

The Democratic Advocate

PUBLISHED EVERY FRIDAY BY
The Democratic Advocate Company
OF WESTMINSTER, MARYLAND.

Entered at the Postoffice, Westminster, Maryland, Second Class Matter.
All correspondents with this office should be addressed to "THE ADVOCATE."
TERMS—$1.50 per year; 75 cents for six months and 40 cents for three months. Single copies 5 cents.

E. O. DIFFENDAL, Manager.

FRIDAY AFTERNOON, OCT. 28, 1921

Mrs. J. M. Rice, of Harrisburg, spent several days last week in Westminster, the guest of her sister, Mrs. J. F. Morrow, East Main street.

The Republican State Central Committee for Queen Anne's county, after several meetings, has not yet decided whether or not to place a ticket in the field.

From a broken hip sustained in a fall several weeks ago, Mrs. Georgianna Buckley, widow of Dr. J. Buckley, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Harry R. Cameron, in Port Deposit.

Mr. Albert Anderfuren and his cousin, Miss Ella Anderfuren, who have been seeing places of interest in Richmond, Washington and Baltimore, for a week, have returned to their home in Westminster.

Israel M. Aaron, 24 years old, Philadelphia, had engine trouble and when he lifted the hood and peered into the car the fan spun around and one of the blades struck his throat, severing the jugular vein. He died a few minutes afterward.

In event a railroad strike becomes effective, the State government in Kansas will operate the lines within the State if it becomes necessary, under the Kansas Industrial Court law. Governor H. J. Allen announced first however the railroad managers will be given an opportunity to operate the roads.

As Jacob McKaig, living near Cassville, N. J., was entering his chicken yard, early in the morning, to feed the fowls he was struck, staggering blow from the rear as he leaned over to open the door of the coop. He recovered his feet in time to see a deer leap the fence and run toward the woods.

The W. M. Railroad shops at Union Bridge which is expected to open up in the near future will not be operated by the Railroad Company as in former years but by a contractor, George E. Fowble, will be the contractor at this point. Work on taking stock and cleaning up has been in progress at Union Bridge.

Attacked by a bear hog while feeding a herd of swine at their farm three miles south of Brownsville, Washington county, James Smith, Sr., and his son James Smith, Jr., were badly injured. The elder Smith's abdomen was torn open by the tusks of the animal and it required eleven stitches to close the wound. The younger Smith is unable to walk, so severely was he gored about the legs.

That buzzards are carriers of disease among animals is contended by Dr. P. J. Cass, Federal veterinary inspector for Washington county. Dr. Cass has just returned from the lower section of the county, where he made an inspection of a number of cases of hog cholera. He found large numbers of buzzards in the trees along the Antietam creek in the cholera-infected region and is certain that these scavengers help to spread the disease.

Rev. A. G. Wolf will hold services at Baust Church Sunday at 9 a. m. and Holy Communion at 10.

There will be preaching services in the Church of God, Bethel, Warfieldburg, Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. J. L. Massemore, pastor.

Mr. Francis Hunter, a compositor in this office, accepted a position in the job office of the Western Maryland Railroad Relief Office, Baltimore.

A photograph of Mrs. E. Miller Richardson who was married last Thursday, was shown in The Sun, Monday morning. The bride being attired in her wedding gown.

The Western Maryland foot ball team lost to Mt. St. Mary's Saturday on the College field by the score of 21 to 0. A number of Western Maryland men were injured in the game.

Elbert Kiler, employed at Zile's creamery and ice cream plant, East Main street, received a fractured little finger on his left hand while working around the ice crushing machine.

The farmers are experiencing difficulty in husking their corn crop. The dry weather has put the fodder in such a condition that the blades fall from the stock, causing it almost to become bare.

Some one asks why they hook automobile horns at ball games instead of yelling in the good old enthusiastic way? Well, one must remember that the present generation is very tired, and it is hard work to shout.

The heirs of the late Mrs. Catherine P. Frizell, sold Saturday the property on Webster street, consisting of a weatherboarded dwelling house and convenient outbuildings to Mrs. Jacob Mathias, this city, for $1950.

William Bloom, sheriff, sold Monday at Sheriff's sale the James Swartzbaugh property, containing 4 acres and improvements, and situated near Warfieldburg, to John E. Myers, Ward avenue, this city, for $1900.

A net gain of 1,255,091 members has been made by all divisions of the Methodist Church in the United States in the past 19 years despite great losses suffered by the denominations during the war, according to statistics compiled.

A marriage license was issued in Baltimore Saturday to Russell P. Wyand and Opal L. M. Stansbury, both of Hampstead; also William C. Stimax and Grace L. Myerly of this city, were issued a license the same day in Baltimore.

Early Sunday evening the store of McHenry Marshall, of Tannery, was entered and $200 in cash and some goods were taken. Mr. Marshall and family were away from home at the time of the robbery. It is said that some clue to the guilty is known.

Messrs. Guy W. Steele and Francis Neal Parke, trustees of William H. Streaker, sold Saturday the Streaker farm in Berrett district, containing 138 acres to Clarence W. Conway, for $14,000. The personal property which was also sold brought $2900.

