

American Cruiser's Blue Jackets Protect Foreigners in Port Au Prince, Haiti

HARRISBURG TELEGRAPH

LXXXIII— No. 24 HARRISBURG, PA., WEDNESDAY EVENING, JANUARY 28, 1914. 10 PAGES * POSTSCRIPT.

Tenants of Filthy 8th Ward Holes and Cellars to Be Ordered to Move

Filthy housing conditions in this ward must disappear. Order to this effect will be issued by Mayor Royal as the result of a tour of inspection made by him this morning with Chief of Police Hutchison and Dr. J. M. Runick, city health officer, through the Eighth ward.

The houses visited were at these places: 510 Strawberry street where the cellar was inhabited; 12, 14 and 16 Cowden street; 112 Short street; 408 North Fifth street; 611 Walnut street; 615, 617 and 606 South street—cellar at 515 inhabited; 400, 402 and 414 Millert street; 708 South alley; 709 and 711 East State street.

WESTERN UNION IS CONSIDERING PLANS FOR POLE REMOVAL

Not Compelled to Place Wires Underground, But Heads of Company Favor It

While the Western Union Telegraph Company hopes in time to remove its unsightly network of poles and wires from the city's business district, that time is still indefinite.

LANCASTER COUNTY MURDERER IS FREED AFTER 28 YEARS

Wife and Friends All Gone; Will Go Back to Farm

Philadelphia, Jan. 28.—John Rudy, who spent twenty-eight years in prison for the murder of his father in Lancaster county, Pa., walked out of the penitentiary into the sunlight here today a free man.

GOVERNOR TENER SAYS STATE WANTS BETTER HIGHWAYS

Asks Members of the State Board of Agriculture to Give Suggestions

FINANCE IS BIG PROBLEM

Opening Session of the Board Leads to Discussion of Paramount Subject

Governor John K. Tener in opening the thirty-seventh annual meeting of the State Board of Agriculture today asked that its members furnish the State government with their ideas of how to finance the road improvements of the State, suggesting that a committee be selected to discuss the proposition during the three-day session of the board with the State Highway Commissioner and all interested persons and to make a report. This committee will be named later in the day.

FIGHT IS ON TO DRIVE RUM FROM COUNTY BORDERS

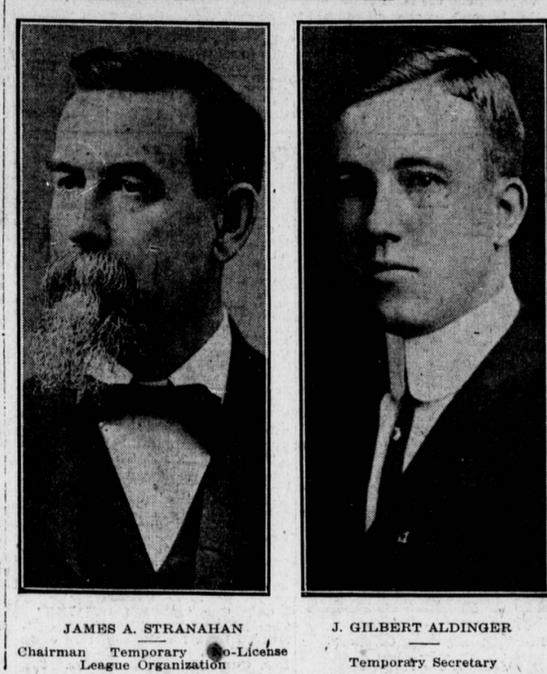

Every Nook and Corner to Be Watched by Divisions of No-License League

$1,000,000 A YEAR FOR BOOZE

That Amount Is Spent Here Every Year For Strong Drink

Liquor interests and the saloons of Dauphin county are now opposed by an organization which will devote itself to driving rum from the county's borders. The No-License League of Dauphin County was formed yesterday afternoon with a temporary organization which will be made permanent next Tuesday.

