

PERSONAL SOCIAL

NEVER SAID A WORD ABOUT HER MARRIAGE

Miss Gracey Shirley and Earl Foster Wed New Year's Day at Trenton

When Miss Gracey Marena Shirley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Shirley, of 421 Hamilton street, returned home from a holiday visit with friends at Trenton, N. J., she never said a word about the most important happening of her life, although social events were discussed freely.

Last evening Miss Shirley announced that her marriage to Ned Earl Foster, a clerk for the Pennsylvania Railroad at Marysville, took place New Year's Day, at the residence of Mrs. Elizabeth Leslie, Trenton, N. J., with the Rev. A. R. Sandborn, pastor of the Seventh Day Adventist Church, officiating.

The bride wore a stylish suit of dark blue cloth with hat to harmonize and was unattended. The young people, anxious to observe secrecy for a week or two, didn't come home together, and this announcement of their marriage will come as a surprise to their many friends. Mrs. Foster is an exceptionally fine musician and a graduate of the Harrisburg Conservatory of Music. Both she and her husband are most popular. They are residing temporarily at 421 Hamilton street.
