27 REPUBLICANS WILL NOT RETURN TO HOUSE

MANY OF THESE INCLUDE MAJORITY LEADERS WHO WERE REPUDIATED BY VOTERS— "WORST IS YET TO COME."—ONE PARTY HEAD HINKS G. O. P. ADVANTAGE OF 175 MAY DROP TO 40.

Washington, D. C., Aug. 6.—Twenty-seven Republicans, most of them mainstays of the "Old Guard," and included in the designation, "the house leaders," will quit Congress with the expiration of their present terms next March 4.

This is the toll of primaries, and resignation since the campaign opened, and it is only the beginning, as but 15 States have held their primaries; nor does it take into account changes to be effected in the election itself.

The Republicans now have a majority of about 175. One leader, in close touch with the Congressional situation, is authority for the statement that he will be surprised if they have a majority in the next Congress of 40. Varying estimates indicate there will be from 150 to 200 new faces in the chamber when the next Congress is trapped to order.

The Democrats count on gains in Illinois, Indiana, Ohio, Kansas, Missouri, Nebraska, Montana, California, Tennessee, West Virginia, New York and Massachusetts.

If the Republicans are returned, even with greatly reduced majorities, radical changes may be looked for in the organization through demands of the progressive wing in coalition with the Democrats.

Old Guard and Progressive Republicans, who kept James R. Mann, of Illinois, from being Speaker three years ago would welcome an opportunity to vote for him to succeed Speaker Gillett.

The floor leadership must be filled, as Representative Mondell, Republican, Wyoming, will go either to the Senate or retire. Representative Longworth, Republican, Ohio; Representative Wood, Republican, Indiana, and Representative Sanders, Republican, Indiana, are being considered for the place.

A revision of the rules is being agitated to make "kags" of the House impossible. A group of Progressives wants to make it possible for legislation to be amended in the House instead of only in committees behind closed doors. They also hope it may be possible to outline a definite program at the beginning of Congress to avoid floundering and back-stepping of the sort that has characterized recent sessions.

Here at a glance is the list of the Republicans to drop out when their terms end, in addition to those already named:

"Uncle Joe" Cannon, Illinois, of the Appropriations Committee, oldest member of Congress for 23 terms, or 46 years, who wants to give a younger man a chance.

William A. Rodenberg, Illinois of the Rules Committee, 10 terms, or 20 years, who retired because he thought that long enough.

C. Bascom Slemp, Virginia, of the Appropriations Committee, National Committeeman and Representative for 16 years and who declined renomination.

Benjamin K. Focht, Pennsylvania, chairman of District of Columbia Committee, member 14 years, defeated for renomination.

Ira C. Copley, of Illinois Ways and Means Committee, member 12 years, defeated for renomination.

Frank L. Greene, Vermont, of Military Affairs Committee and Steering Committee, who retires to run for Senate after 12 years.

Simon D. Fess, Ohio, of Education Committee, chairman of Republican Congressional Campaign Committee, who retires after 10 years.

Patrick H. Kelly, Michigan, of Appropriations Committee, who retires 10 years to run for Senate.

C. Frank Reavis, Nebraska, of Judiciary Committee, eight years, who retired to help Attorney General Daugherty prosecute war contract cases.

Burton E. Sweet, Iowa, eight years, who retired to run for the Senate.

Joseph Walsh, Massachusetts, Judiciary Committee, who retires to accept a Judgeship after eight years.

Clifford Ireland, Illinois, Committee on Accounts, six years, defeated for renomination.

Anderson H. Waters, Pennsylvania, six years, defeated for renomination.

Others were: Dunbar, Indiana, who declined to run; Connell, Pennsylvania, defeated for renomination; Reber, Pennsylvania, not a candidate; Jones, Pennsylvania, defeated for renomination; Jefferis, Nebraska, defeated for renomination; Ogden, Kentucky, not a candidate; Brennan, Michigan, not a candidate; McPherson, Missouri, defeated for renomination; Riddick, Montana, candidate for Senate; Herrick, Oklahoma, defeated for renomination.

