

DREAMING OF MOUNT AIRY.
 Dreaming of Mount Airy, up the B. and O.
 Dreaming of Mount Airy, where the wild flowers grow,
 Hear the engine chugging, the grade so hard to pull,
 And then the town that perches there, the world so beautiful:
 Dreaming of Mount Airy,
 Upon its ridge so sweet,
 With twenty Maryland valleys reclining at its feet!
 Dreaming of Mount Airy—we're passing Woodbine now,
 Soon be on the summit, and there beyond the brow
 The garden lands of Carroll, the dales of Frederick, peep
 In verdure of September and the mist of autumn sleep:
 Dreaming of Mount Airy,
 The old trains chugging on
 Through mystery of the nighttime,
 Through music of the dawn!
 Dreaming of Mount Airy, and Barthe-
 low's beyond,
 The ribbon of the B. and O., the breath of beauty's bond:
 Another chug, old engine, and you will have us there
 In Carroll's hills of loveliness and breathing Carroll's air:
 Dreaming of Mount Airy,
 Atop the old Main Line—

Mount Airy of the sylvan dreams,
 Where vales of memory shine!
 Folger McKinsey, in The Baltimore Sun.

CLUB ENTERTAINED.
 A very enjoyable evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Caleb Miller when their daughter, Goldie entertained the Rose Bud Club from Baltimore. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Caleb Miller; Mr. Theodore Smith; Miss Lillian Davis, Mabel Wimer, Anna Bennick, Jennie Schultz, Nellie Brown, Edna Miller, Goldie Miller, Catherine Mann, Mary Harris, Elizabeth Hoffman, Robert Matore, George Fox, John Peeling, Carroll Abbott, Raymond Myers, Edgar Rhoten, Frank Hocks, Theodore Harris, Willard Taylor, Charley Murray, John Phillips, Harry Gibson, Frank Gresha, Frederick Stricker, Paul Andrew, Allen Jones, Earl Hahn, all of Baltimore; Vernon Chrest and Montrose Blizard, and Walter Wimer of Westminster. All departed for their homes wishing Miss Miller many more happy evenings.

So many people are busy being unemployed that it is extremely hard to get any work done.—Boston Transcript.

BLUE RIDGE COLLEGE

A Faculty Recital will be given by the Faculty of the Music and Expression Departments Saturday night, October 22, at 8 o'clock. This is an annual affair looked forward to by friends and patrons of the college.

Prof. John officiated at the Meadow Branch Communion held Saturday, October 15, near Westminster.

An intelligence test is being given to college students this week under the direction of the Department of Psychology. Twenty six students will take the test. The purpose of this test is to acquaint students preparing to teach with the test as given in public schools and colleges.

Misses Martha and Vertie Hartman, former students of Blue Ridge, spent the week's end of October 15 to 16 visiting friends at the College. Other visitors were Elder Levi Zeigler and wife and Mr. and Mrs. Braumbsch, of Denton. We are always glad to see friends of the College.

Extensive preparations are being made for a Halloween Social in the Gym for all students, faculty and trustees of the college. This is one of the big social events of the year and one that is anxiously awaited by every student who has ever attended one.

The main street of New Windsor is being extended to intersect the State road at the Athletic Field of Blue Ridge. This adds very materially to the Athletic Field as well as improves the town.

Last Friday night a Community Program was given in the Auditorium in connection with a Community Show given under the auspices of the Public School, of New Windsor, County of Denton. Introduced, Miss Knight, who spoke about the interior decoration of the home, Mr. Ballard, State Landscape Gardener from the University of Maryland, gave an illustrated lecture on beautifying the grounds of the home.
