STONE CHAPEL

Sunday school 10 a. m. January 8. Last Sunday we had with us Mr. Christy, of Baltimore, the Evangelistic singer. He sang a number of beautiful selections, and gave us a fine Bible reading from the book of Ephesians. He will be in New Windsor for two weeks helping in the revival service of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Rev. William Parrish, pastor, Albin Duvall, Jr., is on the sick list with a bronchial cold.

Our school opened Monday, January 2, with Miss Geneva Spencer, teacher. Miss Laura Irvin is spending the week with Mrs. Clarence Duvall.

The following guests visited in this community during holidays: Mrs. John Snader and daughter, Louise, of Bethel, at her mother's; Mrs. Summers and family; Mrs. Myril Harris, of York; Mr. Joshua Hunter and family, Mrs. Chas. Himler and family, Mrs. Wilbur Harris and family, Westminister, at Mr. George Harris; Miss Ruth Smith, of Baltimore, at Mrs. Sterling Baile's; Mr. and Mrs. S. Baile at Mrs. Scott Bollinger's; Clarence Duvall and family at Maurice Bankard's, Uniontown; Mrs. Carroll Zile, Marston; Washington Robertson and daughter, Lois, with Mrs. Alice Zile.

The rehearsal of the Stone Chapel Orchestra postponed their next meeting from January 3rd, until January 10th.

We were distressed to hear of the death of Mr. John Brown and Mr. Joseph Smith, of Westminster, and extend our sympathy to their families.

WATERSVILLE

Happy New Year to the Advocate and all, and may the Christmas spirit of Peace on earth, good will toward men be with us all.

Christmas 1921 has come and gone and was celebrated appropriately in this vicinity.

On Saturday evening, December 31, the Sunday school of Watersville Methodist church held its Christmas entertainment. It was the first and was largely attended. The exercises were of an interesting character. There being recitations of the pupils of the school, Christmas trees and Santa Claus distributed gifts.

The Sunday school of the Brethren held its usual service on last Sunday, New Year's Day, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Fairney and will continue during the winter.

The schools have reopened after the Christmas holidays.

Miss Spurrer, teacher of Chestnut Grove school, at the closing of her school, December 23, gave her pupils a pleasant surprise, of a treat of cake and lemonade.

Miss Kathryn Emory, teacher of Newport school, had a Christmas entertainment for her pupils on December 23. There was a Christmas tree and Santa Claus paid a visit much to the enjoyment of all present. Twenty patrons and friends of the school were present.

Masquerading parties were frequent during the holidays and added much to the merriment and enjoyment of the young folks.

There were many family dinners. Among those who had dinners and family reunions were Mrs. George Main and family, on Christmas day.

MEMORANDUM
Have eyes attended to See Tracey

We notice that a rapidly increasing number of both eyeglass wearers and non eyeglass wearers are having their eyes attended to regularly. People are realizing more and more how much personal efficiency is dependent upon proper eyesight care.

We would be pleased with an opportunity to discuss with you further the merits of periodic eye examinations.
