California Republicans Have Busy Day Looking Over Political Situation

By Associated Press. San Francisco, Cal., Feb. 7.—This was a busy day for Republicans in California. At Santa Barbara, in the south gathered the old line Republican State Central Committee deprived of legal existence by process of law when the Progressive swallowed the Republican party machinery before the last national election. At Stockton in the north central part of the State these Republicans who do not wish to be considered as lining up with the so-called "old guard" but are not willing to leave the party met to look over the political situation. This meeting was announced as one of Progressive Republicans. Candidates to run next Fall against Governor Hiram W. Johnson, who will again be a candidate were talked over, many of the committee members claiming that a man from the south would make a successful campaign because of sectional feeling in the State. Governor Johnson is from San Francisco.

Mystery Surrounds Shooting of Woman

Newark N. J., Feb. 7.—Completely marked by a heavy mourning veil, the young woman called, who last night shot Mrs. Harriet Manning to death in the parlor of her mother's home here, has thus far succeeded in hiding her identity and escaping arrest. Manning, who was released from custody early today Charles L. Manning, husband of the murdered woman, a young woman arrested in Mount Clair, whom Manning admitted he knew, the Newark police declared they had no doubt as to the identity of the slayer. Manning who had been separated from his wife since July, 1911, conducted a garage at Verona, near here. After their separation the wife went to the home of her mother, Mrs. Harriet Cobb, where she had since lived with her parent and a sister, Mrs. Mary Riley, who also is separated from her husband. Several persons have been accustomed to take their meals at the house. Cobb said her daughter was friendly with several men who took their meals at the house but she did not know that any of these friendships could have caused the shooting.

"Mr. Howard Is 38" Insists Mrs. Hartje

Los Angeles, Cal., Feb. 7.—Mrs. Mary Scott Hartje, divorced wife of Augustus Hartje, Pittsburgh millionaire, who was quietly married to Stanley Howard of New York city, in Pasadena last Wednesday evening, today announced her plans for the future and for the first time told of her interesting romance which preceded the wedding. While Mrs. Howard talked her conversation was frequently interrupted by calls from the kitchen, where dinner for her husband and children was in the course of preparation. While Mrs. Howard was relating the events which preceded her marriage to her husband was negotiating a sale of real estate in Pasadena. Before his marriage Howard, who is the son of a wealthy New York broker, had secured a position with a Pasadena real estate firm. "In the first place," said Mrs. Howard, "I want it made plain concerning the age of my husband. Mr. Howard is 28 years old and I am 46. It has been published that he was 20 and has been made to appear that I married a man who was the chum of my son Scott. This is not true. "I have known Mr. Howard for a number of years. His family in New York have known my family for years. I knew Mr. Howard before he entered Princeton, but it was in Allentown, Pa., that I knew him more intimately. I had a summer home there and his people also maintained a residence there. "My daughter, Mary Louise, will remain here with us," said Mrs. Howard. "My son has decided not to go to college, and he, too, will go into business here. My children are living with us and they will continue to do so."

British Tramp Steamer Ashore Off Jersey Coast

Manasquan, N. J., Feb. 7.—Off the coast in a fog the British tramp steamer Queen Louise went aground early today about a quarter of a mile off shore here and prospects were that she would remain fast until high tide late this morning. As a precaution the Manasquan life savers shot breeches buoy line aboard and two boys of the vessel's crew were brought ashore. The pool tournament between the Williamstown and Lykens pool teams is increasing in interest. Williamstown won the contest last night, played at Stoke's rooms. Williamstown will play the game this evening next week. Navy Tug Potomac Lost in Ice Packs

Washington, D. C., Feb. 7.—Wireless calls were sputtering out from the big navy tug at Arlington today to the frozen wastes of the New Foundland coast searching for the navy tug Potomac, lost in the ice after an unsuccessful attempt to rescue the purchase 1,000 head of Texas cattle and raise them on the tract. "Twenty thousand unemployed obtained permission to hold a meeting on Boston Common to air their grievances. The International Custom Cutters, in convention at Washington, delivered an edict to the effect that the double-breasted frock coat must not be relegated to the back-ground, since it was worn by the highest official of this nation. President Wilson issued an order, at the request of Secretary Garrison, by which Colonel George W. Goethals will be in penitentiary if the revelations in the Panama Canal case when he becomes Governor April 1. Another split occurred in the ranks of the British militant suffragettes, Sylvia Pankhurst breaking away from the Women's Social and Political Union.