MEN WHO WILL HELP LEAD FIGHT TO DRIVE LIQUOR TRAFFIC FROM DAUPHIN COUNTY

JAMES A. STRANAHAN, Chairman Temporary No-License League Organization. J. GILBERT ALDINGER, Temporary Secretary.

BLUEJACKETS FROM U. S. CRUISER PROTECT FOREIGNERS IN HAITI

On Guard at American Legation, Cable Station and French Hospital

GERMANS ARE ALSO ON DUTY

Numerous Attempts at Pillage of Houses and Stores in Capital

Port Au Prince, Haiti, Jan. 28.—Army detachments of American sailors from the armored cruiser Montana were today on guard at the American legation, the cable station and the French hospital. German bluejackets and marines were placed on protection duty at the other foreign legations and at the German stores in the city. Large landing parties were sent ashore from the American and French war vessels yesterday when President Michel Oreste fled for refuge to the German cruiser Vineta after fighting broke out in the streets of the capital.

SUFFRAGE DEBATE IN JERSEY LEGISLATURE

Women From All Parts of State Crowd Assembly Chamber to Hear Speeches

Trenton, N. J., Jan. 28.—Women from all parts of the State crowded the assembly chamber at the capitol today to hear speeches for and against the extension of the franchise to women. The hearing was held before the committee of the whole of the assembly, to which the members of the Senate were invited.

LEPROSY CASE IS HOLDING ATTENTION

General Stewart Designates the Days in April When Militiamen Will Muster

A case of leprosy in Oil City was last night reported to the State Department of Health. The sufferer is Frank Syracuse, an Italian laborer who came to Oil City from Buffalo a year ago, and has since been living in a boardinghouse in that place. In many respects the case is like that which appeared here seven years ago in Mock Sen.

REGULARS NAMED TO INSPECT GUARD

General Stewart Designates the Days in April When Militiamen Will Muster

General Orders No. 3, announcing that the National Guard of Pennsylvania will be inspected during the month of April by United States army officers to determine readiness for field service, were issued today from the office of Adjutant General Thomas J. Stewart.

GRUNDY IS HONORED BY MANUFACTURERS

400 Members of State Association Pledge Loyalty to Leader at Banquet

Philadelphia, Jan. 28.—Nearly 400 captains of industry of the Keystone State—manufacturers from all parts of Pennsylvania—paid a remarkable tribute to Joseph R. Grundy, of Bristol, the head and leader of the association, at a testimonial dinner at the Bellevue-Stratford last night.

Matter of Protection

"Oh, in the end I should say it is. Furthermore, it should be done as a matter of protection."

Agriculturists Elect Officers For Year

Vice-President Herr, of the State Agriculturists, this afternoon appointed the following special committee to confer with Highway Commissioner Bigelow on the road question in Pennsylvania: B. F. Killam, of Pike; Calvin H. DeWitt, of Tioga; S. S. Blyholder, of Armstrong; P. S. Pennington, of Lehigh; Matthew Rodgers, of Juniata.

Mine Workers Cheer Action of Congress

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 28.—An announcement made by President White that the two resolutions providing for federal investigation of the strikes in Colorado and Michigan had passed the lower House of Congress by a large majority was greeted with prolonged cheers today by the delegates attending the convention of the United Mine Workers of America.

TAFT URGES "POLITICAL FIRST" PRINCIPLES FOR YOUNGER GENERATION

Albany, N. Y., Jan. 28.—Former President William Howard Taft left today for Canada, after urging upon the members of the Yale Alumni Association here last night that the younger generation should be carefully trained in "political first" principles.

West End People Are Aroused at News of Liquor Application

Ministers and West End residents are aroused by the news that Isaac Marcus has filed another application for a liquor license at 1103 North Third street. Last week they forced him to withdraw an application for the same place by a remonstrance petition two yards long.

