August Welk was shot and killed by Ernest Lentz, his stepson, in their home at Less Park, Pa., Saturday. Welk had recently been arrested on a charge of abusing his wife, and was under bail. He is alleged to have attacked his wife again Saturday and her screams brought her son to her home with a shotgun. Welk is alleged to have turned on the son, and the shooting followed.

That Knife-Like Pain

Is Only One of Nature's Warnings of Weak or Disturbed Kidneys.

Have you a lame back, aching day and night? Do you feel sharp pains after stooping? Are the kidneys sore? Is their action irregular? Use Doan's Kidney Pills—the medicine recommended by so many Westminster people. Ask your neighbor! Read this case:

Mr. Oliver Myers, 42 Bond St., Westminster, says: "I had a bad case of kidney trouble and my back bothered me. It seemed as though I were being cut across the small of my back with a knife. My feet would swell and my eyes became affected. My kidneys acted too often and caused annoyance. My mother recommended Doan's Kidney Pills to me and I procured a box. I had immediate relief after using one box and I kept on taking them until I had used three boxes. I am now entirely cured of the trouble. I owe a great deal to Doan's."

Mrs. Myers gave the above statement October 10, 1916, and on December 11, 1920, she added: "The cure Doan's Kidney Pills made for me has been a lasting one. I have had no return of the trouble and will always recommend Doan's."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Myers had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

WEDDING.

AWALT—CONNELLY.

On Wednesday, June 14, at St. Bernard's Church, Baltimore, a very pretty wedding took place when Miss Sarah Helen Connelly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. J. Connelly, of Baltimore, became the bride of Jas. A. Awalt, formerly of this city. The nuptial mass was celebrated by the pastor, Father J. W. Houck. The Miss Agnes Connelly, sister of the bride, and Jas. E. Boylan, Jr., of this city, were the attendants. The married couple left for a wedding trip to New York and Niagara and on their return will reside in Baltimore.

The wedding is of particular interest to the people of Westminster, as the groom is well known here.

BARNES—BRADY.

A quiet but very pretty wedding was solemnized Saturday evening when Miss Hilda Brady, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James S. Brady, of Hanover, became the bride of Mr. Roy Barnes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert H. Barnes, near this city. The ceremony was performed at the St. Joseph's parsonage, Hanover, by Father James A. Haber at 8 o'clock. The bride was very charmingly attired in dark blue canton crepe with hat to match. Miss Catherine Brady, sister of the bride, was the bridesmaid, and Mr. Oscar Bair, this city, acted as best man. Immediately after the ceremony the bride and groom left for a trip. They are residing in this city. A few relatives and friends were the only attendants.

POPE—RUDY

St. James' P. E. Church, at Mt. Airy, was the scene of a pretty wedding Wednesday morning, when Miss Blanche Cost Rudy, of Mt. Airy, became the bride of Mr. Wiley M. Pope, of Woodville, Texas. Miss Rudy is the daughter of William C. Rudy. The ceremony was performed by Rev. P. J. Boylen, rector of St. James, in the presence of her relatives and intimate friends. The bride was becomingly attired in a traveling suit and carried a shower bouquet of roses. Prior to the entrance of the bridal party Miss Laura Rensberg, of Baltimore, sang "Dawning," by Cadman. The bridal party entered to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march played by Miss Bessie Pharr, of Selma, Ala. During the ceremony she played "O Perfect Love," and Mendelssohn's March was played for the recessional. The ring bearer was Miss Margaret Rootzahn, and the flower girl Miss Charlotte Hood. The ushers were W. N. Hood and W. Dana Rudy, of Mt. Airy. The bride is a niece of Walter R. Rudy and has spent much of her vacation at his home at Mt. Airy. She has been teaching in the South and there met Mr. Pope and the romance which started in Dixie had its happy culmination in Maryland.

Mr. Pope is doing post graduate work at Oglethorpe University at Atlanta, Georgia. He will become Dean of the Kelly Military Academy, Burlington, Kansas, in the fall.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter R. Rudy entertained the wedding party at their home Wednesday night. Immediately after the ceremony the happy couple left by auto for the South.

