

Endorsed at Home

Such Proof as This Should Convince Any Westminster Citizen.

The public endorsement of a local citizen is the best proof that can be produced. None better, none stronger can be had. When a man comes forward and testifies to his fellow-citizens, addresses his friends and neighbors, you may be sure he is thoroughly convinced or he would not do so. Telling one's experience when it is for the public good is an act of kindness that should be appreciated. The following statement given by a resident of Westminster adds one more to the many cases of Home Endorsement which are being published about Doan's Kidney Pills. Read it.

E. L. Hollenbaugh, 6 Pennsylvania Ave., says: Due to the exposure at my work I had kidney trouble. I was in such bad shape I couldn't bend. The kidney secretions at times were scanty and then profuse, disturbing my rest at night. I was so bad with kidney trouble that at times I couldn't move. Altogether I used about two boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills procured at the Shaw Drug Co., and they gave me wonderful relief.

Priest Go, at a dealer, don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Hollenbaugh had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

40 YEARS IN PRISON FOR MAN WHO KIDNAPPED GIRL

MIND OF 11-YEAR-OLD SWIMMING STAR MAY BE PERMANENTLY AFFECTED.

Muskegon, Mich., Nov. 2. Amid the cheers of hundreds of angry citizens crowded into and surrounding the Circuit Court chamber here today, Raymond E. Wilson, confessed abductor of 11-year-old Rosaline Shantzy, was sentenced to imprisonment at Marquette for 40 years. The Court expressed the regret a life term could not be imposed.

Thirty minutes later Wilson was on his way to prison, heavily guarded by deputy sheriffs, who feared through out the day that they might be unable to cope with the crowds that followed the proceedings and at times became threatening.

The kidnapper disposed of within 12 hours after his arrest, Muskegon tonight turned to the relief of the child, who was reported slowly recovering from mistreatment and exposure at a farmhouse near Dublin, Manistee county.

The best medical attention obtainable was provided for Rosalie, and it was believed she could be brought to hospital here in several days. It may be months, however, the physicians said before she regains normal mental state.

Advises from Dublin, in Manistee county, nearly 100 miles north of here where the child was found wandering in the swamp country, stated that she was still in a highly nervous condition, but probably could be removed to her home shortly. According to Dr. Earl Fairbanks, who is attending her, it will be several days, however, before she will be able to relate her experiences. It is possible, Dr. Fairbanks added, that her mind may be permanently affected.

No effort was made today to have the little girl tell the story of her two days' wandering through the forest after she was released by her abductor, but in her delirium some idea of her experience was given.

"I remember when he pushed me into the automobile, and I remembered him," Rosalie said with a shudder. "We rode and rode, and then And her mind wandered again. Later she said:

"I am afraid my mamma will scold me. I wonder where that dolly I was working is. I hope mother put it away."

Once she spoke of being forced to enter a vacant house in the woods. It was only by chance that the child was found alive, the forest in which she was lost being one of the wildest spots in lower Michigan, with few farms and roads—only vast stretches of jack pine, heavy underbrush and swamp lands. A farmer found her in this wilderness as he was looking for live stock that had gone astray.

The child had lost most of her clothing and the tattered remnants that remained were wet, Rosalie having fallen into a creek in her wanderings through the brush, which had scratched and bruised her body.

Wilson, quailing before the crowds was arraigned early today, waived examination and was immediately taken before Judge Vanderwerf, of Circuit Court. He pleaded guilty and the Judge accepted the plea after brief questioning, then adjourned the case until the afternoon, when sentence was pronounced.

In sentencing the prisoner, the Court explained that the delay was to permit him to study the case in the hope that some way might be found to impose a heavier penalty. Forty years, the maximum, was recommended.

George Shanty, father of Rosalie, who was quoted early today as swearing to avenge the child's misfortune, was persuaded by his friends to remain away from the courtroom, and none of the girl's family was present at the proceedings.

Wilson is 41 years old, and has served a term in Jackson Prison. He was employed as a railroad laborer at Plainwell, near Grand Rapids.

SUSPECT SPURNED LOVER CAUSES HEROINE'S DEATH.

GIRL PERISHES IN MYSTERIOUS FIRE IN CHICAGO AFTER RESCUING HER MOTHER.

Chicago, Nov. 4. The heroine of an apartment house fire was dead today and her rejected suitor, a teacher of Spanish, was under arrest, pending investigation of the blaze that swept through a five-story apartment building and drove nearly 100 persons from their homes.

The girl was Bernice Holm, 25 years old, who saved her mother and returned to the flame-filled building and was burned to death.

J. C. Quezodo, 37 years old, who twice had been repulsed by the young woman and ordered from the building was the man held by the police.

