BOWEN

Helen Saffronia Bowen died at the Home for the Aged, this city, yesterday, aged 89 years. Mrs. Bowen's body will be removed to Towson today for burial. F. A. Sharrer & Son funeral directors.

ROOSTER FIGHTS WOMAN

Waukegan, Ill., Jan. 30.—Miss Agnes Schishinsky, employed in a local cafe, today had a terrific battle with a rooster, which pounced upon her when she removed a hen from a coop.

The chanticleer leaped at Miss Schishinsky, striking her in the face. The rooster then scratched the young woman with its talons, and nipped a piece out of the end of her nose with its beak.

Miss Schishinsky was wringing the hen's neck when the rooster gallantly went to the rescue of his favorite.

BOYS AND GIRLS MAKE GOOD RETURNS IN 1921

The Poultry Club was the largest club this year. The County Poultry Association donated 27 settings of eggs to boys and girls who would hatch them and return a pullet in payment for the eggs in the fall and exhibit a trio at the fair. Twenty-one was able to do this. The association is planning to carry on the same work this year and any farm boy or girl should make application at once to the County Agent for settings on the same conditions, also that only one brood go to a farm.

The standing for this year is as follows: First, Carroll Rinehart, Union Bridge; second, H. C. Demiller, Union Mills; and third, Margaret A. Myers, Pleasant Valley.

The Pure Bred Sow Pig Club was started at Taneytown in August through the Taneytown Savings Bank. The returns so far, first, Hubert Null, second, Carroll Rinehart, Union Bridge; third, Burton Keppart, Union Bridge. The first two bought their pigs direct, eight bought through the bank. The pigs are all pure bred Duroc Jerseys and are making good growth with the promise of close competition at the Taneytown Fair this fall.

The acre of Corn Club is small but shows good gains with high yields. John Myers, Baughman's Valley, produced 95 bushel shelled corn. Reids Yellow Dent, and Hubert Null, Taneytown, produced 74 1-5 bushels of the same variety.

The boys winning first place will receive the Short Course at the University of Maryland this summer. The Carroll County Farm Council is back of the boys' and girls' club work, as well as a number of the banks and county farmer's organizations. Now is the time to register for this year's club work. "Are you on?"

A TRIP TO DETROIT

Mr. Elmer W. Fleagle, of Harrisburg, Pa., attended the High School exercises of his niece, Miss Irma Lewis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lewis, Mrs. Lewis being Miss Mazzara Fleagle and well known here, of Detroit, Michigan, January 19th to 27th. Miss Lewis took part in the Senior Class play, "Tennyson's Princess," which was given the evenings of January 19th and 20th. She received four beautiful bouquets at the play, one a gorgeous bouquet of tulips, roses and daffodils from her uncle. The play proved a great success and Miss Lewis was highly complimented on the part which she took. The commencement exercises were held in the Eastern High School Auditorium, January 26th at 10:30 a. m. Mr. Laird, of Albion College, was the speaker. Miss Lewis was one of the few to graduate with high distinction, and is a very popular young lady in school society, belonging to many clubs, and holding several responsible positions. She received numerous valuable gifts, among them being a calf skin leather lined Boston bag, given her by the grade room of which she was house president, consisting of 331 girls, January 27 Miss Lewis gave a party to 21 of her friends of the graduating class. The evening was spent in playing games. Refreshments were served at a late hour. Mr. Fleagle enjoyed his visit to Detroit very much, and would not have missed it for anything. Miss Lewis is going to the University of Michigan. Mr. Fleagle also spent several days with his mother, Mrs. Mary E. McGuigan and his sisters, Mrs. A. L. Morelock and Mrs. E. H. Winters, on his return from Michigan.

SLEUTH IN DAVID HARRIS GARB MAKES BIG PROHIBITION RAID

New York, Jan. 25.—"Izzy" Einstein, New York's most spectacular prohibition agent, today disguised himself in David Harris Garb, assumed an authentic "b'gosh" dialect, hired a creaking surrey, drove into the country north of Monticello, N. Y., and returned 10 hours later with three whisky stills, several hundred gallons of mash ready for distillation and several cans of "moonshine" ready for consumption. Incidentally, he had served three summonses on upstate farmers, calling for explanations in Federal Court.

"Izzy" first intrigued Isaac and Mrs. Liff with "boss talk," while three assistants looked over the Liff farm near Bethel. The agents found two stills, they claimed, and 500 gallons of mash. Then "Izzy" and his assistants drove to the Harris Gordon farm, where the raid was repeated, with Gordon getting a summons in exchange for a still and several cans of "moonshine" awaiting shipment.

The Einstein raid took place in a locality "dry" under local option since 1917.