Since the House adjourned death has claimed two members, Padgett, Democrat, Tennessee, a member 22 years, and Kinkaid, Republican, Nebraska, a member for 20 years.

BAD MAN IN PANTS ONLY A WEAK GIRL

Philadelphia.—"Cherchez la femme," say the French when a good man goes wrong.

She was not far to seek in the case of John McConnell, swimmer of the Delaware, teamster, truck driver and gangster; "Battling Kid" McConnell in the ring; "Jack" McConnell the trapeze artist; "Don Juan" McConnell to the girls.

In fact she was so close that she and John McConnell are one and the same person, known in still another social world as Miss Florence Gray, granddaughter of James Gray, member of the New York and Virginia clothing when she was studying gasoline motors, and two years ago, she got a job as teamster and truck driver with the Vane Brothers, contractors and political bosses of this city. Soon she was a leader of the "iron gang," whose members knew she packed a nasty right. And it was not very long before she was engaged to marry three other girls.

But the end came at last. Charley Weaver, who had been licked once in fair fight by "Battling Kid" McConnell, found out who Florence Gray was. She went back to dresses, and seemed to have forgotten her punch. For when she met Weaver a second time, he broke her nose and knocked her out.

A "Battling Kid" McConnell in skirts was something new to the police, so they arrested Weaver. Her grandfather, Mr. Gray, told the whole story in court.

NEW TEACHER FOR UNIVERSITY OF MARYLAND.

College Park, Aug. 24.—F. J. Doan, graduate of Pennsylvania State College, and Roy Ingham, a graduate of the University of Nebraska, have arrived here to become associated with the teaching staff of the Department of Dairy Husbandry at the University of Maryland.

Mr. Doan, who has been employed in numerous capacities by commercial dairy enterprises in New York and Wisconsin, will devote his time particularly to instruction in advanced registry and Babcock testing work and to special lines of research. Mr. Ingham will conduct courses for students of the Veterans' Bureau, specializing in herd management and dairy machinery operation.

The additions to the teaching staff of the Department of Dairy Husbandry are in line with the recently announced policy of President A. F. Woods to place this branch of University work on a footing with the importance of the dairy industry in the State, and are preliminary to the erection of a dairy manufacturing building for which funds have been appropriated.

WOMEN WETTER THAN MEN

New York, Aug. 7.—Women voters are wetter than the men, the poll of the Literary Digest on prohibition showed today. Women's votes tabulated to July 21 showed the following totals: For strict enforcement, 7363; for modification, 8575; for repeal, 5525. Women favored the soldiers' bonus by a vote of 11,567 to 9879. Summary of 708,805 ballots, men and women combined, gave these results: For strict enforcement, 271,954; modification, 290,172; for repeal, 146,679. On the soldiers' bonus question, 356,167 voted "no" and 344,792 "yes."

LETTER OF APPRECIATION.

Editor, Democratic Advocate, Westminster, Md.

Dear Sir: Your cooperation in obtaining candidates for the Citizens' Military Training Camp in the Third Corps Area is highly appreciated. The success of the camps this summer will be due in a large measure to the efforts of patriotic citizens who during the past few months have actively aided us in securing desirable applicants for the camps held in this Corps Area.

Permit me to thank you for your kindness and assistance in interesting applicants, as well as for devoting your time to the furtherance of the work. It is sincerely hoped that upon the termination of the camps, you will find that the young men of your locality will return to their homes much benefited by their training experience.

Very truly yours,
C. J. BAILEY,
Major General, Commanding.

JOHNSVILLE COLORED PEOPLE THIRTY.

Less than a mile north of Freedom is situated the village of Johnsville, inhabited entirely by colored people, who may be truly said to be the very elite of the colored race. A majority of them own their homes, free from encumbrance. Several of them own farms and are fairly good farmers. They own horses, cattle, autos and other vehicles of almost every description. Some of the best farmhands in the county of Carroll, reside in Johnsville, and whenever a farmer in the immediate vicinity is short of help he knows where to go to procure it.

They have recently completed a very nice church. They have a good schoolhouse and a very large school. The majority of the inhabitants are fairly well educated. Among the leading names of the village may be mentioned: Collins, Dorsey, Gosnell and Talbot.

