brought to the Maryland University Hospital for treatment in Mr. Irvin Wanta's car, of Pleasant Valley.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Thomas Shilling, of Sandysville, had as their guests the past Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Shipline, of Baltimore; Mr. and Mrs. P. O. Bortner, of Arcadia; Mr. and Mrs. George Mummaugh, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Shilling and children, Mr. and Mrs. James Shilling and family, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Westaway, in honor of Mrs. Shilling's three sisters, of Muscatine, Iowa.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bemiller, near Pleasant Valley, entertained relatives and friends Sunday, September 12. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Study, daughter and two sons, near Littlestown; Mr. and Mrs. John Utermahlen and daughter, Pleasant Valley; Arthur Duvall, Stone Chapel; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Byers and two sons, Wilmer Harlines, daughters, Catharine and Virginia and son, Charles, Mrs. Wm. Wolf, Charles Wolf, Mrs. Ella Bemiller, Pauline Bemiller, Mrs. Jacob Bemiller and daughter, Emma, Mrs. Wm. Schwinn, and son, William, Helen Miller, Mrs. Wesley Bemiller, and Wm. Conner. All spent a pleasant day.

DEMOCRATIC MEN.

You must see that your wives and women friends register unless you wish to continue having your taxes go up, while other Counties are going down. Registration Days October 4 and 11.

CARROLLTON

A. Harland Greene, son of Mr. and Mrs. Davis Greene, of this place, and teacher of Latin at Dickinson Institute, Williamsport, Pa., preached a very interesting sermon in the Bethel on Sunday morning. The Sunday school offering toward the new church amounted to $153.35, of which $95.83 was raised by the children.

The L. T. L. will hold a play in Carrollton Band Hall on Thursday evening, September 29. Everybody cordially invited.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Harpel and two children, of Hagerstown, spent several days this week with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Harpel.

Miss Mary Bohannon, of Baltimore, who had been visiting Mrs. Gussie Blizard, has returned to her home.

We are very glad to report a school teacher at Bethel school, Miss Ruth Harman, of Westminster. School opened with twenty five scholars on roll.

Mr. Arthur Chew is in a serious condition.

Mr. and Mrs. Noah Reese, of Baltimore, spent the week's end with their daughter, Mrs. Marton Green and family.

Twenty-four persons went from Carrollton Station on Sunday to Luray Caverns.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Crouse and daughter, Betty, Miss Annie Koons and Albert Blizard spent Sunday in Middleburg.

Rev. Masenore will preach in the Church of God, Westminster, each Sunday evening until Eldership.

Every person present at preaching on Sunday voted for Rev. Masenore to return for another year.

The last Aid met at the home of Mrs. Frank Snyder. A very pleasant afternoon was spent together.

Mrs. Reuben Shipley and daughter, Hatie, broke the record at basket work, having $25.81 money collected, dues and basket work amounted to $180.02. The next meeting will meet at the home of Mrs. Molly Taylor on Wednesday afternoon, September 25. Don't forget the date.

We are having ideal weather at present. The announcements for the Bethel are the same as usual.

WATERSVILLE

The annual treat of the Sunday school of the Brethren was held last Saturday afternoon on the lawn of the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Fahney. It was greatly enjoyed by all present. Ice cream and cake were served in abundance and not only the members of the Sunday school were treated but all who were present. The usual service of the Brethren presided by the Sunday school service was held at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Fahney last Sunday afternoon. The Rev. Jacob Willard officiated. The service was well attended, some being there from a distance. Next service with preaching September 25, at 3 p. m. Sunday school next Sunday at 10 a. m.

The work on the new Methodist church is progressing.

Mr. J. Harry Steete is re-building on the site of his former home, which was destroyed by fire.

Mr. J. Harry Steele and his mother, Mrs. L. A. Steele and aunt, Miss England, are occupying apartments in Mt. Airy.

A baseball game was held here on Sunday. Watersville victorious over Day.

School days have commenced. Chestnut Grove will be under the supervision of its efficient teacher, Miss Addie F. Spurrer. Miss Katherine Emory will teach at Newport.

