DIXON GETS AFTER WEST READING WATER

Asks Attorney General to Take Steps to Revoke the Charter of the Company

IGNORED THE STATE ORDERS

College Students Work in Chief Engineer Emerick's Power Plant Today

State Commissioner of Health Samuel G. Dixon to-day sent a letter to Attorney General John C. Bell asking him to institute proceedings to revoke the charter of the West Reading Water Company on the ground that it had furnished water in defiance of his decrees for purification of the supply.

This proceeding, which is the first of the kind to be taken in a long time, is the result of failure, says the commissioner, to obey decrees requiring betterment of water supply issued June 27 and November 19, 1913.

New Superintendent.—J. S. Ritchey, of Bedford county, was to-day appointed superintendent of State highways in Bradford county by Commissioner Bigelow.

Forestry Board.—The State Forestry Commissioners to-day considered a score or more applications for permission to build cottages or camps on State reserves and also five applications for the auxiliary forest reserves.

Commission Adjourns.—The Public Service Commission adjourned to-day until the 17th, when it will hold a number of hearings.

College Students Here.—A dozen students of State College came here yesterday for observation of the State Capitol power plant. They are making an efficiency and economy test and will finish their work to-night.

Jackson Hits Back.—Commissioner Jackson spoke last night before the Civic Club of Lock Haven and in the course of his remarks made some plain statements about misrepresentation of his departmental activities.

Horris Here.—Ex-Representative John F. L. Morris, of Philadelphia, was at the Capitol.

HEARD ON THE "HILL" Harry S. McDevitt, of the State Board of Public Charities, was here to-day.

Auditor General Powell left for Pittsburgh this morning. State inspectors and engineers have been sent to Grove City to look into an outbreak of winter cholera.

Attorney General Bell is at Atlantic City.

Registrar Danner paid the State $227 as State tax yesterday.

Chairman Ewing was to-day reported as still confined to his bed at Uniontown.

State Librarian Montgomery was congratulated by his friends at the Capitol to-day.

A. J. Pfaff, former Philadelphia legislator, was here to-day.

Colonel Harry Treble, of Allentown, was a Capitol visitor.

Moslem Mission Men Reach City This Noon

Members of the Moslem Missionary Campaign party of the World's Sunday School Association arrived here at noon to-day for the meetings this afternoon and to-night and are quartered at the Bolton House.

The members of the party all report most encouraging meetings so far, and they say that great impetus has been given the forward movement for children in Moslem lands.

The first of the local meetings is in progress late this afternoon in Grace, Methodist Episcopal Church and the final meeting will be at the same place at 7.30 o'clock to-night.

The speakers are M. Lion Lawrence, general secretary of the World's Association; the Rev. Dr. S. M. Zwemer, missionary to Egypt, and the Rev. Stephen R. Van Trowbridge, who has had personal experience as a missionary in Turkey.

In His Stocking Feet He Tries to Paint Town

"Red" Hill, a character known to the Police Department, was painting the town a bright glow last night, and doing it in his stocking feet.

Hill had filled up to overflowing with brewed spirits he applied at the police station to be sent to jail and was accommodated.

Hill said he had a pair of shoes, but he took them off and later lost them along the route to the various saloons.

BIG REMONSTRANCE AGAINST MORE BEER

Many Petitions in Circulation Asking That Licenses Be Refused

With the last day for the filing of remonstrances against the granting of liquor licenses just one week away, the leaders in the movement to prevent any more hotels being licensed in Steelton are marshaling their forces and preparing to make the strongest remonstrance ever made against any licenses in Steelton.

Mrs. M. M. Stees, president of the Dauphin County Women's Christian Temperance Union and a member of the executive committee of the No-license League, said this morning that the temperance forces here would effectively block all efforts of the liquor men to secure either one of the new licenses asked for in the First ward.

There are now four separate petitions being circulated, according to Mrs. Stees, against the applications of John Shupp for a license to conduct a hotel at Front and Mohr streets and David P. Baker, who wants to open a hotel and bar in the South Third street foreign section.

"On just what grounds will you oppose the granting of these licenses?" was asked Mrs. Stees.

"On the grounds that there're not needed," she replied, "Why at the present time there are eight hotels in Steelton and I don't believe you could get a meal or lodgings at half of them."

"But," it was suggested, "don't you know that Mr. Baker plans to open a hotel for the exclusive accommodation of the transient foreigners—a place where lodgings may be secured for twenty-five cents a night; don't you think such a place is needed?"

"Decidedly not. Why at the present time there are empty houses in that district where these foreigners could get lodging for a most nominal sum. The foreigners don't want a hotel. They want a boarding house."

Middletown Boy to Play at College Recital

John Whitman, boy violinist and talented pupil of Middletown, who a few weeks ago appeared at Lebanon Valley College, so pleased the audience that he has been requested to support Mme. de Silva at a concert to be given at the college to-morrow.