Four automobile accidents occurred on the Reisterstown pike Sunday evening. Three of the cars up see while the third was run into, tearing a wheel off and otherwise damaging same. Sunday was an excellent day for auto touring and, from accounts, a fine one for accidents.

A marriage license was issued in Baltimore, Monday to Norman A. Mitten, of Westminster, and Margaret E. Fishery, of Kenneth Square, Pa. Mr. Mitten is a son of Mrs. William Mitten, East Main street and is employed in Baltimore. Mr. Mitten and bride are guests of his mother.

Mr. James Leahy spent this week in Salisbury on business.

Mr. F. Neale Parke spent the first of the week in Prince George's County, trying a case.

Carroll county has now a complete set of new registration books. The last precincts of the county were transcribed this week.

Mrs. John B. Hiltzbridge, Carroll street, was taken to the Maryland University Hospital, Baltimore, Sunday and operated upon for rupture.

Frederick R. Babcock, a Chicago attorney, just returned from Africa, set a new fashion in lion hunting. He killed five lions, shooting from a flivver.

There will be a special temperance meeting at Sam's Creek Church of the Brethren, near Denning, on Sunday, October 30, at 10 a. m. All welcome.

At the same election, in Waterbury, Guilford, Democratic candidate for mayor, carried the city by 1,642. Last year Harding carried Waterbury by 1,051.

Miss Catherine Crass, who had been at a hospital for an operation, has returned to the home of her aunt, the Misses Crass, Court street, in an improved condition.

At the election the first week in this month, in New Haven, Fitzgerald, Democratic candidate for mayor, carried the city by 2,469. Last year Harding carried New Haven by 10,692.

Mrs. Louisa Frederic Cody, widow of Colonel William F. Cody ("Buffalo Bill"), died at her home at Cody, Wyo. She was 78 years old. Physicians say heart disease caused her death.

The Ladies' Aid of Thomas Chapel will hold an oyster supper in the basement of the church on Tuesday evening, November 1st. In the event of bad weather the same will be held the first clear evening. There will not be any services at Thomas Chapel on Sunday, October 30th.

The Woman's Missionary Society of St. John's Lutheran church will hold its meeting at the home of Mrs. Susan Giggard, Wednesday, November 2, at 1:30 p. m. As this is our thank offering meeting every member is expected to be present. If weather is unfavorable, it will be held the first fair afternoon.

The Ford automobile owned by John Saylor, at Smallwood, caught fire Monday evening and burned. Mr. Saylor was putting gasoline in the tank at a pump of Mr. Dittman, and in doing so ran the gas on the outside of the tank which ignited from the exhaust pipe. The machine's destruction was complete even burned the wood in the steering wheel.

Mr. Motter is the only bachelor on the ticket.

A new and large boiler room is being erected at the gas plant of the Consolidated Utilities Company.

Mrs. Savilla Myers and daughter, Margaret, Miss Harriene Soine and Mr. Murphy, of Baltimore, spent Sunday with friends in this county.

Wylie McNeely, aged 19, colored of Leesburg, Tex., charged with assault upon an 8-year-old girl, was burned at the stake. Several hundred of people witnessed the burning.

Charles Baker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Baker, Pennsylvania avenue, was struck by an automobile Saturday in front of his home and slightly injured. He was playing in the road and ran in front of the machine.

The Sykesville Herald is supporting Millard H. Weer, Democrat, for Register of Wills and the Carroll Record, Taneytown, Edward S. Harner, Democrat, for House of Delegates, and says Mr. Harner is entitled to local and general support.

Those who spent last Sunday with Mr. Aaron Miller and family, near Bennersville, were R. J. Wantz and wife, of Westminster; Henry Miller and wife, Frank Miller and wife, of Glenville, Pa.; Charles Lowe and wife, Wm. Lowe and Mildred Lowe, of Meadow Branch.

Daniel Baublitz, of near Alena, was arrested by Henry Getzler, deputy game warden on October 14, for having in his possession a deer. He was heard Monday before Justice Walsh and pleaded guilty to the charge. A fine of $25 and costs was imposed on Mr. Baublitz which was paid.

It is seldom that the people of Carroll County have had presented to them a more rounded ticket than this. Every man seems especially fitted for the duties of the office he seeks, all are of high character and their election will mean that the interest of the people of the County will be well represented by them.

The ladies of Bachman's Church Bachman's Mills, will serve a tried chicken supper at the church on Tuesday evening, November 1, or on the first fair evening following in case of inclement weather. There will also be ice cream, home-made candies, cakes, soft drinks, etc., on sale. Nace's orchestra will furnish music.

A son of Mr. Vernon Smith, near Pleasant Valley, was shot in the left hand by a colored man from Westminster, Saturday afternoon. Sheriff Bloom and Deputy Blizzard are looking for the guilty party but up to this time he has not been located. The wound is not serious. Smith's description of the man was not very good and therefore is hard to find.

BIG REDUCTION IN Hupmobiles

Touring and Roadster	$1250.00
Coupe	2100.00
Sedan	2150.00

All Prices F. O. B. Factory.

