E. W. SAUBLE, IS GOES OVER

HEAD WHILE BATHING MONOCYCLE AND DROWNS.

While in bathing Sunday Earl W. Sauble, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Sauble, near Taneytown, was drowned. Sauble, who was 18 years old, went with a number of friends to a point near Starner's dam, on the Monocacy. All but he could swim. The swimmers crossed the river but called to him not to attempt to follow them. He disregarded the warning, it is said, and went over his head. Ed. Morelock, Ed. and Guy Hawn, members of the party, dived in an effort to save him. Though they succeeded in reaching him they were unable successfully to bring him to the surface. Half an hour later the body was recovered by John Broening but efforts at resuscitation proved futile. He is survived by his parents and two brothers, and one sister, Norman and Raymond and Ethel, all at home. Services were held at Trinity Lutheran Church, Taneytown, Wednesday, June 21. Rev. L. B. Hafer, pastor officiated. Interment was made in Lutheran cemetery. The pallbearers were Wilbur Mehring, Ralph Conover, Russell Conover, Hubert Null, George Haines and George Baumgardner. C. O. Fuss and son funeral directors.

MOUNT TSCARORA

While on his way to church last Sunday, Luther Davidson thought he would show the people some stunts that could be done with an Overland. While going through the grove near the church he tried to climb up a clump of trees which stood near the road. Some claim he reached the top and some say he didn't. Leastways he was seen going to the garage on Monday morning with what once might have been an automobile.

Detective Kleinschmitt says business is very dull in the force just now so he has taken up farming as a pastime. He endeavored to put on a load of hay for H. J. Lippy, which he wasn't very successful with, for as soon as they left the field it upset. Immediately after it upset Charles was seen going in an easterly direction in a dead run and has not been seen since. Bud Taylor claims he will be back within a week as he says he is bound to turn back when he reaches the Atlantic ocean.

Uncle Andrew Cullison, of near this place, hearing a commotion in his poultry yard one day last week went to see what was causing all of the disturbance. When he arrived there he discovered a large snapping turtle of the tank type variety making away with his flock. He immediately sent for Captain Virgil Davidson, who was soon there with his shot gun, which however, did not take effect on the turtle. So seeing that they needed more help sent for Sergeant Charles Shaffer, who soon arrived upon the scene with a pair of mules, a hay rope and pulley, mattock, crowbar, pick, shovel, axe, a pair of ice hooks, saw, hatchet, chisel, and sledge hammer. They were some time taming the turtle but Sargeant Shaffer being noted for his speed and bravery jumped upon the turtles back and landed him on the head with a twenty pound sledge which caused instant death to the turtle.

Folks of this place have been wondering what has become of the Foxe's Den correspondent. It was reported that he was off on his vacation, but we afterwards heard that he had a nervous breakdown and is spending a few weeks in the Rocky Mountains for his health. Farmers of this place are busy making hay which seems to be a very good crop.

Carroll Kleinschmitt has been hoeing tomatoes for the mayor of this town. He reports there is going to be a large crop, but if it takes him as long to pick them as it did to hoe them we are afraid frost will ruin them.

WINTERS GETS 18 YEARS FOR GUARD'S MURDER

Lannon Winters of Reisterstown, who was convicted of second-degree murder in the Harford County Circuit Court last Friday for the killing of Ira Blueber, a watchman at Gwynnbrook Distillery, was sentenced this morning to 18 years in the Maryland Penitentiary by Judge Harlan. This was the extreme penalty under the verdict. The motion for a new trial filed by the defense was submitted to the court without argument and was overruled. Before sentence was passed Winters was asked if he had anything to say and he said he had none. Judge Harlan then told the prisoner that the jury had been very lenient with him, in the court's judgment, and that the verdict should have been murder in the first degree. Sheriff Sheridan took Winters to the Penitentiary.

LYNCH FARMER'S SLAYER

Savannah, May 29.—William Byrd, a negro living near Brentwood, in Wayne county, was shot to death by a mob late yesterday and his body was burned, it became known here today. Byrd was accused of killing B. W. Moody, a farmer, who lived near him. He also seriously wounded Browning Weaver, it was charged, and shot Carlos Moody in the arm.

The trouble is said to have developed over the arrival of a number of negroes from Macon to work on the Moody farm. Among these negroes was Byrd's wife, who insisted upon riding on the front of the truck with the driver. She was denied this privilege, and indignantly reported it to her husband. Byrd went to the home of Moody, by whom he was employed, and in the quarrel that ensued the elder Moody was shot and killed and the other men were wounded. Byrd escaped into the woods, where he was surrounded with the aid of bloodhounds and killed.

Another negro went to Moody's home with Byrd, but left when the trouble started. He has not been molested. The section was quiet today.

On account of dynamo and engine trouble our electric plant was closed down for nearly 12 hours yesterday. Some business places depending entirely on the electricity were closed down about 6 hours.

Theodore's Black-Draught Highly Recommended by a Tennessee Grocer for Troubles Resulting from Torpid Liver.

East Nashville, Tenn.—The efficiency of Theodore's Black-Draught, the genuine, herb, liver medicine, is vouched for by Mr. W. N. Parsons, a grocer of this city. "It is without doubt the best liver medicine, and I don't believe I could get along without it. I take it for sour stomach, headache, bad liver, indigestion, and all other troubles that are the result of a torpid liver. "I have known and used it for years, and can do highly recommend it to every one. I won't go to bed without it in the house. It will do all it claims to do. I can't say enough for it."

Many other men and women throughout the country have found Black-Draught just as Mr Parsons describes—valuable in regulating the liver to its normal functions, and in cleansing the bowels of impurities. Theodore's Black-Draught liver medicine is the original and only genuine. Accept no imitations or substitutes. Always ask for Theodore's. E 8
