BRIEFS

Helen Hare, of Baltimore, is spending this week in New York. Harry Starr, this city, spent several days in New York. Allen Sellers, East Green street, is dangerously ill at her home. William Clark, of Mt. Airy, moved to the farm of John Clark, at Monrovia. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Stoner and family, Bend street, spent Monday at Mt. Airy. Edward C. Shafer was re-elected mayor of Brunswick by a majority of 72-24. Mrs. W. Foss Mohr, of Baltimore, is spending some time with Mrs. Harry Starr, this city. The corn crop is going to be immense. Reports from over the county indicate to the above effect. Mrs. Elmer Rorer and two daughters, of Baltimore, are spending some time with relatives in this county. Fred Magin, Smallwood, has been released from the Westminister Forest & Monocacy Club. A Winfield Church will render a service at 8 o'clock, Sunday evening at 8 o'clock. Frank T. Butler is spending his vacation at the Monocacy River with the Westminister Forest & Monocacy Club. Mr. and Mrs. John Gahl, of Philadelphia, were guests of the latter's sister, Mrs. John Kieckle, Church street, last week. Mr. and Mrs. James Bair and family, of Baltimore, were week's end guests of his sister, Miss Blanche Bair, East Main street. Mr. and Mrs. Preston Pennington returned from their honeymoon in New York and are now at the home of Mrs. Pennington, on Park avenue. Atlee W. Wampler is excavating the rear of his store preparatory to adding a 60 foot addition to accommodate a large stock of furnishings. P. Iverson, Jr., of Baltimore, has his certificate of nomination for Congress on the Democratic ticket from the Supervisors of Election in Carroll County. Senator Millard E. Tydings, of Harford county, has filed with the Supervisors of Election for Carroll County, his certificate for the nomination for Congress in the Second Congressional District. Mrs. Ruth Zentz, of near this city, is recovering nicely at the Maryland General Hospital. Miss Zentz left her left hand in a corn shell about two weeks ago and her condition was very serious. Mr. Myers is making preparations to move his house back so as to have a lawn and porch to the front. The house is built of brick and is being undertaken by Baltimore contractor, Mr. Charles M. Mitten, son of Harry Mitten and grandson of Charles Mitten, near Reisterstown, loaded 32 bushels of wheat, oats, barley and then 40 loads of hay. Maurice is 14 years old. Who can beat that for a boy? The race track at Wolfe's Stock Farm near Mayberry, which has been abandoned for several years has been put in shape again and on Saturday, August 19, several races will be held on the track. All trotting or racing races. Gordon Powers, grandson of Mr. O. Elliott, of Baltimore, formerly of this city, fell from a platform at his home and fractured his left arm so badly that it was amputated at the elbow at a hospital in Baltimore, Saturday. The lad had the platform built in a tree and fell quite a distance to the ground. The bone was shattered too bad to save the arm. Governor Ritchie, elected president of the Maryland State held in Atlantic City last month, announced appointment of the standing committee, consisting of Port Guy W. Steele, of the education committee, and Mr. Neale Parke on the committee on legal biography. The first prize in the contest of an essay by high school students in Maryland-District of Columbia on the situation in the Near East Relief story has been won by Karl G. Pearson, 1110 N. Street, N. W., Washington, who wrote on Armenia. Mr. Pearson is now in the race for the nationwide prizes, the highest being all offered by Henry Morgenthau, U. S. Ambassador to Turkey. Pearson is 17 years old, he won gold medal last February given by Sons of the Revolution and the Sons of the American Revolution in an essay contest, has been elected editor of the Eastern High School paper, being in the senior class at that school, and was presented by the school with a silver medal in scholarship.

