

Sacred Problems of Sex Should Be Taught Child Says Eugenics Expert

Declares False Modesty of Parents Causes Misery and Sin

MEN RESPONSIBLE FOR SOCIAL EVIL

Scorns Politicians Who Exploit Fallen Women and Saloonkeepers

McCuaig Philosophy

THE forces of evil are blatant. They pitch their tents in high places. The sit in the seats of administration in your cities. They reach out to control education and art, and even benevolence. They feign patriotism and drape the flag of a Christian nation around a beer keg.

Where in the American Sabbath to-day? Even the songs of the sanctuary are sung to the music of the Philistines and the agencies of God are spoken in the language of the streets and the bar room.

I have nothing but love and pity for the poor fallen women and the saloon keeper, but I do hate the grafter and politician who exploits them and their husbands for selfish ends.

It were better—for the child—to break his neck than his will, for the force of his will is his greatest asset and the responsibility of properly training him will rest with the parent.

In the greatest problem of life, the State, the school, the church and the home are silent—they give no information. In its very essence it is the fundamental problem upon which the whole social fabric is based and each one is left to grope and to discover for himself the facts concerning this problem of sex.

The child who learns of the sacred problems of sex in the language of the gutter will tend toward the gutter, think as of the gutter, and pass into obscenity.

Such was the truth hurled into the teeth of women who this afternoon crowded Zion Lutheran Church to hear Dr. J. Aspinall McCuaig, of New York, head of the educational department of the National Christian League, who during the next few weeks will deliver a series of "Eugenics" lectures at Zion Lutheran Church, Fourth street, near Market.

This afternoon's lecture on "The Native Instincts of the Child" was given to women only and hundreds of mothers crowded old Zion Church to hear Dr. McCuaig who is recognized as one of the greatest authorities on eugenics in the world. His address was filled with clear, concise, true ringing philosophy, proving that sex instincts when allowed to develop without control cause untold degeneration, misery and sin.

DIRTY CHIMNEYS AND BAD FLUES CAUSE OF TOO MANY FIRES HERE

Fire Chief Declares Entire City 'Should Have Thorough "Chimney Inspection"'

Harrisburg is having too many fires as a result of defective flues and dirty chimneys, according to Fire Chief John Kindler. In reference to the numerous alarms recorded during the past three weeks, the Fire Chief said: "Harrisburg needs a thorough chimney inspection. The high cost of coal is bringing many people to the necessity of using logs in their furnaces and heaters. This fills the chimneys with soot and when there is a real hot fire and a high wind trouble results.

"Some times a fire is likely to break out during the night as a result of dirty chimneys and serious results may follow. Cheap buildings with bad flues are also factors in many fires."

Harrisburg firemen were kept busy yesterday because of chimney fires. An overheated flue at the home of C. A. Veneberg, 324 South Sixteenth street, caused slight damage and gave the firemen a run at noon yesterday.

A lighted cigarette thrown on an awning at 1534 Ferry street last night gave the firemen another run. The damage was slight.

The Camp Curtin Company was called out early this morning to fight a blaze at the store of W. L. Keene, Maclay and Moore streets, where it was said a bad flue started a blaze among some groceries and caused a lighted cigarette to be thrown on an awning at 1909 North Front street. The Rely company was called out.

WANT A FORTUNE? PROVE YOUR NAME IS MINNIE, PLEASE

Salt Lake City Attorneys Looking For Niece of Man Who Left Big Estate

Is your name Minnie? If so you may be the heir to a big estate. Here's the story:

Thomas Morgan, who had quite a bit of money in the banks at Salt Lake City, Utah, died in June, 1912, leaving the settling of his estate in the hands of Marioneaux, Stott, McKimney and Powers, attorneys of Salt Lake City.

