FEW CROOKS ESCAPE

Daily reports of murders, bank robberies, train hold-ups, swindles, prison breaks, and so on through the category of crimes, big and little, sometimes lead one to wonder whether most criminals escape punishment or are caught and made to pay the penalty exacted by law.

USE OF NEWSPAPERS.

A good hand at figures has figured it out that 30,000,000 newspapers are sold in the United States every day. This is five to every sixteen people.

GYPSY PRINCESS OVERBOARD CUPID TRIUMPHS IN TROPICS

New York, Feb. 21.—'Twas a story of life in the tropics, romance under the southern moon, that the good ship Caxias brought into port today.

DID NOT SUPPORT PETITION.

A petition circulated that, from the wording, would appear to have had the endorsement and support of the American Legion was referred to the commander of the local post who answered as follows:

Mrs. D. F. Shipley, County Secretary W. C. T. U., Carroll County.

In reply to your letter of the 15th instant wherein you ask "If the American Legion authorized, and supported the wet petition that is being circulated."

The petition states "We, the undersigned citizens of Carroll County, Veterans of the World War, and members of the American Legion."

The reference to members of the American Legion is an ambiguous one, and in my opinion, one that was used to mislead the citizens of Carroll County, and the public at large.

We are glad to note Mr. John Graf and Mrs. Wm. Graf, who were confined to a Baltimore hospital, have returned to their homes and are improving rapidly at this writing.

Leeds K. Billingslea, Adjutant.

A QUILTING PARTY

A very pleasant day was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Grimes, of Mt. Airy, when she had a quilting party and invited some friends to join her.

Mrs. Clarence Baker also came to sew, but they all laughed and said she was very slow.

Mrs. George Grimes, a quilter true, but had to laugh a time or two;

Mrs. Basil Gosnell, the Queen, when she grew tired of quilting, would play the organ and sing;

Miss Eleanor Ey, another guest, but did not quilt as much as the rest;

Miss Anna Hood was also a guest, but did not quilt like the rest;

She enjoyed her supper, I'll not say why.

Just ask a certain young man who passed by;

Miss Katheline Penn and Margaret Hood were too small to quilt, but they were very good.

Mr. Charles Wright kept us all grinning, it was quite a hard task to keep away from the women;

Mr. George Grimes thought the quilting a grand success, so they will have another don't you guess;

Though he was puzzled and wondered and thought in vain.

How a quilt could be made in a three piece frame;

Master Ralph and Raymond Grimes came from school, after learning the golden rule.

Master Orville Wright came last, after the quilters had finished their task.

IMMANUEL LUTHERAN CHURCH, MANCHESTER.

Rev. C. G. Leatherman, pastor. On Tuesday, March 14, Mr. John Miller, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Clayton Black at Manchester, aged 66 years, 4 months and 9 days.

MILLERS

On Saturday evening, March 18, a surprise party was given in honor of Miss Emma Bollinger's twenty-second birthday, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Emory Bollinger, on Sweet Air Hill.

After indulging in all sorts of games and enjoyed, both vocal and instrumental music, the guests were invited to a table laden with refreshments.

The hostess received many beautiful and useful gifts. At a late hour the guests departed after wishing Emma many more happy birthdays.

Those present were Messrs. and Mesdames Emory Bollinger, Harry Brillhart, Clinton Bollinger, Preston Bollinger, Lloyd Miller, Clarence Bollinger, Ernest Lippy, Mrs. Chas. Miller, George Hoover, Nora Shorb, George Kerchner, Misses Emma Bollinger, Eva Gilbert, Nellie Willson, Minnie Zepf, Eva, and Myrl Miller, Myrl Rinehart, Myrtle Cape, Mamie and Erma Wynand, Virginia and Alma Shipley, Francis Miller, Elsie Merkle, Ida Herbst, Anna and Seranda Redding, Phyllis Bollinger, Marie Bollinger, Messrs. Charles Leese, Michael Leister, Harry Martin, George Reding, Austin Brillhart, Milvin Miller, Charles Shorb, Murray and Milton Miller, Jesse Bollinger, Harry Graf, and Harry Bollinger.

We are glad to note Mr. John Graf and Mrs. Wm. Graf, who were confined to a Baltimore hospital, have returned to their homes and are improving rapidly at this writing.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Reed, of Snydersburg, spent Sunday last visiting Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Bollinger.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Brillhart and son, Austin and Mrs. Leah Barber spent last Sunday visiting the latter's brother, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Miller and family, of Alesia.

A number of our women folks are busy quilting.

Misses Virginia and Alma Shipley of near Westminster, spent several days the past week visiting Mr. and Mrs. Emory Bollinger and family.

Mrs. Lloyd Miller and son Melvin spent last Thursday visiting relatives at Baltimore.

WOULD HAVE CANAL MADE SPEEDWAY FOR AUTOISTS

Cumberland, March 13.—Local motorists are discussing the feasibility of filling the bed of the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal for a roadway, now that it is thought it is to be abandoned as a waterway within the next few years.

It is thought it may not be operated this year, as it is a losing proposition and the prospects are not very bright with the impending coal strike and the already heavy loss of coal contracts by Georges Creek operators.

It is contended that if the canal bed be filled from bank to bank it would become the finest low-grade highway, in America, extending from Cumberland to Washington.

Such a road would be the autoist's delight, winding along the valley of the Potomac and eliminating steep grades and hills, of the National Highway between Cumberland and Hancock.

It would be the key to the South also, it is said, for tourist traffic from the West, which would be diverted at Harper's Ferry.

Seven Inches Above The Pavement.

Even the Salvation Army lassies, who should not only be helpful to humanity, but show a right example, are trying to imitate the decrees of fashion by wearing short skirts. The leaders of the Salvation Army, realizing that they have workers in 77 countries of the world, have passed an order that the skirts of the Salvation Army girls must not be more than seven inches off the pavement. It is said this new order will not affect China and Japan, as the majority of women in these two countries wear trousers.