Mrs. Mary E. Enklar of New Windsor, who has been spending several weeks with her daughter, Mrs. J. M. Fahney, has returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Fahney were visited by relatives from Waynesboro, Pa., last Saturday and Sunday. The party came by auto and consisted of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Snader, Mr. and Mrs. Earle Snader, son, Earle and daughter, Lois, Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Pifer and Mr. and Mrs. Guy Snader. The latter couple were married last June. After an enjoyable trip to Florida, are living in Waynesboro.

Mrs. William A. Dempsey recently returned from a visit to Baltimore and Hyattsville.

Miss Estelle Waters has received cards of interest from her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Fitchett and daughters, of Baltimore, who are traveling through the West and California.

Mr. Wilson Driver has purchased a Maxwell auto.

It is reported that Mr. William Main has purchased the farm of Mrs. N. M. Rimby and will move to the same next spring.

Weather is warm and dry. Corn cutting has commenced.

SYKESVILLE

School opened Monday with a large attendance in both Primary and High school rooms, and with same teachers we had last year.

Dr. D. B. Sprecher has returned from a two days' trip to Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wier left Sunday in automobiles for a several days' trip through Virginia, and a visit to friends at Stanley, Va.

The Sunday school class of Mrs. Louisa Bennett gave her a delightful surprise party last Thursday night, before she left for Baltimore, where she will attend school this winter.

Rev. William Harrison, of Ellicott City, preached a forceful sermon Sunday night in St. Paul's Methodist Episcopal Church. The minister here, Rev. E. O. Pritchett going to Ellicott City to fill his pulpit.

Miss Ethel Jones left Monday for the State Normal School, where she was a student last year.

Mrs. Effie Day of Brunswick, is visiting friends here.

Mrs. Wm. Melville entertained the W. C. T. U. Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Ruth Emmart and her daughter, Miss Ruth Emmart, were the week's end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Chipley.

Major Albert Hall and wife left last week for Florida to attend the funeral of their daughter-in-law.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Graham are enjoying a trip to Norfolk and Ocean View, Va.

Rev. Claude and Mrs. Leyfield are receiving congratulations on the arrival of a little daughter, in the Maryland General Hospital, last Saturday.

Paul Harris had his tonsils removed last Wednesday at a hospital in Baltimore.

The congregation and Sunday school of the Episcopal Church here held its annual picnic last Saturday in Druid Hill Park.

Democrats On The Job

STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE ORGANIZED—MR. E. P. BRUNDIGE MADE CHAIRMAN.

The Democratic State Central Committee met at the home of Mr. Edward P. Brundige on Tuesday night and organized by electing Mr. Brundige chairman. It promptly got down to work and issued a call for a meeting of the local committees, composing the County Central Committee, to meet next Thursday for the purpose of organizing, filling vacancies and the transaction of all matters dealing with the registration and campaign.

The question of filling vacancies on the ticket for three members of House of Delegates, County Treasurer and County Surveyor was left open until after the meeting of the County Central Committee. It being desired to consult with it and receive suggestions as to the proper people for these offices. It also decided in all local matters, it would only act as advised and suggested by the committee for the district where any appointment was to be made.

A call was also issued for the women of the county to meet on the 26th at the Opera House for the purpose of forming a Democratic Woman's Club to aid and assist in the registration of the waging of the campaign.

TRUSTEE'S SALE

Valuable Farm NEAR WESTMINSTER, IN CARROLL COUNTY, MD.

By virtue of a deed of trust from Jonas B. Burner and Ida B. Burner, his wife, to Joseph E. Hunter recorded among the Land Records of Carroll County, in Liber E. O. C., No. 138, folio ---, the undersigned Trustee will offer at public sale on the premises, now occupied by Jonas B. Burner and wife on the State Road leading from Westminster to Littlestown, about 3 miles North of the City of Westminster, on Saturday, September 17, 1921

at 1 o'clock P. M., all that land and premises known as "The Bish Farm," now occupied by Jonas B. Burner and wife containing more or less, improved with a large DWELLING HOUSE, BARN and all other necessary outbuildings, including a spring of excellent water which is pumped to all the buildings, poultry houses to accommodate 1500 hens, also incubator cellar. This is a very good dairy farm and one of the best farms in Carroll county.

127 Acres, 3 Roods and 32 Per.

Terms of Sale.—One-third cash on day of sale, one third in six months and the balance in 12 months; the credit payments to be secured by notes of the purchaser with approved security, bearing interest from day of sale, or all cash.