Somehow or other Thomas Morgan's heirs couldn't be located and Marioneaux, Stott, etc., attorneys, didn't know what to do with the money in the Salt Lake City banks. Not long since they learned that a Mrs. P. B. Haslet, supposed to be a niece of Mr. Morgan, once lived in Harrisburg, Pa., and that a picture of Mrs. Haslet was taken by John D. Lerner, then a photographer of this city. Last week Mr. Lerner, who lives at 1215 North Third street, received the following letter:

Dear Sir: Many years ago, you took the picture of a young lady whose maiden name we do not know, but whose married name is Mrs. P. B. Haslet. The lady's first name is Minnie. You also photographed the apartment building at this city June, 1912, leaving considerable estate, to which Mrs. Haslet is probably an heir. Thinking you may be able to give us some information that may lead to the discovery of Mrs. Haslet's whereabouts, we write you this letter, and will greatly appreciate your kindness if you will write us giving my and all information you can.

Hoping that we are not imposing upon you and that you will write us at your earliest convenience, we are,

Yours very truly,
Marioneaux, Stott, McKimney, and Powers.

Unfortunately Mr. Lerner has destroyed all his negatives, having retired from business long ago. He has asked the Telegraph to aid in the search for Mrs. Haslet.

Firemen Do Good Work at Fire; 7 Horses Are Burned; $10,000 Loss

Seven horses were burned and a property loss of $10,000 was caused by a fire which destroyed a number of stables and part of the lumber yard of Fred H. Hantzman in Briggs street between Coven and Seventh streets, Saturday night. Surrounding properties worth $300,000 were saved by the good work of the firemen.

A high wind made the fighting difficult and a general alarm was sent in. The fire started in a stable owned by S. Harrison and spread to adjoining buildings in the high wind. The raghouse of M. Cohen gave the firemen much trouble, in the stable fire being believed to have started the blaze. The losses are as follows:

F. H. Hantzman, $7,500 with $3,700 insurance; S. Cooper, $3,500 with $1,000 insurance; S. Harrison, $2,000, no insurance; and M. Cohen and Sons, $2,000, partly covered by insurance.

NEW APPOINTMENTS WILL NOT GO INTO COUNCIL TOMORROW

Moeslein's Successor Only Name to Be Submitted to City Fathers

TO PASS LYNCH MEASURE Will Decide on Retention of Incumbents at Conference Thursday

City Council will not consider the expected list of new appointments under the Lynch resolution tomorrow. With the exception of James H. Grove, successor to Ed. Moeslein as Building Inspector, no other name will be submitted.

Council will pass finally the Lynch resolution ousting all city employees not provided for by the Clark act on March 1.

The following measure, providing for the reappointment of most of them, the dropping of a dozen or more and the appointment of their successors will not go in until next Tuesday's meeting.

That new appointments are to be made, the present incumbents are to be retained and those that are to be dropped will be decided upon at a conference of all the commissioners that will likely be held Thursday evening.

The commissioners made definite announcement to this effect this morning.

For the last few days the question of whether or not it would not be more advisable to present the resolution providing for new appointments at tomorrow's meeting, immediately after the final passage of the Lynch resolution was considered, but this plan has been abandoned.

Will Know Anyway

Commissioner W. H. Lynch, father of the resolution, thought this plan the more expedient in that it would give those who are destined to leave the city's service March 1 a little more time to hunt up a new job.

"But," as one commissioner put it today, "it is pretty certain those who

MRS. DUBS, FORMERLY OF HARRISBURG, DIES AT SHANGHAI, CHINA

Cablegram Announcing Death Received by Bishop Dubs This Morning

Announcement of the death of Mrs. C. Newton Dubs, formerly of Harrisburg, at Shanghai, China, was received this morning by Bishop Dubs here today.

The cablegram, which is dated Shanghai, February 8, and which is believed to have been confused as to dates in transmission, is as follows:

Feb. 6. Mrs. C. Newton Dubs quite unexpectedly had a stroke of paralysis. February 9 passed away very peacefully. Will be buried at Changhai. Leaving immediately. C. Newton Dubs.

