

The Democratic Advocate

PUBLISHED EVERY FRIDAY BY The Democratic Advocate Company OF WESTMINSTER, MARYLAND.

Entered at the Postoffice Westminister, Maryland, Second Class Matter.

All correspondents with this office should be addressed to "THE ADVOCATE". TERMS—$1.50 per year; 75 cents for six months and 40 cents for three months. Single copies 3 cents.

E. O. DIFFENDAL, Manager.

FRIDAY AFTERNOON, NOV. 11, 1921

A through freight train was held up here Friday night until the engineer received medical attention.

There will be preaching service at the Church of God Bethel, Sunday afternoon, November 13, at 2 p. m.

Mr. Jesse Arbaugh, of Baltimore, spent the past week with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dull and family, of near Snyderburg.

Early Thursday morning an unsuccessful attempt was made to blow open the safe in the branch of the Chestertown People's Bank at Massena.

Those who spent Sunday with Mr. Harry Dull and Mrs. Annie Staub was Mrs. Mary Troxell and daughter, Catherine, of near Emmitsburg; Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Troxell, at Keysville.

Charles Smith, aged 83 years, died Monday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. F. E. Mullinix, Mt. Airy. Funeral services and interment were held Wednesday at Long Corner.

Those who visited Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dull and family Sunday last were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dull and four children, Madeline, Roy, Raymond and Mary Dull, of Patapsco.

On Saturday, November 12, at Mr. Beacham's place, between the state road and the railroad at Avondale, a demonstration in draining land with dynamite in cooperation with the Dupont Powder Co. will be held.

Religious services—Salem Charge, St. Benjamin's, Kriders—Sunday school 9 a. m. Preaching 10 a. m. St. John's—(Leister's)—Sunday school at 1 p. m. Preaching services by Bowersox, Phd., B. A.

Retiring trucks that use solid tires have been reduced to a minimum in putting the rubber on the rims, by V. A. Chrest & Bro., East Main street, since they have installed machinery for that work.

Capt. Paul Koenig, commander of the Deutschland submarine, who visited Baltimore in July, 1916, is not dead as reported. Mayor Preston of Baltimore, received a letter from him dated Bremen, October 19, 1921.

The unknown origin wiped out a large portion of the business center of Marion, a large farming town six miles north of Grinstead, early Saturday morning. The loss will reach $60,000. The fire started in a grocery store.

On November 16, at the sale of Wm. A. Frazier, Sykesville, of horses, mules and all farming implements, corn, oats, potatoes etc., the Ladies' Auxiliary of Springfield Presbyterian church will have on sale delicious sandwiches, cake, coffee etc.

The will of the late Christopher C. Shriver, of Baltimore, for many years president of the Metropolitan Savings Bank, filed for probate Monday, leaves his entire estate to his widow, Mrs. Cora P. Shriver, who is named as executrix. Mr. Shriver was a native of Union Mills.

At least seven Lynchburg merchants have been fleeced by the acceptance of stolen money orders. It has just been learned, but the man who works out of the bad orders, has made his disappearance. The bad orders have cost merchants who are known to have been fleeced about $250.

An election was held on the farm of R. A. Lorinson at Pleasantfield, Ill., Saturday, to determine whether he and his wife will join their farm to the Plainfield Community School district. Mr. and Mrs. Lorinson were the only voters. Lorinson acted as judge and his wife officiated as clerk.

James B. Edmondson, of Morgan's Run, was released Monday under $1500 bail by United States Commissioner Supplee for a hearing November 15, for having a 100 gallon capacity still on his property, which was seized by Prohibition Agents last week.

Woman's Missionary Society of St. John's (Leister's) Church will hold a oyster supper at the home of Mr. Stewart Leister, Mexico, Tuesday evening, November 15. If the weather is unfair it will be held the first fair evening. Suppers served from 6 to 10 p. m. Everybody welcome.

On Tuesday night, November 1, at Harney, a few young men were inclined to be mischievous. They set fire to a corn fodder shock, in J. W. Reek's field and burned it up. The shock contained 25 bundles, and would have fed a horse or cow for some time.