"LEFTY" RUSSELL BOWLS: HAS A CRACK TEAM

Hagerstown, Md., Feb. 7.—The strong Diamond bowling team of this city, headed by Clarence "Lefty" Russell, the former $12,000 pitcher of the Athletics, went to Chambersburg last night and defeated the crack Casino team of that place, marking 28 pins. The Casino team will come to Hagerstown to play a return game with "Lefty" Russell's bowlers next Tuesday evening and bring with them a delegation of rooters.

BUILDING PERMIT

J. A. Brandt today took out a permit to build an addition to 603 North Front street. The alterations will cost $1,000. The Dock estate took out a permit yesterday afternoon to remodel 217 Market street, the Hotel Essex, which is to be occupied shortly by J. W. Rodenhauer. The improvements will cost $1,700.

George Cockill Is a Busy Man; Scouting For Future Greats

Mail Is Heavy Out of the Manager's Home Town; Contracts to Players

Reports from Lewisburg state that mail out of that town during the week has been extremely heavy and that Manager George Cockill will again lead Harrisburg's team to a pennant is the cause. Every future great who looks anything like a Tri-State corner will be looked over by George Cockill. A letter to one of the local officials from Manager Cockill states that he has sent out 130 letters to applicants for positions on the Harrisburg team. The players on the reserve list have received contracts and as soon as they are heard from Manager Cockill will begin preparations for practice. Several promising young players recommended by Manager Connie Mack and other friends of the Harrisburg leader will be given a tryout. It is the intention to have several well-known amateurs who have been playing in this vicinity for some time practice with the Harrisburg bunch.

Lancaster Shows Will Be Held Monday Nights; Big Bill Announced

Until further notice all shows at the Lancaster Athletic Club will be held Monday nights instead of Thursday. Manager Harry Hensel is anxious to please a number of his patrons and it is understood that Hensel will be able to get better talent by having the fights earlier in the week. The next show takes place on February 16. In addition to a return engagement between Johnny Greiner and Fighting Bob, there will be bouts between Kid Beebe and Young Russell; Tony Burrs, Philadelphia, and Tim Dronoy; and Young Morris, of Columbia, and Harry White. Manager Hensel will take a number of young stars to McSherrytown on February 23 when there will be a smoker at one of the prominent places in that place. Lew Sturgis will meet Young Russell; Harry White will go up against Young McGinnis; and Tim Dronoy will meet Young Stroop, of Baltimore.

Lebanon Tossers Easy Proposition

Central High tossers last night strengthened their claim to the Central Pennsylvania scholastic championship by winning from Lebanon High, score 61 to 23. Central was too fast for the Lebanon tossers. In the first half the Blue and Gray walked away from their opponents by brilliant goal-shooting and excellent floorwork. Yoder was the big man for Central, with Rote close for honors. Lebanon took a brace in the second half, but could not get near enough to give them hope. The Central scrubs defeated the All-Stars, score 41 to 12. After the games everybody danced.

Tech Tossers Lost to Lancaster Five

Tech lost to Lancaster High last night, score 42 to 29. The game was slow and uninteresting. Tech was without the services of Steward and the other players put up an indifferent game. The Tech scrubs won from the Crescents. This was also a one-sided game.

LEBANON VALLEY TEAMS PLAY INTERCLASS GAMES

Special to The Telegraph. Annville, Pa., Feb. 7.—Before a crowd of 550 students, two interclass games of basketball were played at Lebanon Valley College last night. The seniors ran away with the prep by the score of 38 to 19, while the freshmen defeated the sophomores 37 to 19. Two of the latter's members were unable to play, accounting for the big score.

PINE STREET BOWLERS HAD LIVELY CONTEST

The H. B. McCormick class in the Pine Street Presbyterian Sunday School bowling league series, last night won from the members of Mrs. H. B. McCormick's class, margin 149 pins.