AUGUR—HOOPER

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse L. Hooper, south of Hampstead, at 3:30 o'clock on Friday afternoon, June 9, when their only child Marion, became the bride of Mr. Tracey Baldwin Augur, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Augur, of Brooklyn, N. Y.

The ceremony, which took place on the lawn amid an embankment of roses and laurel, was performed by the bride's pastor, Rev. Clarkson Banes, of the Methodist Episcopal Church, at Hampstead, in the presence of a few relatives and friends.

The bride was attired in a becoming gown of white canton crepe and carried a bouquet of swansonias, lilies of the valley and maidenhair fern. She was given away by her father and was attended by Miss Marcia Augur, sister of the groom, in a gown of pink and by Miss Dorothy Carpenter, in a gown of blue each carrying a bouquet of ragged robin and pink sweet peas. Mrs. Gilbert Benson, of Hampstead, rendered Lohengrin's wedding march, preceding and Mendelssohn's at the conclusion of the ceremony. A luncheon was served on the lawn.

Mr. and Mrs. Augur left for New York the next day for Bermuda. The bride's traveling gown was of blue kasha cloth. Upon their return they will reside in Brooklyn, N. Y. They were the recipients of many handsome presents.

Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Augur, Misses Marcia Augur, and Claire Crosby, of Brooklyn, N. Y.; Miss Dorothy Carpenter, of Boston, Mass.; Miss Adelaide Cook, of North Tonawanda, N. Y.; Miss Louise de Schweinitz, of Bethlehem, Pa.; Mr. Guy Loomis, of New York City; Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Bosley, of Greenmount, and Mrs. Harry Bixler, Mrs. Gilbert Benson, Mr. and Mrs. J. William Kelbaugh, Misses Ada and Nellie Wooden, Messrs. Lawrence and Herbert Wooden and Master Jack Kelbaugh, of Hampstead.

BROWN—RINAMAN

E. Sterling Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. David J. Brown, of Manchester, and Mary Alice Rinaman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Rinaman, Hampstead, were married yesterday at 4:30 p. m. The ceremony was performed by the groom's pastor, Rev. Leatherman, in the Lutheran church, Manchester. After the ceremony they left for a trip and upon their return will reside in Hampstead.

BLACK'S

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Wentz, and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Wentz and children, of Hanover, spent Sunday visiting at the home of Mrs. Sarah A. Harner.

Mr. and Mrs. Mervin J. Harner and sons, Laverne and Clyde, spent Sunday visiting Mr. Paul H. Krumrine and family, of near the New Church.

A very heavy electrical storm, accompanied by a great down pour of rain, passed over this section on Sunday evening.

Mr. George Keonhen, of Park street, is building a new hen house. He contemplates going into the chicken business.

Our farmers are very busy cutting and marketing their pea crop, which seems to be a fair one.

Working corn seems to be the order of the day among our farmers. Some have begun making hay, which will be a good crop, and harvest is at the door.

Mr. and Mrs. John L. Wolfe, of Marker's Mill, were Sunday visitors in this place.

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Bortner and children, of near the stone road, were recent visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Laughman.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter H. Bowers and daughters, Edith, Catherine and Emma, of Park street, made a business trip to Taneytown on Saturday evening.

Mr. Henry H. Wolf has built a new chicken house.

THE WONDERFUL

Rickenbacker Six

A Car in a Class to Itself.

The Rickenbacker Six is the smartest and handsomest popular priced car on the road today. You ride comfortably with the new spring suspension which absorbs all shocks, jars and jolts.

Three years of the most thorough engineering and constant work are back of this wonderful car. Over a quarter of a million dollars was invested in the first chassis alone before it was pronounced right. The original chassis and body traveled over 80,000 miles. You can run from 2 miles to 60 miles per hour without the slightest vibration.

The motor will develop 58 horsepower. It is the most up-to-date car on the market. It is called the "Society Automobile", which name it well deserves. The Price is $1485 F. O. B. Detroit.

To be convinced that all is true, make an appointment for a demonstration by calling 267 Westminster.