Misses Helen Roop, of Meadow Branch, Madeline and Lottie Gelman and Naomi and Carroll Roop, of this city, spent last week's end with Miss Golda Owens, of Avondale. On Saturday afternoon the presence of the Gleason Class of Meadow Branch added to their pleasure.

Caleb Bragg, chairman of the contest committee of the Aero Club of America, announced recently that the time of 174.7 miles an hour made by Bert Acosta at Omaha is the world's record for a competitive flight. If the figures are correct. The previous records, he said, was 173 miles an hour, made by Lieutenant Georges Kirsich, in France, flying for the Meurthe cup in October.

The sedan Oakland car of Mr. Denton S. Warehime, living near this city, was stolen last week from his garage by some one unknown. The car was located in Baltimore and returned to Mr. Warehime. The car must have been driven there by some one for the purpose of selling it.

A battle in which brass knuckles figured, featured a church dance at Minersville, Pa., the town leading to the arrest of several participants. A blackjack, steel knuckles, a revolver and a stiletto were found on George Mergo, who was beaten unconscious before being quieted.

In an effort to recover money said to have been loaned Tex Rickard for promotion of the Johnson-Jeffries bout in 1910 and other big sporting events, Frank D. Armstrong, broker, New York, sought to have the promoter and two corporations in which he is interested thrown into the hands of a receiver.

On Tuesday morning, November 1, lightning struck the telephone wire connected to Dr. J. B. Brawner's house, in Emmitsburg, and ran down the ground wire, tearing a number of bricks from John Jackson's pavement, and broke several panes of glass. Dr. Brawner was in his office at the time, and received a slight shock.

Striking a match to see if his car-burster was flooded, the driver of the Baltimore & Westminister Transportation Company, caused the engine to be started, and the calling out the fire company Sunday morning about 8 o'clock. The fire was extinguished before the fire company arrived and little damage was caused.

The Carroll County Sunday School Association will hold a Rally of the schools of Union Bridge district in the Lutheran church, Union Bridge, on Sunday afternoon, November 13, at 2:30 o'clock. There will be helpful addresses and special music by a quartet from Blue Ridge College. All Sunday school folks within reach are invited.

The store of Mr. A. E. Shipley, at Gaither, was entered and robbed, October 28. A panel was taken from a door facing the B. & O. Railroad tracks, and shoes, pants and shirts were stolen. It is supposed that the same person who burglarized the home of Mr. C. Jenkins, of Sykesville, committed the crime, although there is no connecting evidence.

His arm torn from the socket and held fast in an elevator shaft by his clothing, George Gingell, aged 58, a miller near Emmitsburg, bled to death on Tuesday morning, November 1, before he could be released. Gingell was alone on the third floor of his mill when the accident occurred, and it was not discovered until an hour later when Harry C. Harner, a farmer, stopped at the mill for shock feed.

The first meeting of the Woman's Home-makers Club of Westminister will be held on Tuesday, November 15th. The organization of this club will be completed and the subject for the program will be Christmas suggestions. Each woman is asked to bring some article which she thinks will make a good Christmas gift. If possible put on the cost and the time it takes to make it, and be prepared to tell how it is made. We expect to have two demonstrations: one on the making of candle shades and lamp shades, and the other either on basketry or painting. This is under charge of the Art Committee, Mrs. John Bennett, as chairman.

