Miss Elizabeth Reaver returned home Tuesday, after spending several days with Mr. and Mrs. James E. Andrews, of Hurlock, Md.

George Cannon, of Salisbury, was arrested for illegal manufacturing and selling liquor. Cannon owned a schooner and would make his deliveries by water instead of land.

Mystery shrouds the double slaying at Gallup, N. Y., Saturday night of J. W. Blackwell, Jr., a mine clerk, and his wife, who were shot to death on the front porch of their home.

John Storr, Republican, Harrisonville, on an election water pushed Samuel Eyer, Democrat, through the above town Saturday, in a wheelbarrow comfortably fitted up.

Last week the automobile of Roland Long, Middleburg, burned up on the hill below the Middleburg warehouse. He was on his way home from Frederick and he noticed smoke about the seat and when he lifted the seat it was all ablaze.

Mr. Earl P. Green, while repairing machinery on the new Emmitsburg High School building got his left arm caught in a pulley. The bones of his arm were broken in several places and the flesh torn and bruised causing a very painful injury.

Business men, Congressmen and farm leaders will appear as speakers on the program of the annual meeting of the Maryland Agricultural Society to be held in Baltimore, January 10 to 12. It was announced by Dr. Thomas B. Symons, secretary.

While tramping three young white youths, who gave their names as Long Durbin and Alkison, hailing from Philadelphia, entered the house of Henry Warrick near Knight's Corner, and were about to make a fire in the kitchen stove with broken furniture when detected. They were arrested and held for trial at Elkton.

A story of heartlessness, poverty and robbery was mixed with that of concern for his wife in the confession, of Thomas Catherwood, Chicago, that he had strangled his sister-in-law, Mrs. Betty Sharples, to death while she rocked the cradle of her 13-month old child, and worked on tiny rests for another child, expected within a month.

Roscoe "Fatty" Arbuckle cooked a turkey in the home of his brother in San Francisco, and helped serve it to his lovers and other friends on Thanksgiving day. With a towel about his waist, he roared the bird, told jokes, and said the one thing he was thankful for was the reconciliation with his wife, Mrs. Arbuckle, who was lousy with the cranberries and the cake.

Mrs. Mary E. Reynolds, Preston, Caroline county, is anxious concerning the fate of her son, Rev. Henry S. Reynolds, who on Sunday last disappeared from his church in Detroit, Mich., and has not been heard tell of, Sunday morning his congregation assembled to worship, but the young pastor failed to appear. Relatives have gone to Detroit to help search for the young minister.

A flying automobile is the latest development in the French aero world. A successful demonstration of an ordinary automobile with folding wings, two engines, one of 10-horsepower for land going and the other of 200-horsepower for air travel, was held recently at Buc, Sein-et-Oise, France. The machine performed all the usual tests of an airplane and also of an automobile.

Once more repudiating an alleged confession in which he is said to have admitted slaying William Monroe, his wife and daughter, Neva, at their home, Dowagiac, Mich., the night of September 17, Cyrus Ryther, 30, told Cass county officials, according to the latter, that he looked into the window of the Monroe home and saw an unidentified boy kill the three victims by striking them on their heads with a nail studded club.

The suit of the County Commissioners for Harford county against William J. Shanahan, former county treasurer, and the United States Fidelity and Guarantee Company, Baltimore, is on trial before a jury in the Baltimore court. The suits are brought to recover $25,000 in taxes and interest alleged to be due the county by Mr. Shanahan while he was county treasurer from 1910 to 1918. The Fidelity Company furnished the ex-treasurer his bond during his term of office.

Wednesday morning of last week, Mr. Benjamin Young, living on the Hunter farm, near this city, heard an unusual noise among his guineas. On investigating he found thieves busy stealing guineas perched in a tree near his barn. The thieves seeing they were discovered made a hasty retreat with six guineas in the direction of this city via of the village of "Crowl Town." Mr. Young is ready for a return visit. The next time they will have a generous amount of lead placed under their own tail when they leave.

Developing blood poisoning from a pimple in his nose which had been picked, George L. Feaga, son of Mr. and Mrs. U. Vernon Feaga, of Pleasant Hill, died at his home Tuesday morning, November 22. He had been in good health until last week, when a pimple appeared in his nose. The pimple pained him considerably and to get relief he went to a physician to have it lance. The lancing took place late Saturday night and on Sunday morning Mr. Feaga was taken suddenly ill. Blood poisoning developed and he gradually grew worse until Tuesday when the end came.

On Saturday afternoon last, while William S. Church, of the Sykesville Herald, was proceeding to his home he was met near the junction of Springfield avenue and Main street, Sykesville, by Hamilton Hipsley and seriously assaulted. The evidence brought out before Justice Musgrove showed that Hipsley seized a stone and struck Mr. Church in the head, inflicting a bad wound. Doctor Sprecher was called and dressed the injury, and Mr. Church was able to continue about his work. Had the missile struck a little further up, or higher up, the chances are that Hipsley would now be resting under a more serious charge. Justice Musgrove fined Hipsley $5 and costs and bound him over in $500 to keep the peace.

MORE NEEDED.

John D. Rockefeller took a little girl in Cleveland to ride in his car and, after she had comfortably seated herself, he asked her, "Where would you like to go?"

"Oh, I don't care," the little miss replied, "Where do you want to go?"

"I," Mr. Rockefeller replied with a twinkle in his eyes "I want to go to heaven."

"Oh, Mr. Rockefeller," the girl exclaimed, "I guess you haven't got gasoline enough to take you there."—Boston Globe.
