HIGH SCHOOL SUPPER AND BAZAR

On Friday and Saturday evening, December 3rd and 4th, there will be an oyster and meat supper in the High School building for the purpose of raising funds to meet some of the expenses that must be met by the school. Among these are funds to increase the school library, help school athletics and provide motion pictures especially suited to school work.

The supper will be served in the school lunch room from 5:30 to 8 o'clock each evening. Any who do not wish to come for the supper are requested to attend the bazar which will furnish much amusement and pastime.

WEDDINGS.

SPOO—CORBIN

A wedding which was very interesting as well as quiet was that of Miss Etta May Corbin, youngest daughter of Mrs. Florence Corbin, East Main street, this city, to Mr. William Spoo, of Utica, N. Y.

The ceremony which took place Wednesday, November 23rd, in Baltimore, was performed by Rev. L. F. Warner, former pastor of the Methodist Protestant church of this place.

The bride wore a pretty navy blue suit with hat to match, with Miss Marie Oursler as attendant. After the ceremony a wedding dinner was served at the Southern Hotel. Following this the couple were agreeably surprised by a farewell party of friends and relatives from the bride's home town who gathered at Union Station to offer congratulations and fond farewells. The happy couple left amid showers of rice for points in Ohio and other parts of the West.

The bride is a member of the young set of this city and has been connected with the local telephone exchange for several years as long distance operator. In this capacity, close attention to duties and an ever willingness to serve, made her a general favorite and won for her the esteem and friendship of the entire community. A host of friends extend to her and the groom a long, happy and prosperous life.

They will be at home after Monday, December 5, 1626 Bennett street, Utica, N. Y., where the groom is successfully engaged in the automobile business.

LARE—BURDETT

A marriage of interest to Carroll, Frederick and Howard counties took place last Wednesday evening, November 23, when Miss Rena Burdett, daughter of Mrs. Wilson O. Driver, was married to Mr. William H. Lare, son of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Lare.

The ceremony was performed at the parsonage of the Methodist Church, at Mt. Olive, by the pastor, Rev. F. R. Isaac, Jr., at 6 o'clock. Returning to the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson O. Driver, a wedding supper was served for the immediate families of the bride and groom, and some friends, after which they were serenaded. The bride who is very pretty and attractive was becomingly attired in dark blue silk with beaded trimming, and hat to correspond. The groom wore a dark suit. The young couple are popular and have the congratulations and best wishes of their many friends for a long, happy and prosperous married life. They will reside with the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John L. Lare, near Mt. Airy.

Those who were present at the supper were Mr. and Mrs. Wilson O. Driver, Mr. and Mrs. John L. Lare, Mr. and Mrs. Grover Lare, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Fowler and family, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Estworthy, Mrs. Bertha Lare, Mrs. George Main, Mrs. Joseph Whitebrenner, Misses Flora and Pearl Driver, and Ruth Enora, John Main, Albert Driver, William Driver, John Driver, Oliver Driver, George Driver and Charles Driver.

B. FRANK SHRIVER DEAD

MR. AND MRS. JOHN B. FOUTZ ENTERTAIN

WAS PRESIDENT OF B. F. SHRIVER COMPANY, CANNERS, THIS COUNTY—WAS A DEVOTED FRIEND OF LATE CARDINAL GIBBONS.

Benjamin Frank Shriver, one of the most beloved citizens of Carroll county, died at his home, in Union Mills, at noon Tuesday. He was 78 years old. Death was due to a complication of troubles. Mr. Shriver having been in poor health for a long time. Some weeks ago he was stricken with pneumonia and never recovered.

Mr. Shriver was born on Christmas Day, 1842, at Union Mills. He was the son of the late William and Mary M. J. Shriver. He was educated at the schools of Carroll county and for a time attended Loyola College, in Baltimore. He learned the fruit and vegetable packing business with a firm composed of three of his brothers, John L. William and Albert Shriver, whose place of business was on Pratt street, Baltimore. In 1870 he ventured into business in a small way for himself, his establishment in Westminster being the pioneer cannery in Carroll county. It subsequently became the B. F. Shriver Company, of which he was the president up to the time of his death.

A Catholic, Mr. Shriver was an intimate friend of the late Cardinal Gibbons. It was the custom of the Cardinal to spend his vacations either at Mr. Shriver's home or at that of his brother, the late Gen. T. Herbert Shriver.

Surviving are children as follows: Mrs. Leslie W. Brennan and Mrs. James S. Kerzan, of Utica, N. Y.; Mrs. J. Marshall Jones, of Baltimore; Misses Madeline and Maria Shriver, and James McSherry Shriver, of Union Mills. In addition two sisters and a brother survive, Mark O. Shriver, of Baltimore; Miss Mary O. Shriver, of Union Mills, and Sister Frances de Sales Shriver, of Emmitsburg. The late C. C. Shriver, former president of the Metropolitan Savings Bank of Baltimore, who died about two weeks ago, was a brother.

The funeral services were held yesterday morning in St. John's Catholic Church at 10 o'clock. Mass was celebrated at the residence of the deceased at Union Mills. Requiem Mass was celebrated at the Church Rev. Thomas E. McGuire pastor.

McGuire Bishop Corrigan there was present in the sanctuary the Rt. Rev. Theo. J. Shanahan, rector of the Catholic University, Washington, D. C., and the vice-rector, the Rev. Geo. A. Dougherty, the Rt. Rev. Bernard J. Bradley, president of Mt. St. Mary's College; the Rev. Jos. H. Cassidy, former pastor of St. John's; the Rev. Geo. H. Trappesser, of The Mountaineer; the Rev. Albert C. Smith, secretary of Archbishop Curley, whom he represented at the funeral; the Rev. Edward Craig and Edward Hoach, of Baltimore; Fathers Reilly, Wheeler, Bishop and Quinn, of the neighboring parishes.

In the congregation were many leading citizens of the state, friends of the deceased. A male quartette from the Baltimore Cathedral Choir rendered the music of the "Ave." By request of the family, there was no sermon.

The following nephews of Mr. Shriver were pallbearers: Albert J. Myer, Alfred J. Shriver, Thomas F. Shriver, Mark O. Shriver, Jr., J. C. Boyle and Joseph N. Shriver. Burial was in the cemetery adjoining the church. F. A. Shriver & Son funeral directors.

MANHATTAN PLAYERS DELIGHTING AUDIENCES AT OPERA HOUSE.

Westminster theatre goers have a really good company to enthuse over this week and every night the company and audience play seem to grow in favor. The Manhattan Players are in every respect the finest stock company seen hereabouts in years. To-night the players will offer their tremendous feature play "Branded" in which the author calls a spade a spade in order to adequately drive home his moral lesson. Tonight only, no children under sixteen will be admitted to the Opera House. Saturday afternoon at 2:30 there will be a gala matinee. An exceptionally pleasing four act comedy drama, "The Fatal Wedding" will be produced. Grown-ups and children alike will find much to please and amuse in "The Fatal Wedding." Saturday night the hilarious farce comedy "The Bride Said No" will be presented. In addition to this splendid laughing success there will be some exceptional vaudeville features introduced during the play and between the acts. Everybody mostly will want to see these fine plays and players and it will be well to call Mr. Osborne by phone for reserved seats.

The Manhattan Players go from here to Frederick to fulfill their annual engagement at the City Opera House.