A delightful gathering was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore James, October 30. The guests began to arrive early and, until noon, there were 25 who were invited to the dining room where a sumptuous dinner was served. Mrs. James served her guests to an old time country supper after which all returned home feeling it was a day to be remembered. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Bach, daughter, Minnie and son, John; Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Schuppner, son Henry, Mr. and Mrs. George Lawrence and son, Mrs. W. H. Jones, Mrs. M. Schuppner, Miss Lillie Schuppner, William G. Henry and Harry G. Schuppner, Baltimore; Mrs. A. R. Ebaugh, Miss Janie Ebaugh, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Yingling, Edgar Yingling, near Westminister; Mr. and Mrs. David Ebaugh, daughter Ruth and son Paul, Hanover.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Gummel gave a pleasant birthday surprise party to their daughter, Ray Louise, on Saturday evening, it being her 8th birthday. A pleasant evening was spent with games and singing with music on the piano and graphophone. All were invited to the dining room where a table was laden with all the good things to eat—ice cream, cakes of all kinds, candy and nuts. At a late hour all returned to their homes wishing Miss Ray many more happy birthdays. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Gummel, Ray Gummel, John Yingling, Eddie Wise, Elias Leister, Walter Stephan, Joseph Yingling, Melvin Simmons, Hering Brown, Roy Simmons, Henry Dull, Maxus Reed, Edward Stuller, Charles Casner, Howard Albaugh, Lewis Bucker, Hanover; Charles Arnatrot, Baltimore; Earl Gummel, Mr. Snyder, Irvin Ruby, William Self, Henry Snyder, Ed. Albaugh, Jacob Gummel, James Leister, Mrs. Arthur Benedict, Rebecca Blizard, Amanda Yingling, Corinne Lease, Sarah Yingling, Marie Leister, Myrtle Coker, Emma Ehrhart, Mildred Reed, Hilda Leister, Margaret Switzer, Ruth Reed, Mildred Simmons, Anna Leister, Dorothy Brown, Flo Leister, Alice Simmons, Myrtle Reed, Edith Simmons, Margaret Benedict, Hester Snyder, Mildred Dull, Ruth Snyder, May Snyder, Mrs. Geo. Therit, Naomi Dull, Howard Selpp, Milton Benedict, Vernon Yingling, Spencer Simmons, Lester Selpp, Carroll Therit, Chas. Benedict, Maurice Selpp, Jesse Miller, David Switzer, John Yingling, Norman Stephan, Ralph Reed, Charles Gummel, Edward Carner, Luther Bosson, Claud Reed, Russel Yingling, Henry McCoy, Clarence Bosson, Clarence Simmons, Joseph Fishman and George Therit Jr.

The County Poultry Show will be held in the Armory next week.

Potomac Grange will be held at Frisellburg, Saturday, Nov. 26th.

Miss Louise Caples, of Baltimore, is a guest of Mrs. E. O. Diffendal, Bond street.

Mrs. Geo. F. Eckenrode, East Main street, is visiting relatives in Baltimore this week.

Rev. Joseph S. Endicott has been appointed a deputy game warden under Game Warden Herman Dinat.

While sawing wood with a circular saw, Monday, Wesley Zepp, Deep Run Valley, had an ugly gash accidently cut in his right hand.

George E. Schaffer has been elected to fill the vacancy in the board of directors of the Union Mills Savings Bank, caused by the death of Ira G. Lawyer.

Mrs. Hoffman Fisse, Westminister, and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Yingling and Mr. and Mrs. Norman Yingling, Baltimore, spent Sunday with relatives in Union Mills.

Mrs. Mary A. Thompson, mother of Prof. M. J. ("Mike") Thompson, of Emmitsburg, died on Sunday, October 30. The funeral was held on Wednesday in Waterbury, Conn.

Members of the Hanover Fire Company donated the Manchester Fire Company the purse of gold that was presented them for their service during the destructive fire at Manchester.

Dr. T. J. Coonan, who was operated on recently, has returned to the Maryland University Hospital for another operation. Doctor has been suffering very much from an affected nerve in the jaw.

A number of complaints have been made by auto owners of their spare tires being stolen from the rear of their machines in this city. All precautions should be taken to apprehend the guilty.

It is expected that the laying of a concrete surface on the 1.6 miles of the Hanover pike in Carroll county leading out of Hampstead and running toward Reisterstown will be completed by the middle of the month.

With orders to shoot to kill, if necessary, to prevent mail robberies, 1000 marines were ordered to duty as guards of mail trains and trucks, and at post offices in 15 cities. The men will be armed with pistols and sawed-off shotguns. Postmaster General Hays announced.

The Westminister and New Windsor highway, a concrete thoroughfare, four and one-half miles long, which was completed some time ago, was thrown open to traffic Saturday. This is a part of the projected highway from Frederick to Westminister by way of Liberty.

A marriage license was issued in the clerk of court's office Frederick, to Lieut. Mathias A. Peppersack, of the State police force, and Miss Sadie E. Moxley, of Plane No. 4 Peppersack, gave his age as 34, while Miss Moxley's age is 23. Peppersack was recently granted a divorce from his wife.