In view of the fact that the message is dated February 8 and states that the death took place on the 9th, it is believed that there has been an error in transmitting the code in which the cablegram was written.

Mrs. Dubs was the wife of Dr. Dubs, superintendent of the China missions

RESOLUTION SEEKING EQUAL SUFFRAGE IS OFFERED IN SENATE

Galleries Crowded With Suffrage Leaders and Friends of the "Cause"

QUESTION TO BE DISCUSSED Senator Ashurst Asks That Amendment Be Made to Constitution

Washington, Feb. 9.—The question of equal suffrage confronted the Senate today. It came before the body in the shape of a resolution proposing an amendment to the constitution extending the right of suffrage to women.

The resolution was first on the calendar of business in the Senate and as there was no unfinished business before that body it was called up immediately after the routine morning session. When Senator Ashurst, of Arizona, who is sponsor for the resolution, called it up there were present in the galleries woman suffrage leaders and many friends of the "cause" who were expected to be present.

The prospects for a vote on the resolution today, however, were not good for the reason that several senators had previously given notice that when the question was reached they wanted to discuss it. There was a possibility that the resolution would go over to allow senators an opportunity to prepare their speeches. Senator Ashurst was confident that if a vote was not reached today the Senate would act during the present session.

The resolution proposing a constitutional amendment to give the ballot to women was severely reported by the Senate woman's suffrage committee last June.

Consideration of the proposed constitutional amendment for women suffrage was referred again in the Senate today because several senators gave notice they wished to discuss it. A large gathering of suffrage supporters were present in the galleries expecting to see the resolution pass was disappointed.

EXEMPTION PLANK IN PARTY PLATFORM NOT FAVORED BY WILSON

President Let It Be Known Today He Regarded Toll Policy as Unwise

WILL NOT FORWARD MESSAGE Believes Attitude on Panama Subject Is Well Known in Congress

Washington, D. C., Feb. 9.—President Wilson let it be known today that, from the first he regarded as an unwise policy the insertion in the Democratic national platform of the plank favoring the exemption of American post-office trips from the payment of Panama canal tolls.

The President feels that a platform declaration on such a subject is related to circumstances that arise all over the world, and that in the United States, and that only the element which the United States can control in the situation ought to be considered. He feels that a change of circumstances has arisen in the international aspect of the situation which necessarily would change the attitude of the American government and the attitude of the country on the subject.

Mr. Wilson told callers today that the whole international situation and the point of view of governments was so far removed from the settlement of the controversy, the insertion of that platform declaration should be limited to matters of domestic policy and should not embrace relations with foreign governments.

It is said to be the President's view that treaty relations with other nations might be embarrassed at which is construed as a violation of the Hay-Pauncefote agreement were to be insisted upon by the United States.

Only England Protested

It was made clear, however, that England had protested. The President told callers that Great Britain through her representatives had not approached the American government on the question in any way since Viscount Bryce left here a year ago.

The President told callers he did not intend to send a message to Congress on the subject of Panama tolls; that he felt his attitude had been sufficiently made clear in a recent letter to William L. Marbury, of Baltimore. He expects Congress to repeal the tolls provision during the present session. He said he may confer with Representative Adams, chairman of the House commerce committee, which would have charge of such legislation.

PRESIDENT OF BANK LOSES $800,000 BY STOCK GAMBLING

Memphis Institution Closes Because of Vast Sum Dropped by Official in Speculation

Memphis, Tenn., Feb. 9.—Ten directors of the Mercantile Bank, one of the most important financial institutions in the city, today filed a petition in Chancery court charging that the bank's directors had committed the alleged misappropriation of more than $750,000 by C. Hunter Raine, president of the institution.

In the petition Raine was held solely responsible for the apparent shortage, approximately $788,804, which is charged, he obtained "by a system of handling its drafts, property and exchange in such a way as to deceive the directors and conceal his manipulations," the total amount of which, it was alleged, he lost in speculation.

