

Lillian (Billie) Dove

Charming Lillian (Billie) Dove, the popular "movie" star has permanently left the chorus for the screen. "I thought I could never forsake musical comedy," she once said. "But the lure of the stage isn't half so strong to me now and can't be compared to the thrill that one gets when sitting back in the rear of a theater and watching one's self on the screen." This is one of her latest pictures.

A LINE O' CHEER

By John Kendrick Bangs.

A VALUABLE VISITOR

TROUBLE came to me one day Bag and baggage. Came to stay. Followed me where'er I went. On more trouble surely bent. I, despite his mien of gloom, Took him to an upper room, And with purpose deadly grim Made a punching-bag of him. Knocked him squarely through the door. Stretched him flat upon the floor, And at last when past a doubt I'd completely laid him out Strange to say I found my muscle Stronger for our little tussle. Whence I think 'tis rather plain Even Trouble holdeth gain. (Copyright.)

PLEASANT GROVE AND REESE.

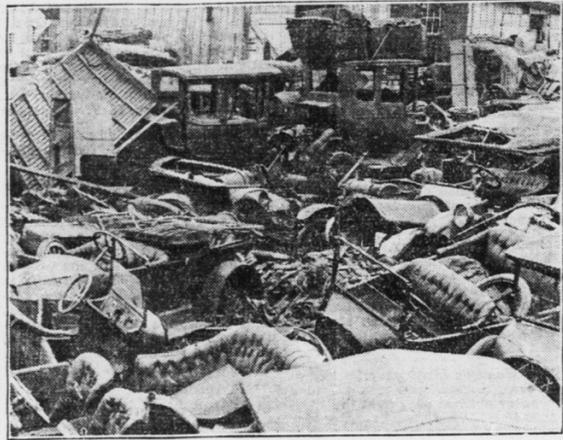

Sunday school on Sunday morning at 9 o'clock. Preaching at 10.30 by the new pastor, Rev. Geo. S. Sanner, Jr. The Ladies' Aid met last Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Howard Taylor with fair attendance. Mrs. Taylor did fine work with basket and has made banner record. Next meeting in May. A meeting was held recently at the home of the Misses Read to talk over and lay plans to build a parsonage on lot purchased some time ago, and decided to try to build during the year. The following committees were appointed: Rev. W. I. Dice elected chairman of the building committee; John Magee, secretary; U. H. Shipley, treasurer; chairman from charges as follows: Thomas Chapel, Wesley Bowman; Patapsco, Vernon Spencer; Pleasant Grove, Ira Dorsey, Jr. They have decided to hold a monthly meetings to discuss plans, etc. A meeting April 14 at Mr. John Magee's. Movings are about over now. Rev. Sadosky and family left on Tuesday for Union Bridge; Mr. Herb. Buckingham and family are settled in Miss Jessie Matthew's house; Mr. Donald Richards and family moved to Patapsco and Rev. W. I. Dice and wife with Misses Read to their new home. The Read house will be the parsonage for the new pastor and wife in the near future. Mr. and Mrs. Butler Gorsuch were in Baltimore and attended the convention at Grace Methodist Episcopal Church. Mr. Pinkney Gorsuch spent several days the past week with his brother, Mr. Butler Gorsuch. Mrs. Berlin Cagle entertained to dinner last Thursday. Mrs. Young, Mrs. Chester Taylor and baby, and Mrs. Sadosky and children. Mrs. Harvey Ward has purchased the property owned by Mr. Alfred Ward and will move to same shortly. Mrs. Blanche Magee has returned after a visit to Mrs. Grace Weyrich at Olwyn Apartments, Windsor Hills. Mr. Cover Craft and family have moved to Mr. Hayden Chew's house on Bethel Road.

A Large Sale.

In our local weeklies, we frequently read of "A Large Sale." In a city daily there was to be a sale of 503 houses, built of brick and stucco, and 4 stores, in New Jersey. The premises were to be offered both as a whole and by individual units on the following terms: 10 per cent. at time of sale, balance in cash within 30 days from date of modification of acceptance of bid. Of course, only millionaires can be expected to be bidders. It seems that at the present day there are so many corporations, or in other words, "The big fish swallows the little ones."