Jack Fenton, who leased a York theatre last June and has been managing it since that time, is missing and his creditors have given up hope of his return. A musical comedy company known as the "Blue Ribbon Girls" has been left stranded. The members of the company have received no pay.

John Stine of near New Market, was injured Monday when the automobile in which he was riding crashed into a culvert and overturned in avoiding another car. There were seven persons in the automobile, relatives of Stine, all of whom escaped injury. Stine is 75 years old, and is at the Frederick City Hospital with a broken leg.

James M. Snyder, of Lewistown, bought the Cronise farm of 204 acres at McKinstry's Mills. The farm is not only a productive one, but is one of the finest dairy farms to be found in the county. It has on it a meadow of 30 acres. The property is improved with a large 12-room brick house, and large bank barn.

Under the auspices of the Young Men's Christian Association a campaign has been started among the colleges in Maryland to raise a fund for the benefit of the Students' Friendship Society, the money to be used to aid the needy students in Europe. A similar fund was raised last year and several thousand students benefited by it. Among the State colleges interested in the work are Western Maryland, Johns Hopkins, Goucher, University of Maryland, Washington, Hood, Blue Ridge and Friends' school.

Mr. and Mrs. Josiah S. Erb, Union Mills, entertained the following last Sunday: Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Erb and son, George, Manchester; Mr. and Mrs. John H. Six, Westminister; Mr. and Mrs. William Weaver, and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Baumgardner and children, Lake, Pauline and Norval, Taneytown; Mr. and Mrs. Seldon V. Taylor and daughter, Mary, and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer J. Erb and children, Helen, Jesse and Malcolm, Union Mills.

Are you interested in Christmas gifts or suggestions for Christmas gifts? If so, come up to the County Agent's office on Tuesday afternoon, November 15, at 2 o'clock. The Woman's Home-makers Club is planning a very interesting program. It will be in charge of the Art Committee. Every woman is asked to bring some article which would make a good Christmas present. Something inexpensive and easily made. If you have not anything on hand bring an illustration of some kind or borrow something from your neighbor. Help to make this meeting an interesting one. There will be two demonstrations: one on basketry and one on making of lamp shades. Every woman is invited in Westminister and vicinity.

Mr. T. Fred Boisvert, of McGinnis, who has been desperately ill with pneumonia is slightly improved this morning we are glad to announce. His two brothers, Messrs. Lep and Arthur Boisvert, of Geneva, who have been at his bedside, left for home yesterday.

On Thursday there will be a meeting of the Woman's Home-makers Club of Gist. The subject will be Christmas suggestions, and each woman is asked to bring some article which would make an appropriate Christmas present.

An airplane is hauling passengers around our city at a prohibitive fare. It is stationed on the Shriver farm near David Crow's.

Trespass Notice!

All persons are warned not to trespass upon our lands with DOGS or GUNS, or in any other manner. All offenders will be prosecuted to the full extent of the law.