Rebates Must Cease Before an Advance in Rates Is Permitted

Washington, D. C., Jan. 28.—In handling down an opinion in the interstate commerce case, the Interstate Commerce Commission made comments that savored of a warning to Eastern railroads that they must cease granting what virtually are "unlawful rebates" amounting to 15 per cent. before they can hope to receive permission to make a general 5 per cent. advance in freight rates.

Man Wanders Into Capitol Who Police Believe Is Lunatic

Henry W. Harper who says his home is in Easton, applied at the capitol today for a commission as Governor General of Northampton county to which he says he has been appointed. He is looking for the exterminators of his family too he says. He was turned into the State police office and was sent to Colonel Hutchison who put him under the care of "Dr." Caldwell at the Dauphin county jail, until his mental condition can be inquired into.

MOOSE SOCIAL TOMORROW

Members of the Harrisburg Lodge, Royal Order of Moose, will observe their annual social tomorrow evening at their home, 1103 North Third street, composed of E. E. Stacks, George P. Mitchell, E. E. Hinkenbach and J. C. S. Blyholder, all members of the lodge.

CORONER ILL

Coroner Jacob Eckinger is ill at his home, the Lincoln Apartments, North Fifth street. He is suffering from tonsillitis.

Democrats in Jersey Legislature Drop Plan of Reform in Few Weeks

Trenton, Jan. 28.—The Democrats in the New Jersey Legislature have turned their backs upon the California plan for the coming session, and this year's session will proceed upon the same old line of having bills introduced and considered and jammed through just whenever the spirit moves the assemblage.

400 Working Women Will Ask Wilson For Ballot

Washington, Jan. 28.—Four hundred working women from seven different States representing every line of work in which women are engaged will next Monday march to the White House and urge upon President Wilson an amendment to the Federal Constitution giving women the right to vote. They will carry with them banners bearing quotations from some of the writings of the President. The President has not yet signified his intention of receiving the delegation.

Suffragettes Fail in Attempt to Break Up Meeting of Council

London, Jan. 28.—Militant suffragettes today made a futile attempt to break into a meeting of the British cabinet council sitting at the official residence of Premier Asquith in Downing street.

Ten Labor Leaders in South Africa Deported Under Strong Guard

Cape Town, Union of South Africa, Jan. 28.—Ten prominent labor leaders were carried out so quietly last night that little was known of the occurrence in South Africa today.

Late News Bulletins

Washington, Jan. 28.—Former Senator Shelby M. Cullom, of Illinois, died here today after an illness of more than a week, during which he hovered between life and death. His last words were a wish that he might have lived to see the completion of the national memorial to Abraham Lincoln, who was his personal friend.

Democrats in Jersey Legislature Drop Plan of Reform in Few Weeks

Trenton, Jan. 28.—The Democrats in the New Jersey Legislature have turned their backs upon the California plan for the coming session, and this year's session will proceed upon the same old line of having bills introduced and considered and jammed through just whenever the spirit moves the assemblage.

400 Working Women Will Ask Wilson For Ballot

Washington, Jan. 28.—Four hundred working women from seven different States representing every line of work in which women are engaged will next Monday march to the White House and urge upon President Wilson an amendment to the Federal Constitution giving women the right to vote.

Suffragettes Fail in Attempt to Break Up Meeting of Council

London, Jan. 28.—Militant suffragettes today made a futile attempt to break into a meeting of the British cabinet council sitting at the official residence of Premier Asquith in Downing street.

Ten Labor Leaders in South Africa Deported Under Strong Guard

Cape Town, Union of South Africa, Jan. 28.—Ten prominent labor leaders were carried out so quietly last night that little was known of the occurrence in South Africa today.

Astor Yacht to Be Used For Prenuptial Cruise

New York, Jan. 28.—Vincent Astor's yacht Noma, it became known today, is being put in shape for a prenuptial cruise to the Mediterranean, on which Mr. Astor will be accompanied by Miss Helen Dinsmore Huntington, his bride-to-be, her mother, Mrs. Robert P. Huntington, and his mother, Mrs. Ava Willing Astor.

