BETTING ODDS 2 TO 1 ON BRUCE.

The Senatorial betting odds, as quoted, are 2 to 1 on Bruce, with no money to take the short end of the wager, says the Baltimore Republican.
According to a stakeholder who has been entering with several thousands of dollars to place in whole or in part on Bruce, a France backer was willing to take $300 of this money at the 2 to 1 price. The France supporter disappeared to get his funds and at last accounts he had not returned.

NEW HOSPITAL PLANNED.

At a meeting Wednesday, attended by Governor Ritchie, in the office of State Treasurer John M. Dennis, the board of directors of the Springfield State Hospital at Sykesville discussed plans for a new building, which would provide accommodations for 200 epileptic patients. The plans are now being submitted to the State Lunacy Commission.
In the $1,500,000 construction loan passed by the last session of the Legislature, $200,000 was provided for the Springfield project.

PLACED STONES ON RAILROAD TRACK

Orville Greenholtz, 11, of Keymar, was arrested by Detective John E. Lang, of the Western Maryland Railroad, last week, on the charge of placing stones on the railroad track. Greenholtz was brought to this city and given a hearing before Justice Hurlburt and was found guilty. Being only a boy he was sent to the Maryland Training School until he attains his majority.

A new display window of the latest design is being placed in the front of Sharrer, Gorsuch & Starr, furniture store. Chas. B. Hunter is the contractor. The stone work was dressed up by Joseph L. Mathias, force with a drilling machine.

THE MESSRS. LITTLE ENTERTAIN.

C. Edward Little, father and brother entertained the following guests at their home in Bachman's Valley: On the evening of October 19, Mr. and Mrs. Howard E. Coppensmith, Mrs. and Mrs. Joseph Scott Fears and son, Clark, one of Westminster. Both vocal and instrumental music on the piano was enjoyed by all.

On Sunday, October 22, quite a pleasant day was spent, the guests being Mr. and Mrs. Jonas B. Burner and daughter, Virginia, Miss Gladys Carr, Mr. John H. Frock, all of Mt. Pleasant; Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Frizzell, of Salem; accompanied by Mrs. Catherine McQuam and son, Leonard, of Humberland, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Carr, of Westminster; and Mr. Melvin E. Kroh, of Bachman's Valley. In the evening the guests were Mr. and Mrs. John T. Yingling and son, Roland, Mr. and Mrs. Jeremiah O. Jones, Miss Lydia A. Yingling, of Bachman's Valley; Miss Helen Everhart, Miss Marjorie Stultz, Mr. Carroll J. Myers, Mr. Charles Everhart, of Westminster. Both vocal and instrumental music on piano, accompanied by the Messrs. John T. Yingling with mouth harp and Carroll J. Myers with violin. Quite a pleasant time was spent and the time for departure always comes too soon.

SMOTHERS FIRE WITH COAT.

A conflagration that possibly would have caused a loss of eight or ten thousand dollars worth of property was averted by Mr. Paul E. Hoover, of Edin, one day last week.
The story may seem fishy but nevertheless true. Mr. Hoover had a set of hands thrashing for him with the separator in the barn. As he was packing straw on one side of the stack he saw five on the opposite side cornering a spot of 15 or 18 inches in diameter. With the eye of a hawk and the swiftness of an eagle he dissolved himself of his coat and threw it over the fire extinguishing it entirely, thus saving his grain and other property from destruction. The occasion was witnessed by several of his hands. We take off our hats to Paul for his alertness.

OPEN TO THE STATE.

The Market Bureau of the Maryland State Poultry Association has announced that it will open its cooperative egg marketing operations to the entire state of Maryland. The form of permanent organization, which this movement will take will not be decided until the membership is representative of the different sections. Manager Kemp has announced that through the liberality of the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad a special meeting car has been placed at the disposal of the Market Bureau for organization purposes and this car will be taken from one end of the state to the other under a schedule which is now being arranged.
A temporary contract has already been made with the New Jersey Poultry Producers Association in New York City and 100 cases of eggs were marketed through this outlet this week. The call for the guaranteed product in the Baltimore market can by no means be met and the United States guaranteeing it means 5 cents above the Baltimore quotations for all eggs delivered to the Westminster Temporary Pool of Farm Eggs.