- D. JOSHUA HUNTER, CARRIER 4. JOEL I. ROOP. CHARLES D. ROYER. VERNON BARNES. D. C. REYNOLDS. JOHN ROYER. JOHN WAGNER. CATHERINE WAGNER. JOHN IBEX. JOHN WILSON. D. M. BEEGLE. JOHN E. STEVENSON. GRIER ROBERTSON. IRA ENGLAR. JOHN W. GAHLE. JOHN T. CLOSE. NATHAN HAINES. D. R. STULLER. G. W. SHAEFFER. GENTON STONER. JOHN ROBERTSON. PAUL H. BROWN. Pleasant Valley, Md. ANNA M. WANTZ. ELMER BOLLINGER. HORNER WAREHIME. GEORGE N. HUNTER. FRANK SHAEFFER, Carrier No. 4. ROY A. BASKER, Westminister. THEO. H. BIGGS, Bachman's Valley. EDW. J. MILLER, Westminister. THE GEO. W. ALBAUGH REAL ESTATE & BROKERAGE CO. GEO. W. ALBAUGH. GEORGE W. HARRIS, Carrier No. 2. CHARLES ARNOLD Carrier No. 4. F. H. KOONTZ, Carrier No. 3. JOHN W. UFERMAHLEN, Carrier 11. GEORGE W. DRESCHLER, Carrollton, Md. L. A. DRESCHLER, Carrollton, Md. DAVID LEPP. FRANK STEWART. WALTER G. LOVELL, Carrier No. 5. J. WALTER LOCKARD, Carrier 5. LESLIE C. ROBERTSON, Carrier 5. GEORGE W. PHILLIPS, Carrier 5. B. P. SHRIVER CO. WILLIAM WALSH, Carrier No. 1, Sykesville. W. L. JORDAN, Carrier No. 5. FRANCIS A. LOGUE, Westminister. HOWARD F. SHIPLEY, Westminister. JOHN SENTF, Pleasant Valley. EDWARD J. LEISTER. G. A. LEISTER. HARRY W. MATHIAS. WILLIAM H. SNYDER. MRS. MARY LOWE. DAVID W. TAWNEY. OLIVER SHIPLEY. G. C. CRESS. LEO C. LEISTER. WILLIAM H. BUCKINGHAM. JOHN W. WAGNER, Carrier No. 6. FRANK FREYMAN, Carrier No. 5. CLARENCE L. YINGLING, Mt. Pleasant. WESTERN MARYLAND COLLEGE FARM. C. A. CONAWAY. WM. T. FLEMING. CLARENCE CONWAY. TONY B. FLEMING. ELMER W. ZIEP, Mt. Pleasant. WALTER T. HAINES, Carrier No. 12. ARCHIE C. WANTZ, Carrier No. 12. LEWIS D. G. WANTZ. MRS. BENJAMIN SHERPY, Carrier No. 16. JOHN M. HOOK. C. M. WAGNER. WILLIAM H. MYERS, Carrier 12. UNION BRIDGE BANKING & TRUST COMPANY. JOHN BREITWEISER. ADAM RUPPERT, Carrier No. 4. MILLARD D. SCHAEFFER, Westminister. BENJAMIN T. YINGLING, Carrier 12. GEO. A. UTERMAHLEN. CARROLL NYGREN. J. E. STONER. JOHN T. CHOUSE, Mt. Pleasant. GEORGE E. FREYMAN, Carrier 5. MRS. AMELIA DAVIS, Taylorsville.

On Wednesday afternoon there will be a meeting of the Eldersburg Home-makers Club at Mrs. Harris' home. The topic under discussion will be the use of old furniture. A demonstration will be given on the refinishing of a table top. Every woman in the vicinity is invited.

Friday, will be Boys' and Girls' Day at the Poultry Show in the Armory. Miss Alice Reinhart of Union Bridge will give a demonstration on the preserving of eggs.

In the Circuit Court of Carroll County Maryland sitting as a Court of Equity.

EQUITY NO. 5913. In the matter of Edith Chadwick Kent, a Junatic.

ORDER OF PUBLICATION. It is ordered by the Circuit Court of Carroll County, Maryland, sitting as a Court of Equity, this 11th day of November, 1921, upon the foregoing petition, affidavit and exhibit, that the Fidelity Trust Company (of Baltimore, Md.) Committee of the person and estate of Edith Chadwick Kent, a Junatic, give notice of its application to be relieved and discharged from the further execution of its some newspaper published in Carroll County, Maryland, for three successive weeks before the 12th day of December, 1921, warning all persons to show cause if any they have on or before the 29th day of December, 1921, why the application of said Committee should not be granted.

WM. H. THOMAS. EDWARD O. CASH, Clerk. Henry W. Williams, Solicitor. nov 11-31

SOOT IN A NON-CONDUCTOR OF HEAT—A THIN LAYER OF IT IN THE BOILER FLUES WILL WASTE A LOT OF COAL.

The flues in the house boiler ought to be cleaned every two or three weeks—in many cases they are not touched in years. It's a simple thing—you can do it yourself. It would save you coal and money.

Smith & Reifsnider WESTMINSTER, MD.

Notice To The Public!

Will open Garage and Repair Shop with skilled mechanics. Any make of car a specialty. Will be located at Chrest Bros., East Main St. Give us a trial that will convince you of good workmanship.

