JUDGESHIP WILL BE FILLED SHORTLY

Governor Tener Will Name General Beaver's Successor Without Any Delay

MANY ARE SUGGESTED

Requisition issued for a man held in Germany on a charge of homicide

The vacancy on the Superior Court bench caused by the death of General James A. Beaver will probably be filled by Governor Tener within twenty-four hours and numerous letters and telegrams were poured in on the Governor all of this morning in behalf of various candidates.

Prominent in the list of those mentioned is that of ex-Judge James W. Shull, of Perry county. Ex-Judge F. M. Trexler, of Lehigh, is also being boomed, while western Pennsylvanians believe that President Judge John A. McIlvaine, of Washington county, will be selected. MacHenry Wilhelm, Pottsville; W. I. Woodcock, Hollidaysburg; James Alcorn, Philadelphia, and W. D. Wallace, New Castle, are among the men suggested.

Test of Films.—Arrangements have been made for a test of films and methods of extinguishing films of such materials at Pittsburgh to-morrow. Messrs. Palmer and Price, of the Department of Labor and Industry, will look after the State end of it.

Commissioner's Work.—The Public Service Commission spent most of the day in discussing routine matters. The Commission will adjourn for the week to-morrow.

For Suffrage.—There appears to be general support on Capitol Hill in favor of the woman suffrage amendment as suggested by Senator Penrose. The coming meeting of the Republican State committee will likely declare for woman suffrage and prohibition amendments.

Held in Germany.—Governor Tener has issued a requisition on the German authorities for Frank Palanrani alias Parrot wanted in Philadelphia to answer a charge of murder.

Buller Returns.—State Commissioner of Fisheries N. R. Buller has returned from Allentown where he had a series of conferences with manufacturers regarding pollution of streams in that section. People have been warned to stop pollution as the effect upon the fish has been disastrous.

Wharton at York.—Secretary Bromley Wharton, of the State Board of Public Charities, is at York where he made an inspection today of the almshouse which has been ordered removed. He believes that a new one will be built soon.

Pottsville Armory.—Governor Tener and prominent Guard officers will be invited to attend the dedication of the State's new armory at Pottsville on January 23. There will be a notable military demonstration and Washington's birthday celebration combined.

Judge Ewing's Illness.—Statements to the effect that President Nathaniel Ewing, of the Public Service Commission, is seriously ill at his home in Uniontown suffering from a nervous breakdown, are not credited at the Capitol. The judge planned a southern trip, but could not go. In telephone talks with congressmen, the judge's voice did not sound like that of a man very seriously ill.

Simpson Here.—Warren I. Simpson former member of the House from Huntingdon county and one of the active men in 1909, was here yesterday for a short time.

Would Take Fifteen Hours.—When the order for the machine was placed Mr. Curtis told Mr. Wanmaker that in his opinion a motor could be perfected of sufficient power and endurance for an over-the-ocean flight. His and other aviators' experiences have proven, he explained to Mr. Wanmaker, that a motor can be run for forty and fifty hours without mishap. The Wanmaker flier is destined to make the ocean flight in fifteen hours. Concerning the machine, itself, Mr. Curtis was confident that his plans would produce a model air craft.

Advises Another Motor.—Alfred Moisan, who to-day admitted that he was working on an airship for an ocean flight, was of the opinion that Mr. Wanmaker should modify his plans as to motive power, substituting a 500 horsepower motor for the 200 horsepower which his announcement says he contemplates using.

Mr. Wanmaker in commenting upon the proposed flight declared that its accomplishment had been a cherished vision of his for years. His purpose, he said, was in the interest of world peace and by this he explained that he had been awakened in the night by the tremendous importance of aviation in warfare.

Nearly 100 delegates were present to-day at the annual meeting of the Women's Auxiliary of the Archdeaconry of the Harrisburg Diocese of the Episcopal church held in Trinity parish house, Pine street.

Holy communion was administered this morning by Bishop James H. Darragh, pastor of the church. He used for his subject, "Launch Out Into the Deep," and contrasted the missionary movement to fishing. He advised the delegates to "launch out into the deep waters where your catch will be the largest, even though the waters be rougher and the winds stronger."

At the noon recess a box luncheon was served to the delegates. Mrs. W. J. Middleton poured tea and Mrs. W. E. Abernethy poured the coffee. A business meeting took up the greater part of session this afternoon. Miss Kathleen Chambers, secretary of the auxiliary, presided. An address was delivered by the Rev. D. A. Reese, general missionary to the Italians in the diocese of Baltimore and editor of "The Truth in Love," the only English-Italian church paper in the United States. The Rev. Mr. Reese spoke of the work of the missionaries in the diocese of Baltimore.

