Exhibit and Special Selling

New and Distinctive Hats For Present Wear

The last word in millinery. Hats imbued with the charm and distinctiveness that characterize the exclusive from the ordinary.

The first appearance of these models in Harrisburg. Advance styles now seen in New York.

The Bowman Millinery Department is entering upon a new era. Styles now shown and to be displayed later will be the most exclusive and distinctive to be found.

Whilst the models will have individuality more often seen in high priced hats—our prices will be, as heretofore, moderate.

In this new group are hats for as little as $2.98. And up to $20.00.

3-Stem Natural Wavy Switches Instead of $2.50 95c

Women who have worn Switches mounted on short stems will wear no other kind. They find that they can, because of the pliability of these Switches, more readily and becomingly dress their hair. There is no bulk where the stems are joined; no thick weaving as is the case with stemless switches. The three stem Switches wear better and when braided fall in even, smooth strands that blend perfectly with your own hair. To-morrow, we place on sale a limited number of three stem Switches, in all shades, $2.50 regularly, at 95c