Vernon R. Hook, Charles H. Stiener. Phone, Residence 54-R. Garage 167-J.

BABYLON & LIPPY CO.

Special Bargain Prices in Ladies' Ready to Wear

We have up to the minute styles in Ladies' Ready to Wear garments at prices lower than can be found in the cities, at prices lower than are offered by neighboring towns, at prices that are lower elsewhere for garments equal in quality.

- Jersey All Wool Dresses. All wool Jersey dresses in one and two pieces styles, in a variety of leading shades $8.75. Order these by mail. Ladies' Coats and Suits. Ladies' all wool coats in navy, brown $12.50. Other prices up to $40. Ladies' all wool suits prices from $15 up to $40.00. Middy Blouses. All wool middie blouses in navy, red $5.00. Wash middies from 95c up to $2.98. Special Values in Millinery. Hats that are priced elsewhere for $7.00 and $8.00 our price now $5.00. Special Prices on Domestic. Hill muslin 19c yard. Light and dark heavy outings 12c yard. Heavy unbleached muslin 11c yard. 40 inch heavy unbleached muslin 20c. Dark patterns in dress ginghams 19c yard.

- Rubber Shoes, Boots and Artics. Ball Band Rubbers, Boots and Artics. Now is the season. Can be bought cheaper now than last season. Full line of sizes and styles to fit all shoes. Columbia Graphophones and Records. We have Columbia Graphophones and records at greatly reduced prices. Prices below the regular agents price. We are in position to supply your wants. Order now for Christmas. It will pay you to get our prices on these machines. Our Premium List. The twelve piece aluminum set has made it great hit with our customers. We have already distributed our first shipment. Others will follow shortly. This set fills your kitchen needs. It appeals to the housewife. Did you get one? On display in our store.

ALLURING ADVERTISING. In the days of P. T. Barnum, the great showman, he argued and proved that the American people like to be fooled. In looking over a monthly magazine we see the following advertising headings:

- 8,000 Ladies Wanted to Marry. Tape Worms Expelled Alive! How To Grow a Handsome Mustache. Magic Dip Needle For Finding Gold. $125.00 a Month Sure. A $25.00 Watch Free. $5.00 In Gold Free. Will $500.00 Help You Out? Yankee Fire Kindler. 101 Useful Articles For 10c. How To Whiten Ladies' Hands. The answer to the latter two will be 101 pins, and "soak your hands in dish-water!"

THE MAIL SYSTEM. The first Postoffice was established July, 1633, by William Penn, in Philadelphia. The first Postmaster was a man by the name of Waddy.

The first thorough trial of Rural Free Delivery in the United States was made in Carroll County, in 1900, by means of four postal wagons, A. B. C. and D., and a number of R. F. D. carriers.

Now, there are quite a number of aerial mail routes, with many more being added every month. Truly, the United States has made great progress with its mail system from the primitive stage-coach, to the modern aeroplane.

Mr. Reginald C. Stoner, connected with the Red Cross Hospital of Evergreen, for the blind soldiers, was operated on for appendicitis this morning at a hospital in Baltimore.

Buick logo and text: The Buick Radiator--Rugged, Efficient Typifies the Car. The Buick Radiator is typically Buick, strong and ample in its cooling capacity to meet every condition. Should an accident happen to the Buick radiator core the damaged section can be removed and quickly replaced with a new section. You don't have to buy a complete new core. Come in today and see the new Buick models.

Table of Buick Sixes and Fours prices. Buick Sixes: 22-Six-44 - $1495, 22-Six-45 - 1525, 22-Six-46 - 2135, 22-Six-47 - 2435, 22-Six-48 - 2325, 22-Six-49 - 1735, 22-Six-50 - 2635. Buick Fours: 22-Four-34 - $ 938, 22-Four-35 - 975, 22-Four-36 - 1475, 22-Four-37 - 1650. All Prices F. O. B. Flint, Michigan. Ask about the G. M. A. C. Plan. BUICK MOTOR COMPANY FLINT, MICHIGAN. WHEN BETTER AUTOMOBILES ARE BUILT BUICK WILL BUILD THEM. Nov-11