JOSEPH E. HUNTER, Trustee. Ivan L. Hoff, Attorney. W. T. Wilson, Auct. sep2-ts

Hauling!

Having started to haul express and freight in this city, I want to announce to the public that from this date on I am ready to do all kinds of hauling on short notice. All orders given prompt attention.

A. J. ARBAUGH, Westminster, Md. Phone 244W. Sep 2-21

FOR SALE!

My home on Green street, all modern improvements and garage.

PAUL CASE, Westminster, Md. Sep 16-5t

SECOND-HAND PIANOS AND PLAYERS

Good second-hand Pianos and Players, in stock suitable for the home, church, or school. Let us demonstrate them or write for price list.

NACE'S MUSIC STORES, INC. Hanover, Pa. Westminster, Md. Gettysburg, Pa. Hampstead, Md. Sept 9-2t

ROOM FOR RENT, suitable for a laundry, 40 by 50 feet. Apply to

J. E. DAVIDSON, Taneytown, Md. sep16-1*

CARD OF THANKS

I want to thank all my Democratic friends who voted and worked for my election at the Primary Election on September 9, and ask the support of all the Democrats at the general election on November 8, pledging my honor to fill the duties of the office without fear or favor.

WILLIAM H. BOWERS, Democratic Candidate for Sheriff.

MINERS' HOMES ARE DIFFERENT NOW.

For 10 years coal producers have been building modern dwellings, schools, playgrounds and community centers. Many of the homes have electric light and porcelain and nickel plumbing. These rent from $5 to $10 a month as against $3 and $4 for the old style unpainted houses.

Smith & Reifsnider

LOOKING FOR A WAY TO PUMP WATER? ASK A DELCO-LIGHT USB

T. W. Mather & Sons WESTMINSTER'S LEADING STORE

New Fall Dresses, Suits, Coats, Waists, Millinery, Shoes.

The Dresses

As the season is here for Fall dresses the question arises as to what kind of a dress to buy. For all around wear we would recommend one of our new tricotines or Crepe de chenes. We are showing more than thirty styles every one new, just selected in New York and is correct in style and material. Priced reasonably at $13.75 to $25.00.

Stylish Millinery

REGARDLESS OF WHAT your taste may be it is impossible to select a hat here that is not stylish and becoming. The large number of selections already made by discriminating buyers prove that our styles are right.

New Sleeveless Dresses

For ladies and misses sleeveless dresses; made of all wool serge, prettily stitched at neck and arms, complete with belt, reasonably priced at $3.98.

Boys' School Pants 85c

Another lot of those good quality khaki pants for boys from 6 to 14 years at 85c.

Corsets $1.50

A good wearing, perfect fitting corset, for the average figure. Miller make, an extra good corset for $1.50.

Child's Sweaters $2.50

Lot of sample Sweaters for children from 3 to 6 years. All the wanted colors are in the lot and every one is strictly all wool. A real bargain right now when children need Sweaters.

Mens' Fall Hats

Sept. 15, is past and straw hats have been called in.

Our new Fall hats are ready for you. You can always find a style here to suit you. Soft felt hats will again be the thing for fall wear and we have them. Extra values at $2.00 to $5.00.

Boys' Cloth Hats

New lot of boys cloth hats, for boys of all ages, 50c and $1.00.

School Supplies

AT THIS STORE YOU WILL FIND the best assortment of School Things. Whether it be tablets, note books, pencils, rulers, crayons, book bags, lunch boxes, and the other numerous things children need you will find them here. We have the best 5c tablets. The best 10c tablets. The best 10c note books, and all the rest that is best in school supplies.

Advertisement for Best Shoe for Girls, featuring an illustration of a girl in a dress and the text: THE BEST SHOE FOR GIRLS IS THE WALTON "It Will Wear."

Advertisement for T. W. Mather & Sons, featuring an illustration of a woman's shoe and the text: Just like illustration medium or dark tan lace shoes, low heels, every pair solid leather inner soles, outer soles and counters, and guaranteed to wear. Ask for Walton's. We the sole agents for Walton's for Westminster.

T. W. MATHER & SONS WESTMINSTER, MD.