SANDYVILLE

Rally services held at Sandy Mount were interesting and helpful. The children rendered a splendid program and Dr. Forlines of the Seminary gave a most practical address.

A good offering was given for Young People's work. A most enthusiastic C. E. Rally was held at night with the church filled with Endeavorers and friends from visiting societies. Bethel society was present with their large male chorus and rendered several beautiful selections. Mr. Richard Harris, a great State C. E. chorus leader, was present and conducted the singing in his usual splendid manner. Mr. Guy Fowler, County President, introduced the speaker: Mr. Spencer Sisco, Mr. Carroll Wright and Mr. Geo. Smith, of Baltimore. State Officers gave enthusiastic and helpful addresses, and great endeavors to make use of the wonderful opportunities for service.

Sunday school at 9.45 and C. E. at 7.30, this Sunday. We hope the rally of last Sunday will increase interest in our organization and those who have been somewhat indifferent will attend more regularly and be interested.

Some of our people attended the Westminster last week.

The Mts. Society met at the parsonage last Friday afternoon. After the business session, supper was served by the ladies which all enjoyed. A very pleasant afternoon was spent with the pastor and family. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Ernest Stockdale the first Saturday afternoon in November.

PLEASANT VALLEY

A very pretty wedding took place at the Reformed parsonage, near Westminster, on Saturday evening, October 1, at 6.30, when Miss Hattie M. Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Brown, of near Pleasant Valley, and Mr. Charles Logue, of Stonersville, were united in marriage by the bride's pastor, Rev. J. W. Reinelt. They were attended by Miss Anna Grace Brown and Mr. Paul Brown, sister and brother of the bride and by Mr. and Mrs. Geo. F. Heltshoff, uncle and aunt of the bride. She was very neatly and becomingly attired in a dark blue coat suit with hat, veil and gloves to match. Immediately after the ceremony they returned to the home of the bride where a reception was held. The bride received beautiful presents consisting of silverware, aluminum, linens, money, etc. About sixty people were present at the reception. The bride and groom have the best wishes of their many friends for a long, happy and prosperous life.

Fruit trees are blooming in various places. Mr. John H. Brown has a pear tree which is white with bloom.

Mrs. Noah Powell, who had been very sick, is much better at this writing.

We saw an account in last week's issue of a five pound sweet potato, but Mr. John Masonblimer can beat that. He dug one last week which weighed seven pounds. He would like to know who can beat that?

We are having beautiful weather and up to this time, October 11, we have had no frost to amount to anything.

Sunday school at 9 a. m. Rev. Wolf will celebrate Fall communion at 10 a. m. Young People's meeting at 7.30. Our pastor here would like to organize a Men's Bible Class, and all who are interested should make a special effort to be at church Sunday morning in time for Sunday school. Many of you noticed in last week's issue of the big Sunday school parade, which is to take place in Westminster on the last Sunday in October. Now there is no reason why Pleasant Valley can not have a class of at least one hundred men in the parade. Let's see what we can do. Come Sunday morning and give the pastor a surprise.

Master Theodore Leister was brought home last Thursday from the Hospital very much improved, and we hope he will soon be able to be among the other boys at school.

Mrs. Janie Myers, who was suffering with rheumatism, is able to walk around again.
