

BLACK'S.

Mr. and Mrs. Luther Mayers, of Hanover, spent Sunday visiting at the home of Mr. George Mayers and family.

Mr. Birnie A. Reinaman and son, Raymond, made a business trip to Hanover on Saturday last.

Do you discriminate at the dining table—or are you thoughtless?

In thousands of homes, a "line" is drawn at the breakfast table. Tea or coffee is served for "grown-ups" and Postum for children.

an older person, but in many cases the nervous system and allied bodily functions will become weakened.

Consequently, instead of rich, satisfying Postum, children are over-stimulated by the drugs in tea and coffee; and so may grow up irritable and nervous.

Postum is the well-known, meal-time beverage. Like thousands of others you will like it because, in flavor, it is much like a high-grade coffee.

Although some parents feel a certain justification for the personal indulgence in coffee, yet the harm to them may be equally serious.

Do away with the distinction at the table. Serve delicious Postum, piping hot, to all the family.

Postum comes in two forms: Instant Postum (in time made instantly in the cup by the addition of boiling water).