Miss Mary Essich, Pennsylvania avenue, is visiting friends in Baltimore. The new store front of T. W. Mather & Sons is being placed in position. Lightning during the thunder storm of July 31 killed four cows in various parts of Franklin district. Our jail is filling up with summer boarders. Sheriff Martin is entertaining 18 prisoners at this time. Miss Phyllis Cecil, of Baltimore, is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Essich, Pennsylvania avenue. The hat factory of M. S. Levy & Sons, at Aberdeen, is being dismantled and the machinery moved away. Isiah Demmitt, Union Bridge, after continued service of nearly ten years, has resigned his position with the Cement Plant. John Utz, aged 70 years, died July 28 at his home in Gettysburg, Pa. Mrs. Mary Nickley this city, is a sister of the deceased. Misses Catherine Haines and Emma Bemiller, Pennsylvania avenue, spent this week in Hanover visiting friends and relatives. Miss Grace Hofield, of Pleasant View Farm, was a week's end guest of her cousin, Miss Estelle Essig, Taneytown. Mr. and Mrs. W. Maurice Williams, of Washington, D. C., are guests of Mrs. Williams' parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. T. Yeiser, Pennsylvania avenue. Lightning struck in the house of Tom Haines, of Denning, tore off boards and knocked his son, Lawrence, down on the floor and frightened the family. Clinton B. Reed, of Pottsville, Pa., is selling coal at $1.50 a ton. He found that he had 15,000 tons at Tanqua. He wants to show the public that he is not a profiteer. Miss Beryl Summers has returned to the Sheppard and Enoch Pratt Hospital, Towson, after enjoying a three weeks' vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Summers, Warfieldsburg. Mrs. William Slorp, this city, who has been at the Woman's Hospital, Baltimore, for treatment for the past three weeks, was brought to her home Tuesday in a very much improved condition. James N. Dorsey, of Dorsey's Crossroads, this county, is at Johns Hopkins Hospital, Baltimore, to undergo an operation. His condition, while serious, is not alarming, according to attending physicians. The Conference of Bona-Fide Labor Organization of Baltimore met in executive session with representatives of the Socialist and Farmer-Labor parties to further map out a combined program of political activities in the coming elections. David M. Young purchased at Trustees Sale on Saturday last the David J. Roop farm containing 242 acres at $76.00 per acre, for the total sum of $18,492. This is one of the few farms that has a large timber tract of virgin timber. A test of the pumps of the Westminister Fire engine was given at Cranberry and found to be working to perfection. A stream was thrown from the bridge on the state road to the barn roof on the farm nearby, a distance of nearly 125 feet. Mrs. William Fritz, of Oak Orchard, a few weeks ago, had a terrible fright. She carried a copper snake of some good size in her clothes for some little time. She discovered something was wrong and while undressing the snake dropped from her body and ran behind the stove. Wholesale prices for hams have gone down 15 to 20 per cent. in the last 30 days and hams are relatively cheap compared with other foods, according to Edward Morris, president of Morris & Co., Chicago. Has the drop reached Westminister? Ask the meat market owners. Captain Weigle is looking for the advance agent of Geo. D. Iverson, wet candidate for Congress, who placed the placards on the electric light poles in this city Saturday night. Chief Justice Hutchins would possibly entertain him if caught and will long remember his visit. A movement is on foot among the merchants and business men of Union Bridge to employ a night watchman regularly to patrol the business section. It is proposed to raise a part of the cost through subscriptions to the town to be asked to provide the balance. Already about $100 has been pledged by the merchants and others. Part of the State road from Union Bridge to New Windsor has been opened for traffic by Thomas, Bennett & Hunter. The people living along the route are all smiles. Why shouldn't they be? Haven't they been exiled every winter when the roads were hazy deep with nice soft and smooth mud? Four persons escaped injury when the five-passenger touring car in which they were riding, skidded on the slippery road about a mile west of Ridgeville, struck a telephone pole and then overturned. The occupants of the car, Mr. and Mrs. George J. Schram and two children, were returning to their home in Cumberland when the accident occurred. The car was demolished. Eldridge (Bud) King, 63 years old, former watchman at the Gwynnbrook Distillery, who several months ago, following the murder of a guard there by bandits, held up Lieutenant Dorsey of the county police, believing him to be a highwayman, was found dead Thursday of last week, lying on the Reisterstown Road with a bullet wound in his head. Nearby lay a pistol with an exploded cartridge in the chamber.