GRAVEYARD FOR ARISTOCRATIC AUTOS

Have you ever wondered what has happened to that good old bus of yours with which you parted when you got the shiny new one? The photograph shows a graveyard for old aristocratic Washington horseless carriages. Many of them have served faithfully in the best of families, yet now in their old age are left unprotected to the ravages of the elements.

"What's in a Name?"

By MILDRED MARSHALL

Facts about your name; its history; meaning; whence it was derived; significance; your lucky day and lucky jewel

GERALDINE

NORSE mythology is filled with valiant names which are the forerunners of many of our feminine proper names in current use today. Geraldine is one such and her history dates back to the days when Valkyries drove their splendid chariots over the fields of conflict in the land of the midnight sun. It means "spear power," thus making its fortunate possessor one of the company of battle maids so honored by those of Scandinavian blood.

From Norway and Sweden, the forerunner of Geraldine made its appearance among the Anglo-Saxons as St. Gerhold, which was straightway changed to Gerald and because of the salutary reputation of its first bearer the masculine name became enormously popular in England, where it is still a favorite in the aristocratic class. "Morte d'Arthur" added to the legend of Gerald, since Gareth, or Garret, Knight of the Round Table, was said to be the equivalent for Gerald. Some etymologists disagree with this contention. The first Geraldine was Lady Elizabeth Fitzgerald, daughter of the famous Maurice Fitzgerald, whom Surrey made the heroine of his poetry under the title of Fair Geraldine. Geraldine's talismanic gem is the emerald which is said to give the wearer such intuitive powers that she may be able to foretell events. It quickens the intelligence and sharpens the wits, but is an enemy to passion. Wednesday is Geraldine's lucky day and 3 her lucky number. The Hawthorne is her flower. (Copyright.)

DENNING'S

April came in with April showers. Miss Hilda Bowersox went to the hospital and was operated on. She is getting along fine, and hopes she will be back soon to teach school. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bond are spending a few days with her daughter, Mrs. Clarence Manahan. Mrs. Mary E. Mumford, of Union Bridge, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. David H. Bair, and family. Moving seems to be the order of the day. Mr. Joseph Roberts moved to Watersville; Mr. George Stem will move near Westminster, on the Littlestown pike; Mr. Harman Wagner moved to Mr. William Zile's place, vacated by Mr. George Stem; Mr. Earl Warner moved to the John Baker place; Mr. Miller moved to Mr. William Farver's place, vacated by Mr. Earl Warner; Mr. Harry Bond moved to Mr. David Pickett's, vacated by Mr. Miller; Mr. Wetzel moved to the Shriver farm vacated by Mr. Hyde; Mr. Carval Horton moved to where Mr. Wetzel vacated; Mr. William Colson moved to Mr. Nathan Ball's. Mrs. Mary E. Mumford is spending a few days with Mrs. John Harris, of Enterprise. Miss Royer, of Westminster, is taking the place of Miss Bowersox. Those who called on Clarence Manahan and family were Mr. and Mrs. Will Zepp, Mrs. Mary E. Mumford, Mrs. David Bair, Miss Carrie Bair, Katherine Bowersox, Mary Bair, Mr. Woodrow and Herbert Crumbacker.

SANDYVILLE

Sunday school this Sunday morning at 9.30. Special Easter services at 7.45. All cordially invited to this service. An interesting C. E. was held Sunday night with Mrs. Bertrand Cagle, as leader. Rev. Dice was present and gave a splendid talk on the topic. John Hering, of Westminster, spent several days last week with Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Stocksdale. Mrs. Sophia Westaway fell last Thursday and broke her wrist, which is causing much trouble. We had a heavy wind on Tuesday, followed by a shower of rain in the evening. Real summer weather prevailed several days.

How the Famous Disc Clutch of the Buick "Four" Proved Itself

The same design of disc clutch that was used in the powerful war tanks is likewise used in the Buick Four.

The Buick clutch under the most gruelling conditions, has proved itself absolutely positive, dependable, and easy to operate—a clutch that demonstrated the same certainty and safety for unforeseen emergency that it did for ordinary service.

This thoroughly trustworthy unit is a development of 20 years of consistent effort. It is typically representative of the standards governing the construction of the Buick Four throughout.