WRECKED HOME, IS CHARGE AGAINST HIM

Just why a man should wreck his home upon a house instead of seeking personal satisfaction at the hands of his enemy is a mystery to Frederick county officials and will likely remain such until J. P. Bowers of New Windsor, gives some enlightening testimony.
Bowers was arrested Monday afternoon by Deputy Sheriff Charles W. Smith and is in jail awaiting a hearing. Bowers is alleged to have wrecked the home of G. E. Magaha at Clearsville on October 10. It is presumed that Bowers bore some ancient grudge against Magaha and went to the latter's home to get "satisfaction." He might have left the premises satisfied but he had hard work. It is said that he broke nearly all of the windows in the house, tearing out the sash in most cases and then tore away the front porch steps. Only meager details of the affair could be had, but Bowers does not deny wrecking the Magaha home. It was said that Bowers moved from Clearsville to New Windsor and up until October 25 nothing was done in the matter. Last Wednesday Magaha came to Frederick and had a warrant sworn out for Bowers' arrest and Sunday he was taken into custody.

MR. WHITMORE BADLY INJURED BY AUTO.

Emanuel D. Whitmore, Pennsylvania avenue, was struck and badly injured by an automobile Saturday evening about 6:30 o'clock. Mr. Whitmore was on his way home and at the junction of Main street and Pennsylvania avenue, an automobile going west, came along and struck him, carrying him along for about 20 feet. He was picked up and taken to his home, where an examination showed that he received several broken ribs, scalp wound and punctured lung. He is in a critical condition.

A GOOD HOUSE FRIDAY NIGHT SAW THE FINAL SHOW OF 'SPRINGTIME' AT THE OPERA HOUSE.

The affair was a success and the committee and casts are to be congratulated who made it so.

CARROLL'S LOW TAXES

ONLY TWO COUNTIES IN STATE HAVE LOWER

The new assessment of county property, which has been in progress all over the state, except in Prince George's county, is near completion. The State Tax Commission is now waiting for figures from three counties in which the assessments have been completed, but which have not been tabulated.

Despite the fact that the assessments as a whole have not yet been officially approved by the commission, reports coming from various parts of the state indicate that there will be the usual number of complaints and appeals.
The commission is expecting the assessment from Baltimore, Harford and Carroll counties within the next week or so. The appraisals have been fixed, but they are in the hands of county commissioners and have not been tabulated. They are to be tabulated for comparison with the old assessments before they are submitted to the commission.

It is expected that the new appraisals will show increases all over the state. In fact, many property owners who have already learned their assessments from the district assessors have made complaints about the increase. The complaints will not be taken up formally until the Tax Commission has been formally notified and hearings are arranged.
Some counties were slow starting the assessment. Some of these delays were due to fights on assessors. This occurred in Wicomico and Howard counties.

Officials of the Tax Commission find it impossible at present to predict the result of the new assessments. If the rates run true for them there will be increases in nearly every county. The 1922 rates for the counties show increases in every county over the rate of 1916, and in many instances increases over the rates of 1921. The Carroll county rate has jumped from $1.38 to $2.65 in six years. Somerset's rate jumped from $1.25 to $2.15.

The rates for the three years, 1916, 1921 and 1922, follow:

Counties	1922	1921	1916
Allegany	$1.45	$1.37	$1.00

A CORRECTION.

The Democratic Advocate, Nov. 1, 1922.

My dear Sir:—
My attention has been called to a statement made by your correspondent from this community in last week's paper. The statement was as follows:

"Rev. E. O. Pritchett has closed his Sunday night preaching service in St. Paul's Methodist Episcopal Church. This is the first time the church has been without this service since it was built."

