

The Democratic Advocate
PUBLISHED EVERY FRIDAY BY
The Democratic Advocate Company
OF WESTMINSTER, MARYLAND.

Entered at the Postoffice, Westminster, Maryland, Second Class Matter.

All correspondents with this office should be addressed to "THE ADVOCATE."

TERMS:—$1.50 per year; 75 cents for six months and 40 cents for three months. Single copies 3 cents.

E. O. DIFFENDAL, Manager.

FRIDAY AFTERNOON, JAN. 20, 1922

SALE REGISTERS.

February 11, 12 M. stock and farming implements, on the Pool road, about 2 miles from Westminster, on the old mill property. Vernon Myers, J. W. Reaver, Auct.

Mr. K. Waskins, of Union Bridge, has sold his store to Samuel Morris, Hurlock, Md.

The rehearsals for "All Aboard," the play to be given by the Civic League, will begin Monday afternoon and evening.

Mr. Kenneth Mills, of New York, was a guest of his aunt, Mrs. G. W. Frizzell, East Green street, several days this week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Magin, East Main street, are receiving congratulations over the arrival of a little daughter.

William S. Gordy, Jr., who was elected State Comptroller at our last election was sworn into office Monday by Governor Ritchie.

In publishing the list of directors of the Farmers' & Mechanics National Bank, this city, we failed to include Mr. Andrew P. Frizzell.

The Elkton Town Council, under authority of the State Board of Health will issue $15,000 bonds for sewers constructed the past year.

Mrs. Millie Arter Earhart, of Union Mills, who has been ill at the Union Memorial Hospital, Baltimore, is improving rapidly and expects to return in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Lukens and two children, Miss Ruth and Jack, of York, Pa., were week's end guests of their daughter, Mrs. John Whitmore, Pennsylvania avenue.

Jas. D. Mitchell, of the Westminster Realty and Insurance Company, left Saturday for an extended trip to the oil fields of Bolling Green, Ky., in the interest of the company.

Hillen and Port Covington repair shops of Western Maryland Railroad have been leased to the foreman of the shops for the purpose of repairing the rolling stock of the railroad.

James E. Johnson, conductor on the Western Maryland Railroad, was killed at Ridgely, W. Va., when he was struck in the head by a coal chute. He was riding on top of a car.

More than 26,000 young trees were given away by the Pennsylvania State Forestry Department at county fairs, teachers' institutes and similar gatherings in 1921, according to State Forestry authorities.

A conference was held at Cumberland Tuesday between the Western Maryland Railroad officials and representatives of employees of the company in consideration of the wage reduction proposed.

At the annual convention for directors of the First National Bank of Union Bridge the following were elected: Jacob S. Gladhill, E. O. Cash, John H. Repp, L. E. Stauffer, E. M. Nussbaum, E. F. Olmstead and Frank Harbaugh.

Prof. Granville Bullock, of New Windsor, has gone to Lauderdale, Fla., where he will teach History and Spanish in the City High School. Prof. Bullock was a member of the Western Maryland College faculty at one time.

L. M. Birely of Union Bridge has applied at Washington for a patent on a nut-lock to be used at the joints of railroad rails and persons who have examined his model pronounce it all right and certain to do the work intended.

Col. Millard E. Tydings, of Havre de Grace, who in November last was elected State Senator from Harford county, is being prominently mentioned for the Democratic nomination for Congress from the Second Congressional district of Maryland.

Jacob U. Brown, near Mexico, has sold his farm, containing about 42 acres.

Every hill in this city is filled with merry coasting parties, something unusual for many years.

Mr. J. C. Doyle, Green street, this city, will leave next week for Boston, Mass., on a business engagement.

Alice Brady, a stage and screen star, has been granted a divorce from her husband, James Crane, actor.

Miss Grace Hoefel, of Mt. Pleasant, spent the week's end with her cousin, Miss Rhoda Yeiser, Pennsylvania avenue.

Mr. Michael Richter, of Ogg's Summit, has returned home, after spending several weeks visiting relatives in Baltimore.

Peter Pepe shot and killed his wife, seriously wounded his daughter, Mary, and then committed suicide at his home in Little Ferry, N. J.

There was one good thing about old Dobbin. You didn't have to haul corn to town to swap for something to run him with.—Buffalo Evening News.

The first quarterly distribution of State school funds has been announced by Comptroller Lee Carroll county will receive $13,780.11 as its share.

During 1921 tourists and climbers to the number of 107 were killed in the central and eastern Alps, mostly from falls, according to official statistics just published.

