2,000 ENDEAVORERS ATTEND BIG RALLY
Celebrate Anniversary in Bethlehem Lutheran Church by Many Societies

gospel songs under the leadership of J. Frank Palmer was helpful and interesting. The C. E. choral union rendered a selection entitled, "He Draweth Near," after which the address of the evening was delivered by W. G. Landis, Philadelphia, secretary State Sunday School Association, on the subject, "A Housetop Vision."

Two banners were awarded—one to the societies having a membership under fifty and one to the societies over fifty, on the basis of the largest percentage of their members present at the rally.

The Covenant Presbyterian Society won the first banner, membership 30, present 28; and the Fourth Street Church of God won the second banner, membership 66, present 53.

Two Bibles will be awarded to the societies working on the efficiency campaign from March 1 to September 1. The two societies making the highest points in three standards of efficiency will win the Bibles.

Good Results at Olivet.—Large attendance is encouraging the workers at Olivet Presbyterian church where the Rev. Dr. I. W. Bagley is preaching this week. Last night his subject was "The Hard Things God Can Do For Your Soul." The music is in charge of R. F. Webster.

Rev. Freund on Committee.—Rabbi C. L. Freund, of Ohey Shalom Temple, who is now in Washington, D. C., attending the celebration of the tenth anniversary of the founding of the Washington Hebrew temple has received notification of his selection as a member of the committee which will arrange for the International Peace Congress at the Hague next year. The committee meets in New York next Wednesday. The Rev. Dr. Abraham Simon, of Washington Temple, is a brother-in-law of Rabbi Freund.

During the absence of Rabbi Freund, former Rabbi S. Friedman will conduct services at Ohey Shalom. Rabbi Freund will return to-morrow.

Special Baptismal Services.—At the Maclay Street Church of God next Wednesday evening at 7.30 o'clock, special baptismal services will be held under the direction of the Rev. J. C. Fornbrook, pastor. Two weeks ago the Rev. Mr. Fornbrook baptized eighteen persons, and at the special service next week he will baptize about half that number. In about three weeks of revival meetings in the Maclay Street Church of God there were twenty-eight converts. On next Sunday morning a fellowship meeting will be held for the new members when the converts of these meetings will be taken into the church.
