BUZZARD'S GLORY.
The old bay mare, she ain't what she use to be. She tore lose the single tree, that's what the mayor said while Auss Shaffer was getting ready to take a drive. The mare gave a jump and busted the single tree and dragged Auss out over the dash board, bruising him up pretty badly. A hurry call was sent for Dr. Wike, who examined him by hitting him three times on the head with a wooden mallet and pronounced him sound in the upper story.
The sheriff and the mayor of Mexico have been making preparations for a hunting trip. It has leaked out that the sheriff was oiling up his three sighted guns. These guns have one sight underneath and two on top. We just don't know where their hunting grounds will be but we think it will be down Florida. The sheriff wants the mayor to practice hip shooting as he wants all fowls shot from the hip not the shoulder.
The chief of police of Cranberry held a ham and sausage meeting at the butcher shop of Harry Shaffer. The chief elected Tolley as door keeper. The Chief held the floor for a half an hour and was brought to a close by Bally Shaffer pinning a pig tail on the Chief's coat tail.

SECURITY PORTLAND CEMENT
for STRENGTH
GOOD Concrete improvements are the best investment any farmer can make. They pay for themselves in a short time—and make money forever after. They save time, make work easier, keep stock in better condition, save feed now, waste and help you get greater yield from both stock and land. Concrete is fire-proof, rat-proof, wind-proof, and rust-proof. Never needs extensive repairs. Build with Concrete and you need build but once. The farmer can put in Concrete improvements easier and cheaper than anyone else because he has practically everything he needs to do the work.