See All Models at Automobile Show
WESTMINSTER ARMORY, OCT. 26, 27, 28, 29

HARBAUGH BROTHERS

C. & P. Phone 211
60-64 E. Main St., Westminster, Md.

The Closed Car is no longer an experiment and winter is coming on. We have the best values on earth in closed cars, and then too we have some splendid bargains in used cars which you ought to see before buying. We rebuild all used cars, and guarantee them to you.

ERSKINE & RUDY

Westminster, Md.

CLEAN COAL—PROMPT DELIVERY

INTENSE HEAT but LITTLE WASTE in
Our Coal

Use it, and realize what coal satisfaction really means. It requires minimum attention and gives maximum results. It is the very acme of heat production.

LUMBER COAL & SUPPLY CO.
Westminster, Maryland.

A FOOT EXPERT

Will be here for One Day Only
Thursday, November 3rd,
For the Examination of All Foot Troubles. Come!
Examinations Absolutely Free.

Service

YOU want something more than best value in your shoes, don't you? When you come into this store you are not hurried into a "near fit."

We feature

Dr. Scholl's
Foot Comfort Appliances

—your foot is carefully measured and our Foot Expert takes the time and care to show you the safe, sure and easy way to constant foot comfort.

Many feet are ruined by the careless fitting of shoes and expert shoe fitters know that nine-tenths of the foot troubles today are entirely unwarranted.

Let Our Foot Expert Advise You

He is a Graduate Practitioner—a man specially trained in the science of foot comfort. If you have corns, bunions, weakened arches, tired, burning or aching feet, come to our store today and get relief by the Dr. Scholl Method of Foot Correction.

Examination and Advice
—FREE—

BABYLON & LIPPY CO.
Westminster, Maryland.

Mr. Alfred Stevenson, Pennsylvania avenue, is seriously ill.

Mrs. James M. Stoner, Pennsylvania avenue, was visiting her daughter, Mrs. Grace Tyler, the past week.

Those spending Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. John W. Sherrey were Miss Annie, Mary and Lillian Box and two children and Mr. John Keck.

Election is coming close, candidates will use a liberal application of limiment after the election on their backs, and some especially on their backs from their profound bows.

The St. James Revival at Denning, Md., will begin on Sunday night, at 7:30. Pastor Rev. H. Carl Maxwell will be assisted by Mr. Christy, the gospel singer.

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Sherrey and daughter, Annie, Mrs. Katherine Baublitz and family spent Sunday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Ed. F. Miller and family.

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Tyler, of Baltimore, have purchased a nine room property, near Carlin's Park, on the Reisterstown Road, and took possession the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. John A. Polster entertained on Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Leppo, Mr. and Mrs. Emory C. Arbaugh, Mr. Howard L. Arbaugh, Miss Beulah J. Pickett and Lucas, Officer, Irene and Wilson Leppo.

Arthur Mumford, who was injured by falling from a bridge, is improving. Young Mumford was playing with some boys and by some unaccountable way fell from a bridge tearing the flesh from the leg and badly spraining his ankle.

The "Birth of the Nation" was shown at the Star Theatre Tuesday evening to a packed house. What gave touch and enlightenment to the picture was the excellent music played by Mr. Noah Schaeffer on the piano and Mr. Benson on the viola. Every seat shown was fit to the music played.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Riffe, Cranberry, entertained on Sunday last the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Sholl and children, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Auman, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Auman and two sons, all of Hanover; Mr. and Mrs. Augustus Riffe of Littlestown, Mr. Michael Snyder, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Thompson and granddaughter, of Westminster.

Mr. J. I. Creason, engineer of the Underwriters' Association of the Middle Department was in Westminster, Tuesday, at the request of Stoner & Hobby and made an inspection of the Fire Department and the Water Works to restate our city for the purpose of reducing our town deficiency charge applying to all merchantable risks, rated on schedule. This matter was taken up with the Underwriters, before by Stoner & Hobby in February, 1920, and resulted in a reduction in the rates.

HEMLER

Mrs. Catherine Hemler, wife of Louis Hemler, died at her home near Taneytown, October 25, aged 70 years. She is survived by her husband and one daughter, Mrs. Merz, of Pittsburgh. Funeral services were held, October 26 in St. Joseph's church, Taneytown, by Rev. Quinn, assisted by Rev. Lammon, C. O. Pusey & Son funeral directors.

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

Sedan $660
F. O. B. Detroit
With Starter and demountable Rims

Genuine Common Sense

Many Ford owners can afford to own and operate any car they may choose, but they prefer a Ford "because it is a Ford."

For "because it is a Ford" means dependability, ease of operation, efficiency—and it means sure, quick transportation.

And "because it is a Ford" means good taste, pride of ownership and genuine Common Sense.

The Ford Sedan, a closed car of distinction, beauty and convenience, is the ideal all year 'round car, for pleasure or business—for the farm, town or city. It gives you all that any car can give at a much lower cost for operation and maintenance.

Ford Cars of all types are in great demand, so place your order at once if you wish to avoid delay in delivery.

Fisher Motor Company
Westminster, Md.

Advertise!