STRAYED

from my home last evening a white and brown spotted beagle dog with brown ears, about 5 months old. Finder please notify

JOHN M. HOOK,

Carrier No. 6, Westminster, Md. Phone 899-F13. dec-9-11

In sad but loving remembrance of my dear daughter and sister, Edna M. L. Poy, who departed this life three years ago, December 11, 1918.

Just three years today has vanished, since the Saviour in his love, called my loving daughter homeward, there to dwell with Him above. Daughter, dear, we sorely miss you. You have left a vacant place, though you fall in peaceful slumber, with a smile upon your face. Oh, how well we all remember, Of the day you left our side. Many friends spoke words of comfort, But our hearts were sorely tried. But one thought comes to me in my sadness, Which pierces a mother's soul. And I trust when my journey is ended I will meet my dear daughter again.

By her mother, Mrs. Joshua Stewart.

God has called our sister home, Home to eternal rest! Where she shall evermore roam, With the righteous and the blest. She is blossoming in God's garden, Among the lilies fair. God saw she was too good for earth, So transplanted her up there.

Three years ago she left us, From suffering we left our side. And we often have wondered why, In the strength of youth and beauty, Than were called so soon to die.

Our sister now has left us, From suffering we left our side. To join loved ones in heaven, In the realm of endless day.

By her brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest W. Stewart.

Sleep on Aunt Effie and take your rest, In God's sweet mansion fair and blest. By and by we hope to meet, And cast our crown at Jesus' feet.

By her nieces, Edna V. and Catherine G. Stewart.

ST. JOHN'S WINS FIRST BIG GAME

Yesterday in St. John's Hall, the Parochial School team walked away with a 41 to 11 victory over the St. Ignatius Athletic Club of Baltimore. The game was marred by injuries and rough playing on the part of both sides. After the first quarter the Westminster boys were never in danger. Allen Eckenrode played brilliantly for the winners, making seven field goals and three foul goals. Lochboeiller starred for the losers.

Wade Brewer, colored, of Cumberland, was gunning on the lands of Joseph Laing, and was ordered to leave as a trespasser, instead of obeying he shot Laing dead.