The inhabitants of Johnsville are veritably typical of all that is best in the colored race.

They have but one notable weakness. They will vote the Republican ticket.

BASE BALL

At New Windsor Saturday our local team suffered a defeat from New York by the score of 6 to 2. On Wednesday afternoon the American Chain team, from York, came to this city and went home with a 10 to 4 victory over the home team. The game was exciting up until the eighth frame. Duncan pitched and Arnold was at the receiving end.

"Phil" Myers, the crack center fielder, of the Westminster team has severed his connection with them to fill a position on the Taneytown team. Ours is Taneytown's gain. He knows the game and can play it.

The game and was defeated at Union Bridge Wednesday by the close score of 4 to 3. A large crowd was present to witness the game. These are rival teams for the championship of the county with both teams about even on games played.

Comany H won from Pleasant Valley, on the latter's field on Sunday afternoon by the score of 13 to 3.

WOMAN WOULD BUY ANOTHER'S HUSBAND FOR $100 A MONTH.

San Francisco, Cal., Aug. 22.—An offer by Mrs. Edith Huntington Spreckels Wakefield, first wife of the late "Jack" Spreckels, California millionaire, and herself prominent in San Francisco society, to "buy another woman's husband from her for $100 a month for the rest of her life" came to light here today, and is admitted by all persons involved.

The husband whom Mrs. Wakefield is credited with having offered to "buy" is Rodney Kendrick, a newspaper artist. The wife, who is ill and admits she is "considering" the offer, said she already had given her wedding ring to Mrs. Wakefield. Mrs. Wakefield said she, too, planned a divorce.

A statement from Mrs. Wakefield said: "It was a long time ago I told Mrs. Kendrick that I loved her husband and wanted to marry him. I promised her she would have a home with Rodney and myself as long as she lived. She is a very sick girl and I took care of her for weeks. A hundred times she told me how grateful she was in the presence of her husband and his mother and sister. When we left her I put $600 in the bank for her to draw on."

The wife said: "Mrs. Wakefield wrote me a letter five or six weeks ago when I was in a sanitarium, asking me to come to her home in Sausalito. I had met her a year ago, and I thought her motive was one of kindness and friendship. Soon after I arrived she told me that she was in love with my husband and that he was in love with her. She said she would give me $100 a month for life and would see that my baby was well taken care of if I would divorce Rodney so that she might marry him as soon as she secured a divorce from Mr. Wakefield. Ten days ago she and my husband both told me that it was a bargain, and they left in her car for a camping trip in the Lake Tahoe district."

The husband said: "Long before this episode, my wife told me she did not love me any longer and intended to secure a divorce. She had been ill with tuberculosis and for some time with a pa-

NEGRO BUYS AUTO THAT LED TO ADAMS MURDER.

The Frederick News says: Public sale of the personal effects of William A. Stultz, who is awaiting trial for murder, was held Saturday on the premises, on West Fourth street, at 10 o'clock.

The machine of Stultz, which was levied upon and which was the direct cause of the killing of Police man John Adams, was bought by Alexander Bowie, colored, who paid $53.50 for the car.

Bidding on the personal effects and household goods of Stultz was lively and rather spirited, according to reports.

TIN LIZZIE'S TRIUMPH

Burlington, N. J., Aug. 21.—Burlington flivvers have again demonstrated that they can take care of themselves on the numerous grade crossings here. On Broad street, where the Pennsylvania Railroad tracks are at a grade, a flivver driver stopped to repair a puncture. He failed to notice that he was too close to the tracks until the "Nelly Bly" Atlantic City express thundered along and then it was too late to move.

The flivver was bumped into the middle of the street, but suffered only a dented mudguard. Not so fortunate was the giant locomotive. The crash broke a connecting rod and delayed the express nearly a half-hour.

Near the same spot a year ago a "Nelly Bly" locomotive was badly damaged, when it tried to push a stalled flivver off the track.

Chairman Lasker seems to think Noah made a mistake when he took the camel aboard the ark.—Greenville Piedmont.