The petition places the liabilities of the bank at approximately $2,196,894 with assets of $1,408,089. In a published statement January 9 liabilities were given as $2,426,197. At that time the total deposits were $1,861,109, of which $242,233 were savings accounts. The bank is capitalized at $200,000 and has a surplus of $100,000.

The alleged discrepancy was discovered by a representative of a New York correspondent of the bank, who was sent to Memphis last week to audit the books of the Mercantile Bank.

It is stated that President Raine, who attended yesterday's meeting, absolved all of the officers and directors of the bank of implication in the alleged shortage.

Raine was late today charged with embezzlement in a warrant sworn out by Z. N. Estes, county attorney general.

BIG INTEREST SHOWN IN POLITICS IN NEW YORK BY PRESIDENT

Efforts Being Made to Assemble Scattered Party in Empire State

Washington, Feb. 9.—How the various elements in the New York State Democracy are to be assembled into a new organization with progressive leadership was the problem before President Wilson, Governor Glynn, of New York, and William F. McCombs, the Democratic national chairman, in a conference at the White House today.

The President of late has been giving deep consideration to the autumn campaign when he realizes the Democratic administration to some extent will be before the country for approval or disapproval in the elections for members of the House of Representatives and the United States Senate.

The deep interest which he took recently in helping to elect Representative A. Mitchell Palmer to make the race for the United States Senate in Pennsylvania, but one of the concrete evidences of preparation here for the Fall campaign. Chairman McCombs has talked over the national situation in detail with the President but most important admittedly is the status of the Empire State democracy.

With a split city election in New York when a fusion of parties battled successfully against Charles F. Murphy and the Tammany organization and with contests in various parts of the State between Tammany and anti-Tammany elements and other factions growing out of the controversy over the deposing of Governor Sulzer, the Washington administration feels it must give in building up a united and harmonious Democracy to make a fight at the polls next Fall on national issues.

One of the subjects before the White House conference today between President Wilson and Governor Glynn, of New York, was the selection of William Church Osborn, Democratic State chairman. He is a brother-in-law of Cleveland H. Dodge, Princeton '79, and a very old friend of President Wilson. The choice is understood to be acceptable to the President. There has been some talk of the possible candidacy of National Chairman McCombs for the Senate, but he was noncommittal.

City Association Voices Unanimous Approval of Journals Who Turn Down Rum Money

Approval of the steps taken against the liquor traffic by newspapers that refuse to publish liquor advertisements was voiced in a resolution unanimously adopted at the meeting of the Harrisburg Ministerial Association this morning.

The resolution not only strongly commends newspapers who refuse liquor advertisements or advertisements of things of a vicious or evil nature, but requests the ministers of the city to read the resolution from their pulpits and urge their church people to support newspapers that refuse to publish liquor ads and similar noxious advertisements.

The resolution was adopted and referred to the Civic Council of Harrisburg Churches, where it will be presented to-morrow night with the recommendation that it be adopted, and copies of the resolution sent to every newspaper in Central Pennsylvania and the newspapers of Pittsburgh and Philadelphia.

A committee of three which will be appointed later will accept the invitation of the board of directors of the poor to make an inspection of the county almshouse for the purpose of seeing conditions and suggesting any changes they think may be needed.

The Rev. J. W. Green read a paper on "Church Credit." Dr. A. J. McCuaig, who is lecturing at Zion Lutheran Church, told the ministers the purpose of his series of talks.

ARTISTS DO NOT GET HONOR

New York, Feb. 9.—Art circles were interested by the statements made by Gutzon Borglum, sculptor, that "nearly 60 per cent. of all the monuments and statues in the United States, including those in Statuary Hall, Washington, were not made by those whose names they bear. That is how America gets her art. Contracting firms get the contract and the honor. Starving artists do the work."