He will play a Hungarian Rhapsody by Miska Hauser; "Souvenir," by Drda, and "Liebeslust," by Kreisler.

President's Policy Is Called "Barbarous"

Philadelphia, Dec. 6.—"Every gun allowed to enter Mexico by the lifting of the arms embargo eventually will be turned against the United States," said Major Cassius C. Gillette, ex-commander of the United States army, in an address yesterday before the City Business Club at the Colonnade Hotel.

The major recently returned from Mexico. He said the lifting of the embargo was the most "cruel, bloody and barbarous act that one nation ever perpetrated upon another." He could not understand the policy of the President and predicted that if continued it would lead to intervention.

The cost to prosecute a war would be about $800,000,000 in pensions, $350,000,000 for supplies, munitions and pay and the penalty in deaths would be 200,000.

Major Gillette asserted that the man the President was trying to seat as president of Mexico, General Villa, was a cutthroat, bandit, thief and robber, and that Geronimo, the Apache, was a gentleman by comparison.

He upheld Huerta and said he was the only man in Mexico who could handle the situation. Major Gillette says that Carranza died last August and that his name is used to help the rebel cause, because the 12,000,000 pesos believe in him.

This was the regular weekly meeting of the City Club and H. A. Jamieson presided.

WOMAN TO WED SON'S CHUM

New York, Feb. 6.—Mrs. Marie Scott Hartje, whose divorce from her husband, Augustus Hartje, the wealthy Pittsburgh paper manufacturer, in 1910, was preceded by four years of sensational divorce proceedings, is to marry the 20-year-old chum of her son Scott, according to an unofficial announcement. Mrs. Hartje received $250,000 from her first husband.

McDevitt Returns Home; Dead Broke, But Happy

Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Feb. 6.—Happy, but broke, John Jay McDevitt returned to this city yesterday morning. There was no United States marine band to meet him; not even a bustling boot-black welcomed him home. In fact, McDevitt stepped from an ordinary day coach to the station platform, walked past the handsome hotel which he left with such pomp two days ago and into an ordinary luncheon room, where he breakfasted on a plate of beans, the dish which has made many a meal for him in the past.

Before McDevitt arrived in the city the train reaching here prior to the newspaper, train, on which "Butch" rode, carried in the baggage car a plain pine box. Inside was the John Jay McDevitt in near bronze which Congress did not accept. It was hauled away from the station in an ordinary wagon and removed to the home of a brother of McDevitt.

Fake Health Inspector Is Still on the Job

Notwithstanding the warning and vigilance of the local police and health officer, a colored man, claiming to represent the health department on a tour of inspection of cellars, was still at work this morning.

Four complaints were received at the police station that a colored man tried to get into houses in North Sixth street, in State street near Fourteenth, and in South Harrisburg.

There is no colored man working for the Health Department as an inspector, and Colonel Hutchison stated this morning that persons admitting a colored man into a house for inspection did so at their own risk.

TWO CROOKS GET AWAY WITH THEIR LITTLE GAME

The Police Department is searching for two crooks who came to Harrisburg three days ago and got away with their little game. One man represented himself as an agent for a local firm, wanting to purchase ribbons, and fleeced Miss Mame Bartley, 865 North Third street, out of $125 worth of goods.

The other fellow cleaned up Harrison L. Reynolds, a barber doing business in Aberdeen street for $135, which the barber had in a vest that was hanging on a coat hook. The stranger had been working for Reynolds. He said his home was in York.

UNDERWRITERS TO MEET

The monthly meeting of the Harrisburg Life Underwriters' Association will be held to-night at the Engineers' Club. An interesting talk is promised by Ernest J. Clarke, president of the National Association of Life Underwriters, of Baltimore.

MOST American railroads demand that watches of the grade admitted to their service must not vary over 20 seconds per week.

The Hamilton Watch

"The Railroad Timekeeper of America" surpasses this requirement so consistently that it is immensely popular. There are more Hamilton Watches in use on such roads than all other makes put together.

The business or professional man who starts out to buy a watch of unusual accuracy will be interested in the beautiful Hamilton 19-size thin model. Come in and look at some of the Hamilton Watches we can show you.

TOO MANY CHILDREN

are pale and frail—backward in studies—with pinched faces and poor blood—their minds and bodies are actually starved because their regular food does not nourish.

Such children need Scott's Emulsion above everything else; it contains nature's rarest life-giving fats; it is essentially food value—blood-food and bone-food, free from wine, alcohol or harmful drug.

Scott's Emulsion often builds many times its weight in solid flesh—its medicinal, tonic and nutritive properties make all good food do good.

IT IS NOT A FROG, BUT A FOUNDATION FOR STURDY GROWTH. Every Drugist Has It. Avoid Substitutes.
