Alexander entertained the following on Sunday: Mr. and Mrs. Kennison and family, of Govans; Mrs. Fanny Sappington and daughters, Miss Sappington, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Weaver and Miss Carrie Stonestler, of Keymar, and James McWright, who was recently honorably discharged from the Navy, and has accepted a position with Mr. Andrew Alexander, near Keymar. Mr. and Mrs. William Wisotzky, of Littlestown, spent the week's end with their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Shaum. The body of Private Verle E. C. Verle is the second Taneytown boy to lose his life in France and at the time of being drafted was a student at Gettysburg College, and was a promising candidate for the Lutheran ministry. Our undertakers, C. O. Fusa & Son, had the unusual occurrence of having three funerals on last Friday, and not one of the deaths occurred in town. They were as follows: Mrs. Mary Ann Graham, who died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Calvin Wilson, at Keymar, and was buried at the Church of God cemetery, Uniontown; Mr. J. Calvin Dodder, who died at Oklahoma City, and was buried at Baust Church; Mr. John T. Koontz, who died in Philadelphia. His remains were brought here on the evening train and interred in the Lutheran cemetery, and on the same train were the remains of Verle E. C. Snider. Mr. D. J. Hason will finish the moving of his store from his present location to the Basehoar (formerly the Eckenrode Building) on the opposite side of the street. Now don't forget and try to get in at the old stand. The store visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Brendle last Wednesday and left another produce man. Our town was shocked to hear the news that Mr. John T. Koontz had died suddenly at his home in Philadelphia. The remains were brought to this place on Friday evening on the train from Lancaster and a short service was held in the Lutheran Church with interment following in the Lutheran cemetery. His age was 59 years. He is survived by his wife, who was Miss Ida Brubaker, and two sons, William and Frank. Mr. Koontz was well and favorably known, having been a resident here for a number of years, having conducted the grocery business now owned by Mr. S. C. Ott and previous to being in the grocery business, he was clerk in the meat store of D. B. Shaum. He is also survived by a sister, Mrs. Mary Ellen Hollenberry, of near Westminster, and Mrs. Bushman, of Emmitsburg. Mr. John M. Ott died Tuesday at his home on Emmitsburg street, after an illness of several years from the infirmities of age, in his 78th year. He is survived by his wife, and two sons, Harvey E. and Samuel C. Ott, both of Taneytown. Funeral services will be held on Friday morning meeting at the house at 10 o'clock, with services following in the Reformed church, with interment in the adjoining cemetery. Mr. Ott was well known, having been in the butcher business practically all his life. Mrs. Annie Buffington and daughter, Miss Nan, of Baltimore, are the guests of Mrs. Laura Reinholdt. Mr. Carroll Duttera Dorn will leave on Thursday for Washington College at Chestertown. Misses Alice and Marion Miller left on Monday for Hagerstown where they have entered a training school for student nurse. Mrs. Neville Shoemaker entertained a few friends on Monday evening in honor of Miss Elizabeth Crasner, who will leave on Thursday for Cornell University. Maser Elwood Snyder met with an accident on Thursday evening while returning home from school. He was riding horse back at a rather rapid rate of speed, and the horse in making a turn slipped on the concrete, falling on the boy and breaking his right leg above the knee. He was taken to a hospital as quickly as possible where the fracture was reduced. He is getting along very well, and is not dead as reported. The Shirk-Sell trial was held in Westminster on last Friday morning. Sell was fined $50 for assaulting Mr. Shirk and $25 for assaulting Mrs. Shirk, but refused to settle and has entered an appeal. The grand parents still have the boy. Mrs. Harry Fair and Mrs. Mary R. Fair are visiting friends in Baltimore. Mrs. Jennie Gardner, of Baltimore, spent several days last week with Miss Emma L. Raver. Much sympathy is felt for Mr. Arthur Chew, who continues in a serious condition. Little Dolly, three year old child of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Taylor, fell from the second story window at her home on Sunday morning. Very fortunately she is not thought to be seriously injured. POULTRY SHOW POINTERS.

The official catalogue and Poultrymen's Directory, which will be given to each visitor to the Maryland Mid-State Poultry Show, is now being compiled. This will be a souvenir that everyone will wish to retain. It will contain the list of exhibits and the names and addresses of exhibitors, and a number of pages of general information, including several pages bearing messages from nationally known poultrymen to the poultrymen of Maryland. This will be an attractive advertising medium and if you are wise your adv. will be found in this publication. D. Lincoln Orr, manager of the great Madison Square Garden Poultry Show of New York, has written to the management, that he will be in attendance on Wednesday, November 16, Farmers' Day. Mr. Orr has kindly volunteered to act as reserve judge and will also address the meeting of Maryland poultrymen in the afternoon. He will remain to take part in the Poultrymen's High Jinks in the evening. Now is the time to look over your flock and pick out the likely-looking birds that you think will be worth showing. Keep your eye on them and in a week or two you'll see them and get them top broke! "Selection and Preparation of Poultry for Exhibition," is the title of Farmers' bulletin No. 1115, of the Department of Agriculture, Washington. You can get this free of charge by addressing a postal to the department, giving the number of the bulletin.

Dr. H. J. Jones has one eye on the health of Carroll county chickens these days and the other eye on likely looking candidates for sustaining membership in the Carroll County Poultry Association and advertisers for the official catalogue. Give Doc a hearing and take his advice. Nuf said. As soon as you have made up your mind what you are going to exhibit, shoot in your entry. This is one way you can be of assistance. In this case the "early bird" catches the thanks of the acting manager.

FOR A COUNTY BASEBALL LEAGUE

A well attended meeting of the Westminister Athletic Association was held at the Hotel Westminster, on Tuesday night, J. Francis Reese presided and J. Albert Milton, secretary, made the report, showing the close of a most successful baseball season. The suggestion of the chairman that steps be taken at once for the formation of a Carroll County league for the next season was enthusiastically received. It was the consensus of opinion of those present that the county organization should be an eight team league, although this and other details will have to be determined at a later meeting of representatives of the communities interested. The secretary was instructed to invite two representatives each from Taneytown, Mt. Airy, Hampstead, Union Bridge, New Windsor, Woodbine, Sykesville, Mechanicsville and Patapsco to attend a meeting at an early date to formulate plans for the organization of the league. J. Francis Reese and Russell Mowen were named as Westminister's representatives to attend this meeting. Ream Whitehurst, Theodore F. Brown and William L. Seabrook were named as a committee to arrange for an entertainment for the benefit of the association. A committee, composed of Herbert F. Cover, "Ned" Duncan, Joseph W. Smith, Jr., and Walter Hook, was appointed to confer with Capt. Emigh and Lieutenant Elderdice as to the work of the association in the coming basketball season.