Typhoon in China killed 10,000 persons August 3. Mr. J. Albert Zepp, of Melrose, was in this city on business Wednesday. Mr. John Galt, of Washington, visited his mother, Mrs. John Galt, Park avenue. Miss Helen Miller, this city, spent the week visiting friends in Washington, D. C. The Automobile Club of Maryland is placing camping sites in various parts of Maryland. Miss Ethel Ortell, of Govans, spent the week's end with Miss Mildred K. Eckenrode, this city. Mr. Louis Logue and Mr. Harry Yingling, of Baltimore, spent Sunday with relatives in this city. Mr. Harry V. Uhler, of Woodensburg, spent the week's end with Mr. Harry Bond, Pennsylvania avenue. Misses Miriam Hull and Ethel Marker are attending the Lutheran Summer Assembly, at Gettysburg, this week. Mr. Raymond Myers, East Main street, was a Sunday guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Milton O. Myers, Pen Mar. Mr. Harry Miller, Madison avenue, is spending the week in Waynesboro, Pa., visiting his sister, Mrs. Charles Wareheim. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Holthouse, of Baltimore, spent the week's end with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Tanney, East Main street. Mr. and Mrs. Lester Armacost, of Norfolk, Va., are visitors to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Armacost, Chase street. Mr. and Mrs. Preston Holmes, and family, of Cumberland, are spending their vacation with Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lockard, near this city. Mr. Clinton Smith, of Baltimore, spent Sunday with his family who are spending some time with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Berwager, Pennsylvania avenue. Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Zahn, of Washington, who were week's end guests of Mr. Zahn's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John T. Zahn, East Main street, returned home Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. John Truss and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hertline, of Baltimore, were Sunday visitors at Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Crowl's, Center street. The Blue Mountain Express was four hours late Monday morning on its trip to Baltimore. The same old story, the engine broke down. Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Brown and family and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mackley and daughter, East Main street, are camping on the Monocacy River, near Brunswick. Two tomatoes weighing nearly 3 pounds were left at this office Monday by Mr. Charles Tanney, East Main street. They were almost perfect and having a healthy appearance. Mr. Calvin Long, of Baltimore, brokenman on the W. M. R. R., is recuperating from injuries received when he fell from a car to the ground. He was drawing a brake when the chain gave away. Flowers will tell the secret of pride and humility at the flower chain meeting of the Young People's Society at Kridler's Reformed Church, Sunday, August 13th, at 7:30 p. m. You'll be as welcome as the flowers. A positive promise that on August 15 he will be able to walk for the first time in 29 years was the joyful news that Frederick W. Birge, a 53-year-old Middlebury, Vt., farmer, heard at the hospital for the ruptured and crippled. John Everhart, 35, a coal miner, was killed at Sullivan, Ind., Monday, when he stepped on the starter of his automobile and an explosion and fire followed. Elmer Hale, 39, also a miner, is being held in connection with Everhart's death. Westminister and Mechanicsville Base Ball teams initiated the great National game last Saturday on the College grounds. Both sides had on their batting clothes, making many hits and runs. Mechanicsville started out with a six run lead but made only one after that. Mr. Noah Fowler, Pennsylvania avenue, is suffering from a badly bruised back. He was covering a cess pool in the yard of William Sharrer, Center street, when he fell into it, injuring himself. Mr. Fowler is 89 years old and is more active than half of the young men at 21. In a Wyoming coal mine there is an electrical mine locomotive that is still going strong after 27 years. It has hauled 3,712,500 tons of coal an average of 1.5 miles. Many a mule has gone to a quiet grave in that period, for mules may come and mules may go, but an electric locomotive goes all the time. Mr. James L. Stoner, of Baltimore, who was spending some time with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James M. Stoner, Pennsylvania avenue, has returned. Mr. Stoner is a B. & O. R. R. detective and received an injury on his right hand by a bunch of rowdies that he was ordering to leave the premises and was here while recuperating. He was called to duty by the railroad. Alexander H. McCormick, of Washington, assistant to the solicitor of the Navy and attorney in the Department of Justice announces that he has resumed the practice of law in association with Horace S. Whitman and H. Rozier Dulany, Jr., and will practice before the Government Departments, the court of claims and the Federal and local courts of Maryland and the District of Columbia. Mr. McCormick practiced law in this city with the late John Milton Reifsnider for several years.

Mr. and Mrs. Jonas Lipby, and daughter, Mary, and son, Curvin, of Melrose, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Otto Myers. Mr. Russell Armacost, of Philadelphia, is a guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Armacost, Chase street. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Miller, East Green street, have returned after several weeks' vacation at Edward Nall's near Denning. Misses Eugenie and Loretta des Garennes, this city, are spending two weeks' vacation at Point Pleasant, N. J., visiting their uncle, Louis P. des Garennes, of Philadelphia, Pa. Mr. Philip Mobley and friend, Miss Irene Starnor, of Hanover, Pa., spent Saturday and Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mobley, this city. Deer Park Methodist Protestant Sunday school will hold its annual picnic on August 25. If the weather is unfavorable it will be held on the following Monday or the first fair day. A band of music will be present. Everybody welcome. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph G. Petry and daughter, Hattie, entertained Sunday August 6, the following: Mr. and Mrs. Uriah Sterner, J. Malcom Sterner and wife and son, John, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Denton Petry, of Hanover; Mr. and Mrs. Jacob D. Petry and Mr. and Mrs. Samuel J. Cratin and children, Catharine and Willard, of Silver Run. St. Benjamin's Lutheran Sunday school picnic will be held in J. D. Kaufman's wood, August 12, afternoon and evening. Music by the Pleasant Valley Band. Speeches and other amusements. Everybody welcome. Sandwiches and hot coffee, home made candies. Refreshments of all kinds to supply your wants. Do not forget the fancy table. David Young, Harold and Ralph Myers and Roger Brown, this city, are camping at Frostburg this week. The trip was made by automobile and they are sleeping in tents long enough to leave their feet out one end and their heads the other, just enough exposed to entertain mosquitoes. David Young is head chef with Roger head waiter. Dave fed the cows on a farm and knows how to mix feed to eat.