Maude Adams, Protestant actress, has given her $130,000 country estate at Lake Ronkonkoma, L. I., to the Roman Catholic Sisterhood of Our Lady of the Cenacle.

"The Texas Ranger," a play in three acts is to be given at Mechanicsville February 4, for the benefit of the Mechanicsville Base Ball team. Special music and singing during intermission.

Miss Anna Kennedy, aged 24, a stenographer, of Hokena, Pa., died Sunday from the effects of injuries sustained when she fell on an icy sidewalk. Her skull was fractured. She did not regain consciousness.

William C. Travers, 61 years old, an expert orchardist who had for over 29 years been field demonstrator for the Maryland University and the institutions preceding it, died of appendicitis at 3 o'clock Monday morning at Cambridge Hospital.

More than $1000 was found hidden about the shack in which Thomas Baldwin, Mineola, N. Y., an apparently penniless 94-year-old recluse died last Saturday. Some of the bills were so old that they fell apart when lifted from their hiding places.

Aubrey H. Bull, teller of the Harriman National Bank, New York, reporter to the police that his wife, their 7-year-old daughter, Eleanor Louise, and the family chauffeur had been missing from his home in Ridgewood, N. J., since December 31.

The army truck train which left this city Saturday for Harrisburg was again snowbound at Gettysburg. They were ordered to camp there until the roads are opened for traffic. The convoy is bound for New Cumberland, where they will load corrugated roofing and return to Holabird.

Miss Lillian Helwig, of Liberty street, while coasting in a field in the rear of her home Monday evening, was badly cut about the face when she struck into a wire fence. Five stitches were required to close the wound. She is confined to her home.

Saturday's Special
Jordan Almonds
29c lb.
For Saturday, Jan. 21st, Only.
Westminster Candy Kitchen
Jan. 20-11

Mrs. Charles Hesson, daughter and son, of Harrisburg, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joshua Hesson, Pennsylvania avenue.

Miss Lillian Townshend has accepted a sixty day position with Senator Snader, at Annapolis. Her work is stenography.

Concoleum Co., Inc., will start in full Monday, January 23 at 7 a. m. Men seeking employment should report at that time.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Myers and son, Samuel, Jr., of Baltimore, were guests at his mother, Mrs. W. Riley Myers, East Main street.

Western Maryland Railroad has taken more crews back to take care of the heavy freight traffic. About ten freights a day have been passing through this city since Sunday.

Thomas Gist, son of Mr. and Mrs. Grover Gist, West Main street, while coasting Monday evening on College Hill, was hit by a motor-cycle and had his left leg broken above the ankle.

The Baltimore Auto show will start tomorrow and continue until next Saturday. All of our dealers will be at the show and tell you why you should buy a new car.

"Beard's Inn," formerly the Maryland Lunch room, which is undergoing extensive improvement, has been leased to another party and will not be run under Mr. Beard's management as announced.

John N. Stanton, son of the late William N. Stanton, and brother of Mrs. Ella G. Rickell, formerly of this city, died in Washington, D. C., Monday, January 16, aged 64 years. He is survived by one brother, Mr. William M. Stanton, of Frederick, and three sisters, Mrs. David Walsh and Mrs. Annie Louxmann, of Washington, and Mrs. Ella G. Rickell, of Baltimore. The body was brought to this city, Wednesday and interment was made in Westminster cemetery. Services in charge of Rev. Edwards were held at the grave, F. A. Sharrer & Son funeral directors.

Philip Horple died at his residence at Carrollton Friday, January 13, aged 64 years, 8 months and 1 day. He is survived by his widow, and 7 loving children, Arthur P. Horple, of Hagerstown, Howard E. Horple, at home, and two sisters, Mrs. Catherine Frank, of Baltimore, and Mrs. Wenige of Ellicott City. After a short service at the house at 10 a. m., further services were held at St. John's Lutheran Church, Monday, and interment was made in the adjoining cemetery. The pallbearers were William H. Long, M. Sharrer, Noah Long, George Trechler, John Houck and John Brehm. F. A. Sharrer & Son funeral directors.

Mrs. Lvidia Cluts Stansbury died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Rowe Ohler, near Emmitsburg, at 2:30 Saturday morning, January 7, from infirmities of old age. She was confined to her room since April. She was born July 10, 1833. She is survived by three daughters and one son: Mrs. Sarah Stoniesier, of Key Mar; Mrs. Laura Devilliss and Mrs. Annie Ohler, of Emmitsburg, and Albert Stansbury, of Key Mar; thirteen grandchildren, and fourteen great-grandchildren.