This is a false statement made with a malicious intent, and evidently made by one whose reputation for correct statement is not regarded by those who stand for the best in this community.

The Official Board of our church on my recommendation agreed that we would change the form of the evening service and use our young people more, but not close the revival. This is only temporary. I will be absent only two Sunday evenings, while I am holding special meetings at Gaithersburg.

E. O. PRITCHETT.
Medford Grange will hold a meeting in the Grange Hall, on Friday, November 7. A full attendance is requested.

PASSING AWAY OF ELIAS O. GRIMES, SR.

I am unwilling not to say a brief word on the life and character of the late Elias O. Grimes, Sr., of this city. He was not living in the county, when I first came to it, to make a home among its people. Though born in the western or upper section of the county, he had then married into the prominent Hammond family of Howard and Frederick counties and removed to the city of St. Louis, Missouri, and was then a citizen and resident of that city. The loss of several children there, however, determined him to return to his native county and state; and hence 1858 found him and his wife back, living in Westminster as their new home. And both husband and wife continued to live in the city of their adoption, to the end of their lives, the former living into the eighties and dying the early part of the summer of the present year.

Mr. Grimes was a fine looking, well-built man, he had about five feet and eight or nine inches, with a deliberate and dignified carriage. His countenance was open, reflecting decency, comeliness and sincerity. Any one meeting him for the first time, became instantly impressed with his poise, firm character, honesty and graciousness of deportment. Modesty, restraint of manners and consideration for others were his uniform characteristics during life. With these qualities and appearances he soon acquired in his new home the complete confidence of the community and early built up for himself a large business and considerable wealth. For a great number of years, he was regarded as one of the leading citizens of the town in many and various enterprises. He readily and liberally lent his aid and purse to all public movements, including charities of different sorts. His church relations were always active and liberal and continued to the end of his life. In the matter of education he was deeply and actively interested, and held for number of years the position of trustee of the Western Maryland College; and also the more onerous position of President of the School Board of Carroll County, entailing much labor which was faithfully performed.

Passing a life long in years and marked by great activities of various sorts, he at all times, maintained what is best of all, an unblemished life; and the good will of his neighbors and friends. Though he lost towards the end of his life and his fortune, yet he kept to the end a clear head, sound courageous heart and the resolution to work day by day and every day, for his own maintenance to the very end.

Rare indeed, are found men of today with the qualities he so uniformly displayed through life; and rarer still a man in old age, after his discouragements and loss of fortune, to unflinchingly resolve to depend upon his own labors and not those of others for support and maintenance to the close of life.

JAS. A. C. BOND.

ATTENTION.

The program and plan for the great Sunday event in Carroll County is ready and if Providence smiles upon us with a fair day and each and every one of you come, it will be the greatest Sunday in the history of Carroll county thus far.

The two Methodist Churches in the center of town and on the Main street will have open doors to receive you and committees of ladies will be there to make you comfortable.

Dr. James J. Coals, Executive Secretary for the Presbyterian churches of Baltimore city, will deliver the address in Centenary M. E. Church. Dr. Coals comes to us recommended as a great speaker with a great message. Dr. Chalmers W. Wake of St. Paul's Reformed Church, Westminster, will address the meeting in the Methodist Protestant Church. Dr. Wake needs no recommendation to Westminster. His work and message for the past year in our community speaks for him.

The meetings will begin promptly at 3 p. m., with a service of song. Misses Anna Shriver and Mary Snader, organists.

The Halloween prankers upset a monument and stole the electric bulbs from the lights on the marble yards of Joseph L. Mathias, East Main street, Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Clarence Long and family, of Croagerstown, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Claude Ryland, Carroll street.

BIG MEETING.

VOTERS HEAR GOV. RITCHIE, MR. BRUCE AND COL. TYDINGS MAKE GOOD AD-DRESSES.

Carroll County Democrats held their first and only public mass meeting of the campaign in the Armory on last Friday evening when Governor Albert C. Ritchie, William Cabell Bruce, and Millard Tydings, candidates for the United States Senate and House of Representatives made addresses.

