SYKESVILLE

The Boy Scouts celebrated in fine form the 4th. Major Hall gave suitable address, and the fire works donated by Sykesville merchants were the best.

Mrs. Frank Brown and brother, Maurice Berry, of Laurel, were visitors here for the 4th. Miss Evelyn Stevens, of Baltimore, has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Elmer Lee, for several days. Miss Lillian Shultz, of Baltimore, spent several days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Shultz. Mr. William Hughes, who was lately operated on at a hospital in Baltimore, is visiting friends in Sykesville. Miss Goldie Barth, telephone operator, is on her vacation and Miss Virginia Jones is substituting for her. A number of our people went to Gettysburg for the 4th. The heavy rains we have had lately have washed the roads and gardens for a loss of hundreds of dollars. Lightning struck the home of Mrs. John Bauer, of Annapolis, but fortunately of Sykesville, and burned it to the ground. Rev. and Mrs. Claude Leyfield and little daughter, of Aberdeen, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. John Harris. Mr. John Vorhees and sister, of Pittsburgh, are visiting, the Misses Bennett, of "The Heights." Miss Alice Bennett and Miss Elizabeth Shipley have gone to Towson to take a six weeks special course at the State Normal school. Misses Maryland Maddox, Evelyn Briddell and Edith Sheriff, of Marion Station, Eastern Shore, are visiting relatives in Sykesville. Mrs. P. T. Bennett, of Washington, with her children, are at the home of the Misses Bennett, of "The Heights." A wedding of much interest was that of Miss Mary Morris, the beautiful daughter of Dr. and Mrs. John Morris, and Mr. Richard Francis Browner, of Indian Head, which took place Saturday, July 1, at the home of the bride's parents. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Wm. Milne. The wedding was very quiet, only the bride's family being present. The bride was attired in all white. They immediately left for a trip up in Blue Ridge Mountains after which they will make their home at Indian Head, where the groom is a chemist in the government laboratory.

UNIONTOWN

Little Miss Dorothy Segafosse is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Robert Davidson. Guests at the Methodist Protestant parsonage this week were Rev. Dr. Sheridan, who preached Sunday morning and evening in the Methodist Protestant Church; Mrs. William Cummings, all of Baltimore, and Miss Cummings, of Baltimore. Mrs. U. G. Heltbride returned on Saturday from a visit of several weeks in Lancaster and Harrisburg. Mr. and Mrs. John F. Beaver and sons, of Harrisburg, accompanied Mrs. Heltbride home. Mr. George Selby, Mrs. Melvin Routson and Miss Lena Dunsing are on the sick list.

Mr. and Mrs. George Slonaker are spending some time in Baltimore. While there Messrs. Chas. and Geo. Slonaker will celebrate their birthdays, as they occur at the same time. Mr. Bellison, who is in his 92nd year, was in the garden one day the past week doing some hoeing. Mr. Bellison has remarkable health and activity. Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hiteshaw and daughter, Catherine, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Snader Devillibus. Mr. and Mrs. Michael Bentz, of Pinksburg, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Snader Devillibus. Rev. John H. Hoch, of Lisburn, Pa., will preach in the church of God, Uniontown, Sunday morning and evening, July 9, and in the afternoon at Wakefield. Miss Elsie Singer, of Baltimore, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. John Newcomer. Mr. and Mrs. John Harbaugh and son, of Baltimore, visited Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hollenberry and other friends. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Page and sons, of Baltimore, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Waltz several days the past week. Mrs. Henry E. Dunsing, of Baltimore, visited her daughter, Miss Lena Dunsing, this week. Miss Maria Angel died in Waynesboro at the home of her sister, Mrs. Margaret Adams, in her 88th year. Miss Maria was well known in this vicinity, having lived for a number of years at Clear Ridge. Her body was brought to Uniontown on Saturday and funeral services were held in the Lutheran church, conducted by Rev. France, assisted by Rev. J. E. Lowe. Interment in the Lutheran cemetery. Pallbearers were M. A. Zollkoffer, Elder W. P. Englar, B. L. Cookson, G. Fielder Gilbert, Samuel Heltbride and Obediah Fiegle. The glorious 4th was spent very quietly in Uniontown. A number of the citizens spent the day in Gettysburg. Lutheran Pastorale—J. E. Lowe, pastor—St. Paul's (Uniontown)—Sunday school 9:30 a. m. Worship and sermon 10:30 a. m. C. E. 8 p. m. Immanuel (Baus)—Sunday school 1:30 p. m. Worship and sermon 2:30 p. m. St. Luke's (Winter's)—Sunday school 10 a. m. Mt. Union—Sunday school 9:30 a. m. C. E. 8:00 p. m. Sunday, July 2, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Leister and Mrs. J. E. Lowe, Sr., from Leister's church vicinity, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mikeral, of Baltimore, attended St. Luke's and Mt. Union services and visited the Lutheran parsonage. July 3rd and 4th, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lowe and daughter, Marguerite, of Westminster, visited Rev. and Mrs. J. E. Lowe.

