Details of Annulment of Girl's Marriage to Arthur H. Osborne Are Made Public

New York, Jan. 19.—After several weeks of secrecy, the proceedings which culminated in the annulment of the marriage of Arthur H. Osborne and Helen Eugenie Maloney, daughter of the Papal Marquis, Martin Maloney, of Philadelphia, has been made public. The testimony in that celebrated case was kept sealed by order of the court, but the seals were broken in the proceedings which have just resulted in a decree of the New York Supreme Court, annulling the marriage.

Osborne, the defendant in the case, never married. The plaintiff, Helen Maloney, was found to be a minor at the time of her marriage to Osborne. She was only 17 years of age when she was married to him. Her father, William Maloney, was a member of the Pennsylvania House of Representatives and a prominent citizen of Philadelphia.