The size of the gathering was a surprise in view of the fact that entertainments were given at the Opera House and Western Maryland College. Mr. Joseph B. Boye presided.
Mr. Bruce declared that the clearest issue between him and his Republican opponent, Senator France, was one of conservatism against radicalism and stated that there was no good reason for him at this time to discuss party policies. He spoke at length on Senator France's Russian attitude and expressed his hearty for his stand on public questions, and for the impracticality all of which he asserted, are impossible of accomplishment.

He declared that Senator France's only chance of election is in his ability to corral the foreign and radical voters of Baltimore city.

Mr. Bruce stated that he had visited every county of the State but one, and that everywhere he had received assurances of the support of conservative and patriotic Republicans.

The Westminster Band and orchestra rendered the music during the evening.
After the meeting a reception was held and nearly every person at the meeting was given a hearty hand shake by Gov. Ritchie, Mr. Bruce and Col. Tydings.
Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served. During Col. Tyding's address he spoke of being in the Company with 200 Carroll county boys in France and fought with them in every battle.

MR. STULTZ GRANTED A REPRIEVE OF ONE WEEK.

An eleventh-hour reprieve has been granted to William A. Stultz, convicted murderer of Frederick, by Governor Ritchie. The reprieve is for one week. It was granted last night, following by a few hours a refusal of the Governor to commute the death sentence of Stultz to life imprisonment.

The ground for the reprieve is that Stultz's attorneys have filed a motion for a new trial with the Circuit Court for Montgomery county, declaring that errors in the ruling of the court have been discovered as well as new evidence.

The Governor spent a considerable part of yesterday afternoon listening to an appeal in behalf of the condemned man. Those who appeared before the Governor were former Senator George L. Kaufman and Mrs. Kaufman, Frederick; E. O. Wiant, Westminster; J. D. English, Frederick; William Wooden, R. B. Stultz, G. Felemer and James Stultz of Arlington. Jesse Stultz of Westminster and Sherman P. Bowers, of Frederick. A petition containing 600 names was also presented to the Governor.

Mr. Claude Ryland, Carroll street, who is confined to his home with a fractured left leg, was taken to Baltimore Tuesday to a specialist. An X-ray was taken of the injury and found to be healing.

This is to notify those who are interested in the Fall Sewing Course that Mrs. Guy Nussbaum will have a class at her home, 178 Pennsylvania avenue, beginning with Tuesday, November 7, morning and afternoon classes. Also Wednesday night class at the County Agents office. Bring with you one yard of white long-cloth and Butterick pattern No. 3899.

Those spending Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Stem, of Bachman's Valley, were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Keefer, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Stem, Mrs. Annie Doyle, Misses Hazel Doyle, Bertie Grace and Lillian Stem Messrs. Guy Stem, Marshall Carr, William Barnes, Bernard Doyle, Ralph Leese, Truman Stem, Chester Doyle, Paul Kroh, Harry Goodwin, Millard Doyle, Lorraine Stem, Lee Bex, Howard Carr and others.

Yesterday Misses Madeline and Marian Shriver and their brother, James M. Shriver, of Union Mills, and their cousin, Robert J. Myers, of Pikesville, Md., left home for New York, from which port they will sail on the 4th of November on the steamer Cedric, for an extended trip to Europe. The two gentlemen of the party will return home about the first of the new year, but the ladies will remain on the other side until the spring of 1923, spending the winter in Italy and southern France.

On Tuesday, Mrs. Mary Stonesifer, of Union Mills, sold her dwelling house and personal property at public sale. The dwelling brought $1400 and was bought by Mrs. E. Roy Kindig. Mrs. Stonesifer has gone to live with Mr. and Mrs. Conrad D. Rusher, of Kingsdale, Pa. Mrs. Rusher, who was Miss Lillie Lookinbill, when a child, lived for many years with Mrs. Stonesifer and her husband, the late Edward Stonesifer.