The coincidence of fire starting in the building after Quezodo's two visits, according to the police, led to the detention of the teacher.

Two weeks ago Quezodo attempted to call at the Holm apartment. Miss Holm rejected him. The same night, according to the authorities, a small fire was discovered in the building.

Quezodo pursued his love affairs. Again last night he tried to see the object of his attentions. Again he was rejected. And again came fire, the investigators assert.

A chute led the flames, sweeping upward through the five stories as the tenants slept.

The flames and smoke were filling the building when Miss Holm woke her mother and led her to the fire escape, where firemen carried her down. The girl turned back, presumably to effect other rescues, and disappeared within the building.

Other occupants of that and adjoining buildings were scrambling down stairways and fire escapes. Several of them were scorched as they fled. A chauffeur carried a woman on his back and a baby in his arms as he descended a fire escape. The scene was one of confusion and Miss Holm was temporarily forgotten.

When the fire had been conquered firemen found the body of the young woman in a hall not far from the window through which she had re-entered the building.

Then came the investigators from the fire attorney's office and the story of Quezodo's quest of love, the two fires and the arrest.

PIG CENSUS BEGINS

TO WED SAME WOMAN FOR THE THIRD TIME

Washington, D. C., Oct. 31. Successful rural letter carriers in 17 States last May in obtaining information concerning brood sow and pig production that the Department of Agriculture again has listed the services of the rural carriers for a full census in every State, which will begin tomorrow.

To farmers who have been reluctant to give the information sought, because they feared it might be used by packers to their detriment, it will be explained that the information is important to the farmer, as to those who deal in farm products. The results of the survey will give the producers some knowledge of what is going on in the way of production and thus enable them to adjust their output to meet the probable needs of the market.

QUEEN OF ALL HENDON

Tacoma, Oct. 31. "Lady Jewell," said to be the champion egg-layer of the nation, laid another egg today at the Western Washington Experiment Station at Puyallup, and closed her year's test with a total of 335 eggs.

The record, according to Superintendent W. A. Linklater, of the station beats the former record of 321 eggs in a year made by a California hen.

"Lady Jewell" is a White Leghorn, owned by H. M. Leathers, of Woodland, Clarke county. He values the hen at $200.

Ten other hens at the station passed the 300 mark for the year closing today. One of them laid 322 eggs, also bettering the previous record.

DOUBLE DWELLING, TWO SUMMER KITCHENS AND THREE SHEDS DROPT COMPLETELY FROM SIGHT.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Nov. 6.—One double dwelling, two summer kitchens and three sheds completely disappeared in a mine cave at Hudson early today. The cave measures 100 feet in diameter and is 75 feet deep.

Three families were housed in the dwelling. Some of them were awakened shortly after midnight by rumblings, which they regarded as thunder. Before they had realized their danger the building had settled 10 feet into the earth. As soon as they discovered the cause members of the families leaped through windows and got to safe ground with little time to spare.

Within a little while the buildings crashed to the bottom of the cave.

The cave continued today and it is feared that other buildings will go down. The territory is undermined by the Hudson Coal Company. Several homes have been roped off and families will not be allowed to return to the buildings.

LITTLE AGNES STRUCK MATCH, SIX YOUNG WOMEN ARE DYING

Morganstown, W. Va., Nov. 5. Thirteen-year-old Agnes Thomas struck a match in the cellar of her home here this afternoon. A flood of gas ignited and the building collapsed like a house of cards.

Six young women, including Agnes, were so badly burned that their recovery is doubtful. Nine other persons, in various parts of the house, sustained burns, cuts and bruises.

Firemen reported that gas, escaping from a leak in the main in the street, entered the cellar of the Thomas home by way of the sewer.

Dinner was being served when Agnes struck the match. Bits of crockery and portions of the meal were found across the street.

Andrew Thomas, Sr., was blown through a bedroom window on the second story but escaped with minor injuries.

TO WED SAME WOMAN FOR THE THIRD TIME

New York, Oct. 25.—Jerome Uhl, painter and opera singer, is to be married for the third time to the woman he first married in 1902, then Miss Elizabeth Norris, daughter of Henry Lattimore Norris of Philadelphia.

The marriage will be solemnized in Rome. Mr. Uhl said, the former Mrs. Uhl and her daughter having sailed for Europe, October 5.

Uhl was divorced in 1911, his wife alleging cruelty in that he paid more attention to his painting than he did to her. They were remarried in 1917 in Santa Barbara, Cal., but were divorced again two years later. This time Uhl had taken up singing and Mrs. Uhl charged he was more interested in his singing than in her. Uhl formerly sang with the Century and the Chicago Opera companies.

Four weeks ago Uhl sang in Greenwich, Conn., and his former wife heard him. They made up their differences and arranged to be married for the third time.