CLINTON

Mr. and Mrs. Henry H. Wolfe and Miss Catherine Mitchell, of the Cross Roads, were recent visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel H. Mayers. Threshing will soon be the order of the day, among our farmers. Some of our people spent the 4th at Gettysburg. Mr. Willie Degroft visited his friend, Mr. Nevin E. Harner, on Sunday afternoon. The lightning killed two hogs for Mr. Wilson Crouse on Saturday afternoon.

TANETOWN

Mrs. Nettie A. Weaver spent the week's end in Westminster. Mr. Clotworthy Birnie and bride spent the week's end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George H. Birnie. Mr. Robert G. Stott, of New York city, spent the week's end with his mother, Mrs. Margaret Stott. Mrs. Mary Crapster, who has been spending some time with her daughter, Mrs. John Smelter, of Interment, Va., has returned to her home here. Miss Ethel Sauerhammer, who has been teaching in Pennsylvania, has returned home for the summer. Dr. Percy Mehning has returned home from Philadelphia, where he has been attending medical school. Mr. Carroll Koons, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Eyer and Miss Rhoda Weant, all of Baltimore, spent the Fourth with Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Koons. Mr. and Mrs. George Wright, of Philadelphia, spent the Fourth with friends here. Mr. Norville Shoemaker, Jr., is the guest of his sister, Mrs. Andrew Bigham, of Gettysburg. Miss Grace Dutera, of York, spent the 4th with her sister, Mrs. H. C. Brendle. Mrs. Alice Crebbs is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Robt. Myerly, and family, of Westminster. Miss Ruth Brenneman, of Lancaster, is the guest of Mrs. Guy P. Bready, of Baltimore, spent the week's end with his sister, Mrs. Harry Ohler. H. C. The cost of living is still 75 per cent. higher than it was before the war, according to the Department of Labor, but it isn't worth any more so far as we have been able to judge.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

Two in Family Report Big Gain

Mother and Daughter Gains Twenty Pounds Each and Father Also Restored To Fine Health.

"Not since my wonderful experience with Tanlac, three years ago, have we ever been without it in the house. Not only myself, but my husband and my son and daughter all take it when we begin to feel run-down and it never fails to give us the desired results. My daughter, for instance, gained twenty pounds by the use of Tanlac. The above statement was made, recently, by Mrs. Samuel Pearce, residing at 419 North Pulaski street, Baltimore. "As for what Tanlac has done for me," said Mrs. Pearce, "I had suffered constantly for years and had been confined to my bed for months, hardly able to move a muscle. I had such bad pains in my shoulders from neuritis that I could scarcely use my arms and I also suffered agony from backache. "I had no appetite and suffered terribly from what little I did eat. In fact, food gave me misery instead of pleasure, and I got so nervous I did not know what to do. I finally got better of the neuritis, but otherwise I never improved a bit until after I began taking Tanlac. After my first two or three bottles of Tanlac I picked up so fast it surprised me. "Well, it only took Tanlac a few weeks to restore my health and build me up twenty pounds, and since that time I have felt like a new woman altogether. I eat ravenously, digest everything, my nerves are calm, I sleep fine and never have a pain about me. We would not think of getting out of Tanlac, for, as I said, it never disappoints us." Tanlac is sold at all good druggists.

IN MEMORIAM.

In sad but loving remembrance of our dear mother, Harriet E. V. Glover, who departed this life three years ago, July 2, 1919. Three years have passed, dear mother, since you went home to rest. Though you are gone you're not forgotten By the ones who loved you best. O, mother smile on us from Heaven. As God to lead us when we die. That we may meet our dear mother. Some sweet day by and by. How we miss you, mother dear. For your kindness and your care. Soon we hope to meet you, mother dear. Before the throne of lasting cheer. Her eyes were closed that looked on life. Through mists of pain and tears. But God has opened them above. To smile through endless years. In that home of fadeless beauty. Dwelling in that home in glory. With the golden gates ajar. She wore a crown of patience Through the years she struggled on. She was a shining star. Are the hands that made our home. In our home we sadly miss her. And her many acts of love. But we know she is waiting for us In our Father's home above. But think of the sweet surprise. The sudden and strange delight. She felt as she met her Saviour's smile. And walked with Him in white. Weep not, for her toils are o'er. And thy race may soon be won. So with sanctified feet and staff in hand. Let thy work for thy Lord be done. So low was her Master's call. That it did not reach our ears. But she heard the sound and her quick response. Was full of joy—no fears. Weep not for her soft release. From earthly pain and care. Nor grieve that she reached her home and rest. E'er she knew that she was there. By Her Loving Children.