CRUISER AT DISPOSAL OF FRENCH CONSUL IN HAITI

Paris, Jan. 28.—The French cruiser Conde, now in Mexican waters, was today placed at the disposal of the French consul at Port Au Prince, Haiti, where the situation caused by the revolution and the flight of President Michel Oreste is regarded as serious.

BUILD SUNDAY TABERNACLE

Scranton, Pa., Jan. 28.—Forty ministers of this city yesterday morning set to work nailing the boards on the "Bible" Sunday tabernacle which is being built for the coming of the evangelist on March 1. The ministers started at 8 a. m. and called it a day at 11 a. m. Dinner was then served in the Elm Park Church.

More Figures Piled Up at Freight Rate Hearing

Washington, Jan. 28.—The proportions of the already awe-inspiring pile of tables, charts and other complications of figures presented by shippers of the official classification territory to back up their protest against the general five per cent. freight rate increase have today with data on the tile brick and clay industry. Witnesses from many parts of the territory discussed the effect the proposed increase would have on their enterprises. They agreed with witnesses representing other industries previously heard that the carriers could increase their revenues more than five per cent by improving their service and eliminating unnecessary expenditures.

South Carolina on Her Way to Port Au Prince

Washington, D. C., Jan. 28.—Under forced draft the big battleship South Carolina today is rushing across the Windward Passage to Port Au Prince, Haiti, to join her bluejackets and marines with the forces of the armored cruiser Montana for the protection of Americans and other foreigners.

Canada Pays For "Patent Insides" of Newspapers

Washington, D. C., Jan. 28.—How Canada has paid the Western Newspaper Union $42,000 for printing matter about the Dominion through the medium of patent insides which the union furnishes to newspapers, was today the Senate lobby committee to-day by George A. Joslyn, of Omaha, president of the union, and Alfred Washington, its advertising manager.

POOR DIRECTORS HEED GRAND JURY'S REPORT

At today's meeting of the Poor Board Directors C. W. Manning, purchasing agent, was authorized to make the necessary repairs to the almshouse flooring in accordance with the recent recommendations of the grand jury. Payment of $42,000 for printing matter was postponed until next Wednesday pending inquiry into an error made in ordering 5,000 blanks. The color was not specified in the order, and it is contended. Bills amounting to $1,004.26 were paid today by the poor directors. The contract for furnishing carpet for the office of County Controller Gough and County Treasurer Balley will be awarded to Dives, Pomeroy and Stewart at its bid of $1.37 a yard.

TRAINMEN ARE HEARD

New York, Jan. 28.—Complaints of trainmen on the eastern railroads that several of the lines are not obeying the award of the arbitrators are the subject of the conferences here which will continue all of this week between the general adjustment committee and the conference committee of railway managers.

UP IN THE AIR WITH SIX

Miami, Fla., Jan. 28.—American records were broken yesterday when a Curtiss flying boat carried six men for one flight and five men for another. Nine hundred pounds of weight, besides gasoline and oil, were carried. C. W. Wilmer was the aviator.

THE WEATHER

For Harrisburg and vicinity: Generally fair to light and Thursday; warmer; lowest temperature to-night about 40 degrees. For Eastern Pennsylvania: Unsettled to light and Thursday, probably occasional rain in north and east portions warmer to-night; low water mark.

Temperature: 8 a. m., 40; 2 p. m., 53. Sun: Rises, 7:19 a. m.; sets, 5:21 p. m. Moon: New moon, first quarter, February 3, 5:33 a. m. River: Erie, Four feet above low water mark.

Yesterday's Weather: Highest temperature, 50. Lowest temperature, 25. Meets temperature, 40. Normal temperature, 28.

MARRIAGE LICENSES: Edward Gough and Ella G. Ettinger, city. Norman Curtis Hoover and Rebecca S. Street, Port Deposit. George Schickley, Edgemont, and Mary Maxladine Ruder, city.