CONGRESSMAN DIES AFTER RADIUM FAILS

after physicians in this country and Europe had vainly tried to cure him. It was found that the disease had made such inroads upon him that little could be done to help him and that the fight against death would be made with all the odds against him. Mr. Bremner was optimistic, however, and tubes containing $100,000 worth of radium were applied to the growth.

Failed Experimentally
For a time the patient seemed to improve and members of his family frequently expressed the belief that he would recover. They clung to this hope until a few days ago when the sick man was seized with a sinking spell. From that time on his strength grew steadily weaker, although he several times rallied in a surprising manner, aided by his strong vitality and powerful will. In his last days of suffering Mr. Bremner still fought on and insisted that he would get well. He declared that he wanted to go back to Congress to fight for a bill to have a government-owned radium institution so that the mineral could be at the disposal of the rich and poor alike.

Friends of President
Mr. Bremner was a warm personal friend of President Wilson who was kept constantly advised of his condition and who frequently sent him messages of sympathy and encouragement, accompanied with flowers.

Relatives at Bedside
Representative Bremner's wife, three of his seven brothers and a sister were at the bedside when the end came. The patient had been practically unconscious since Monday, although there were times when he appeared to be aware of what was going on around him and occasionally he would talk intelligently. Since yesterday morning, however, he had been unable to articulate.

Among his last requests was that the Rev. Father Kiernan, rector of a Catholic church at Passaic, assist at his funeral. Mr. Bremner was not a Catholic, but he was warmly attached to Father Kiernan and they had been close friends for many years.

The funeral services will be held at Mr. Bremner's late home at Passaic, where the body will be taken, possibly to-day.

Resolution of Sympathy to Be Drawn Up in House

By Associated Press
Washington, Feb. 5.—Representative Bremner's death, though not unexpected, was a shock to his friends in congressional circles, where his fight for life had been watched with much sympathy. After conferences between Speaker Clark and Democratic Leader Underwood it was determined not to adjourn the House at once, because of the great pressure of business, but a resolution was agreed upon for adjournment as soon as the business arranged for the day had been disposed of.

Another resolution was drawn to express sympathy of the House and a committee was appointed by Speaker Clark.

Mr. Bremner was last in the House the day Congress adjourned for the Christmas holidays and while he chattered freely and was smiling he was in much agony.

While he was dying last night the House was discussing his bill for a bureau of labor safety. It was his hobby.

HUERTA INCREASES HIS REGULAR ARMY

to the chiefs of all army divisions and governors of states. It recites that the government has begun a more active campaign against the rebels and urges that extreme diligence be observed in giving all possible protection to noncombatants, foreign as well as native, removing them when necessary from the zone of protection.

Proof of Sincerity
Dr. Ignacio Alcocer, acting minister of the interior, in commenting to-day on the raising of the embargo on arms by the United States, said it was proof of the sincerity of President Wilson, since for a long time nobody had been ignorant of the fact that there had been undisguised tolerance in the matter of introducing arms and ammunition across the border. He said it would not aid the revolutionists, but that on the other hand the Mexican government would profit by it, "since it presents a happy opportunity to make known the power which it really possesses." Dr. Alcocer said he hoped in the near future Mexico would have amicable relations with the United States because right and justice were bound to prevail.

The federal capital was quiet to-day.

Huerta Wants Reporters to Follow Operations

New York, Feb. 5.—General Huerta's only reply to President Wilson's order lifting the embargo on arms was to suggest that the leading newspapers of the United States send reporters to follow his military operations, all expenses to be paid by the Mexican Executive.

This suggestion, which was contained in a special cable message to The Sun, was accompanied by the statement that the Federal army now numbers 189,000 men and that the provisional President is conducting an energetic campaign to restore peace in the southern republic.

Shipments of arms and ammunition began to cross the border yesterday from the United States into Mexico. Constitutional agents were busy at El Paso and also at New Orleans closing contracts for big shipments of war supplies.

President Wilson is determined to resume his policy of watching and waiting, and no further developments in the Mexican situation are expected for sometime in the national capital.

Immigration Bill Is Before Senate Today

By Associated Press
Washington, D. C., Feb. 5.—With a provision barring illiterates, said to be the most drastic legislation of its kind for many years, the Burnett immigration bill was before the Senate today, where the final question on the literacy test will be threshed out. It passed the House yesterday.

Many expect the Senate to pass the bill as it stands, but President Wilson's attitude is the subject of much speculation. Some of those who claim to be informed say the President was opposed to the literacy test.

Before Mr. Wilson signs the bill, however, he will give public hearings upon it, as former Presidents Taft and Cleveland did on similar bills.