MARYLAND CASUALTY COMPANY
Hundreds of people have insured with us for the last 20 years, have you?
$50,000.00 paid to Carroll County people for losses in 1921.
We will bond you for settlement of ESTATES and for CONTRACTS.
We will bond your EMPLOYEES and go on your bond to your EMPLOYER.
We insure you against BURGLARY at your HOME OR PLACE OF BUSINESS.
We insure you under WORKMEN'S COMPENSATION & PUBLIC LIABILITY.
We insure AUTOMOBILES against LIABILITY, COLLISION & INJURY.
We will pay you a weekly benefit when you are SICK OR PROVED.
We will insure your STEAM BOILER and your STEAM ENGINES.
ALL CLAIMS SETTLED PROMPTLY. GIVE US A TRIAL, WE WILL PLEASE YOU.
JAS. PEARRE WANTZ, General Agent, Maryland.

T.W. Mather & Sons
WESTMINSTER'S LEADING STORE
THE
January Clearance Sale
continues, the most wanted Winter Merchandise is offered here at the Lowest Prices you have heard of for a great many years.

Ladies' Coats, Suits, Dresses Are Greatly Reduced.
$30.00 to $37.50 Coats $23.75.
$25.00 to $28.50 Coats $19.75.
$19.50 Coats $14.75.
$15.00 Coats $9.75.
$25.00 Silk Dresses $18.75.
$19.75 Silk or Cloth Dresses $14.75.
$12.50 Prunella Cloth Skirts $7.75.
$6.00 Serge or Poplin Skirts $3.75.
All Suits 1-3 off.
$5.00 Silk Waists $2.85.
$2.00 Voile Waists $1.45.

Millinery.
All winter millinery must be closed out this month.
Our Best Hats $1.98.
A lot of trimmed hats in a splendid assortment of shapes and colors including black hats that have been selling at from $5.00 to $10.00, now only $1.98.

Children's Hats 98c.
A lot of children's hats formerly sold at from $1.50 to $2.50, suitable for children from 2 to 10 years, now only 98c.

Flannel Middys.
Our best quality all wool flannel middys, trimmed with silk and emblem in either regulation style or the new style waist middy. The colors are bright red and navy blue. For the CLEARANCE SALE this regular $5.00 middy for $3.95.

Ladies' Flannelette Gowns 75c.
Good quality gowns of pretty striped outing flannel, cut full size for misses and ladies. For the CLEARANCE SALE 75c.

Ladies' Gowns 98c.
Out best quality heavy flannelette gowns in either solid white or pretty blue and white stripes. For the CLEARANCE SALE 98c.

Window Shades 49c.
Best quality dark green water color window shades for this sale 49c.

Rubber Foot Wear.
The prices have been lowered on all rubber foot wear for the January Sale. Our rubbers are all of the best quality and you will find these prices the lowest.

Artics.
$5.00 Men's Ball Band Vac Boots $4.50.
$5.00 Men's Hipress Red Boots $4.50.
$3.75 Boys' Ball Band Boots $3.35.
$2.65 Youths' Ball Band Boots $2.35.
$3.00 Women's Ball Band Boots $2.75.
$2.65 Misses' Ball Band Boots $2.35.
$2.25 Childs' Ball Band Boots $1.95.
$1.15 Ladies' Ball Band Storm Rubbers 95c.
95c Misses' Ball Band Storm Rubbers 85c.
80c Child's Ball Band Storm Rubbers 69c.
$1.25 Boys' Ball Band Storm Rubbers $1.10.
$1.00 Youth's Ball Band Storm Rubbers 89c.
$1.50 Men's Ball Band Storm Rubbers $1.35.

$4.50 Men's Buckle Artics, $2.65.
Special lot of men's all rubber, 4-buckle artics, bought from the government, U. S. Hood, and other makes at the special price of $2.65.

Dry Goods.
Yard wide unbleached muslin 10c.
Fine unbleached muslin 12 1/2c.
40 inch unbleached muslin 15c.
Canton flannel 10c a yard.
Good dress gingham 19c a yard.
Outing cloth, yard wide 19c a yard.
Comfort covering 19c a yard.
Best apron gingham 15c.

Picture Frames Made to Order.
For the JANUARY SALE we have gotten together all our odd lots of picture mouldings and these will be made up any size you want them for framing pictures, certificates, diplomas, etc., only a little more than half the usual price.

