Mrs. George Bollinger, Jr., who had been reported ill, is somewhat improved.

Mrs. S. H. Hare is confined to her bed threatened with pneumonia.

PATAPSCO

Owing to the inclement weather of last Saturday night, the bazaar of the Aid Society of the Methodist Protestant Church was postponed until the following Saturday night, February 4, at 6 o'clock. All are welcome.

Mrs. Osburn Snyder and Mrs. Chas. E. Taylor represented the Aid Society of the Methodist Protestant Church at the funeral of Mrs. Alveta Shaffer on last Saturday; also placed a floral design on the grave in loving sympathy of the family.

BLACK'S

Last Saturday and part of Sunday we had one of the worst blizzards that we had for many years. The roads were drifted to the height of 5 to 8 feet. All traffic was at a standstill for two days, but at this writing we are having some real spring-like weather overhead. But the roads are in bad shape. February came in like a lamb and will go out like a lion. Wait and see.

Mr. and Mrs. Mervin J. Harner and son, Laverne, and Mr. Raymond Reinaman visited Mr. John McNulty and family, of Littlestown, on Tuesday afternoon.

Some of our people are suffering from bad colds.

Our public school was open on Monday in spite of the unpassable roads. Of course the crowd was not large.

Although our roads were drifted badly from Saturday's snow, our mail carrier, Mr. Shaffer, got as far as Warfieldsburg in his sleigh and then went horse back, but did not serve quite all of his route, but got the mail to all his patrons.

Mrs. Raymond Stuller and sons, Ralph and Donald, were visiting friends in Baltimore last week.

Mr. Silver, of Indiana, was round through this neighborhood, last week taking orders for an account book. The price to be paid is $7.50, but in the end the book is supposed to be free, as the merchants in Westminster, whose names are in the book, are supposed to give you a discount on what you buy till the book is paid for. It looks quite strange that one will come so far to try to make others better off. Perhaps we will see later how it works out.

Taste is a matter of tobacco quality

We state it as our honest belief that the tobaccos used in Chesterfield are of finer quality (and hence of better taste) than in any other cigarette at the price.
