

TO SPEAK AT ANNUAL CHARITIES SESSION

Board of Governors to Invite Well-known Authority on Sociological Problems

One of the features of the annual meeting of the Associated Charities of Harrisburg in March will be a talk by a well-known authority of the country on charity or sociological problems...

The governors heard a report from Chairman James Sweeney, of the workhouse committee, to the effect that it was obtaining data on the subject from other cities...

"A GIRL OF THE UNDERWORLD"

That excellent melodrama, "A Girl of the Underworld," will be the attraction at the Majestic Theater, Monday, January 19, matinee and night. This beautiful story of life in the great city has been pronounced as a masterpiece on this topic, so true does it ring. The story deals with the experiences of a beautiful young girl, who has tired of life in the country and comes to New York to seek her fortune...

"BILLY, THE KID"

Among the attractions booked to appear at the Majestic, next week, is the phenomenally successful western play, "Billy, the Kid," which comes to the Majestic Theater, Tuesday, January 20, matinee and night, headed by Johnnie Ervin. The cast and production are complete in every detail, and the play from the pen of Walter Woods and Joseph Santley, has proven beyond a doubt that it is one of the most fascinating western melodramas ever written. During the past six seasons "Billy, the Kid," has been seen in nearly every large city in the United States and Canada to tremendous business and return engagements in every where in demand.—Advertisement.

RATTLING SINGING ACT

A rattling live-wire singing and piano act is being offered by a trio of clever young fellows at the Orpheum this week, and the spirit and harmony of their turn is going a long way toward providing much of the week's clever entertainment. This is the trio programmed as Jim Hardin, John O'Brien and Rennie Cormack. Their songs are the newest hits and they offer them with fervor, originality and good voices. The trio is one of the excellent features supporting Fatima, the Turkish dancer, who is providing a daily office magnet. Sprague and McNeese, young man and woman, offer an attractive roller skating novelty; John Hillton and company offer a playlet called "Ferry West," that is novel in theme, finish; Clark and Verdi, Italian comedians, making their first appearance here, do an eccentric comedy act of the quiet order that is just brimful of good laughs. Many of their witty expressions will be heard about town, long after the act has gone. Ryan and Lee, a natty duo in a breezy flirtation, are the best of the season in their line, if an opinion is to be formed by the amount of applause they receive. Last, but not least, the Knickerbocker troupe of acrobats are offering a routine of acrobatics that for skill and originality hasn't been duplicated this season. There are five performers in the troupe—a woman, two men and two midgets.—Advertisement.

AT THE COLONIAL

New things vaudevilian come to the Colonial to-day, not the least of which will be the Seven Godowskis, a Russian singing and dancing act that has won much approval in many important theaters in larger cities. These seven artists will offer a clever act beautifully costumed and beautifully staged, and it ought to prove a big attraction. Marion Harrison, a singing comedienne, is slated to appear on this same offering, and the Eddy Trio will present a splendid wit novelty.—Advertisement.

VICTORIA THEATER

At this popular theater to-day a mystery of mystery takes place in the production of the famous picture, "The Red Skull," in three big acts, in a clever detective story. "The Red Skull" is a feature picture in three acts, will also be shown. To-morrow will be featured by when a well known show given in moving pictures will be the attraction. It is entitled "His Fateful Passion." Six thousand feet of film are used in this picture.—Advertisement.