T. W. MATHER & SONS, Westminster, Md.

BRIEFS

Mr. Joseph Little, John street, spent Sunday evening in Baltimore city.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Troxell, of Keysville, spent Sunday with Mr. Harry Dull and Mrs. Annie Staub.

Mrs. Emma Hann and son, Charles, of Reisterstown, were guests of Miss Mary King, Pennsylvania avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Eyer, of Baltimore, were guests of their son, Mr. Louis Eyer, and wife, West Main street, Sunday.

Blair Brooks, Skyesville, has received notice that his automobile license was revoked by Commissioner Baughman.

Mrs. Winter D. Bond and two children, of Finksburg, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Bond, Liberty street, a few days this week.

All of the laborers on the sections of the Western Maryland Railroad were laid off indefinitely last Friday. The foreman has to look after his on division.

Mr. and Mrs. Carol Twigg and family, of Charlestown, W. Va., who have been visiting Mrs. Twigg's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Denton S. Gehr, Bond street, returned home Monday.

Messrs. Joseph N. Shriver, this city, and James Shriver, of Union Mills, are attending the Cannery Convention at Louisville, Ky., this week, representing the B. F. Shriver Co.

Mr. Joshua Snyder, engineer on local freight between Baltimore and Union Bridge, for many years and a native of this city, has been promoted the passenger run between Baltimore and Hanover.

A slight injury to one finger early last November resulted in the death of Charles March, 23 years old, of near York, Pa. An infection resulted, and amputation of his right leg was undertaken at the Westside Sanitarium in an effort to save his life.

Stuffed down in an icebox in his clothing shop, the dead body of Oscar Hagood, aged 36, of Greenville, S. C., was discovered by Deputy Sheriff J. L. Crain, while conducting a search for the man, who has been missing a week. The odor attracted the officer's attention.

Funeral services for Charles W. Walker, former well-known resident of Montgomery county, who was recently murdered in Georgia, where he had made his home for a number of years, were held Tuesday afternoon at the home of his sister, Mrs. Amanda Darby, at Gaithersburg.

Shooting his sweetheart, for whom he lay in ambush after a lovers' quarrel Saturday night, John Toth, aged 25, Allentown, Pa., is being held to await the result of injuries to pretty Marie Kass, aged 22, who is more than likely to die. Toth, a veteran of two enlistments in the army, met Marie soon after she came to America from Austria last August to join her widowed mother, since married to James Stickers. They were engaged to wed, but no date was set. He was saving all he could while working at a wire mill and she became a cigarmaker.

The stockholders of the First National Bank, of Hampstead elected the following directors: Dr. E. M. Bush, William A. Abbott, Thomas M. Sharnberger, Joseph M. Armacost, Robert E. Merryman, Theo. Watson Tracey, William J. Brown, C. Frank Schnell, John U. Leister, Geo. W. Sharrer, J. Frank Switzer, William C. Miller, George J. Fringer.

Miss Mildred Main, the 14-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Main, is home after having been missing four weeks. She was located by the authorities in Hagerstown and brought to Frederick. Charles Stralman is being held in $1,000 bail for the February grand jury charged with having enticed a minor under the age of 16 years from home. It is alleged that he took her to Baltimore.

At the annual election of The Skyesville National Bank the following gentlemen were re-elected to serve one ensuing year: John T. Ridgely, Wilmer R. McCardell, James M. Gaither, Lloyd B. Shipley, G. Harry Bevard, John W. Selby, Harry R. DeVries, Asa Hepper, James B. George, Dr. Milton D. Norris, William M. Chipley and Wade H. D. Warfield. Wade H. D. Warfield, President, G. Harry Bevard, Vice-president, and Wm. M. Chipley, Cashier.

The Hampstead Fire Company at its regular meeting elected the following officers for the ensuing year: President, Dr. E. M. Bush, 1st Vice President, C. H. Sapp; 2nd Vice President, J. H. Blocher; Recording Secretary, Edw. C. Tipton; Assistant Recording Secretary, D. O. Martin; Fin. Secretary, E. W. Turner; Assistant Fin. Secretary, W. E. Keefer; Treasurer, I. S. Leister; Chief, C. H. Sapp; Assistant Chief, J. W. Williams; Board of Managers, Dr. E. M. Bush, B. F. Stansbury, Thomas Miller, A. S. Algire, W. H. Seaks, J. F. Switzer, and George R. Rupp.