The judges in composition of the essays submitted have been announced as the Rev. Thomas Reich, of Christ Lutheran church, chairman; Professor J. F. Ferguson, principal of the Webster building, and Professor John F. Koh, of the Foose building.

FRED VOGT MAKES 14TH TRIP TO ALMSHOUSE

The fourteenth trip to the Dauphin county almshouse was made to-day by Fred Vogt, a well-known character about the Courthouse.

To-day Vogt applied for admission to the almshouse and was refused. After a conference with Poor Director C. L. Boyer, President Judge Kunkel ordered Vogt sent to the institution on condition that misbehavior will mean more drastic action on the part of the county authorities.

Vogt's name appears on the poor book since 1895. In 1910 he turns up on the books again and thereafter several times a year. Behind some of the entries "eloped" is marked. This means that Fred stole away from the almshouse without the authorities' knowledge.

NEW PATROLMAN APPOINTED

Waynesboro, Pa., Feb. 10. - Ross Baker, who came to Waynesboro from Emmitsburg, Md., one year ago, has been appointed a patrolman to succeed Patrolman Daywalt, of the local police force, who was killed by Abram Barnes, the desperado, last week.

SIMS CONSULTS PRESIDENT

Washington, D. C., Feb. 10. - Representative Sims, of Tennessee, ranking member of the House commerce committee, conferred with President Wilson to-day about early action on his bill to repeal the exemption clause in the Panama Canal act. He learned that the President intended to deliver no message to Congress on the subject.

AFTER MEASLES Whooping-Cough or Scarlet Fever

is a delicate bronchial-weakened throat, delicate bronchial tubes and around lungs often follow; sometimes impaired sight or hearing. But if SCOTT'S EMULSION is taken promptly and regularly after the fever subsides it quickly restores pure blood and strengthens the lungs. Its nourishing force restores appetite, strength and energy. SCOTT'S EMULSION contains just the elements nature requires to restore sound health; it is totally free from alcohol or harmful drugs. Children relish it.

DECIDE ON JUDGE KUNKEL'S OPINION

Supreme Court of Pennsylvania Affirmed President Judge's Finding

Word was received here to-day to the effect that the confirmatory opinion of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania on the opinion of President Judge George Kunkel...

The opinion which sustains the Dauphin county court's attitude was handed down per curiam and is very brief. It says: "The judgment appealed from is affirmed on the finding and opinion by the learned president judge of the Common Pleas of Dauphin county."

Letters on County Bounties. - Circular letters to all the Justices of the peace in Dauphin county calling attention to the fact that the county will not pay bounties except where in the exact letter of the law of 1907 and 1913 is complied with, were sent to-day by Chief Clerk D. Frank Lebo. The acts specify the various kinds of animals and birds which are protected and those which are outlawed.

BOOKS and MAGAZINES

The After House, by Mary Roberts Rinehart. Houghton Mifflin Company, Boston, publishers. Pictures in tint by Jay Wilson Preston. $1.35 postpaid. The most thrilling murder mystery story since "The Man in the Lower Ten," with the added savor of the sea and a love story you will not forget to read.

The Back Yard Farmer, by J. Willard Bolte. The joy a back yard garden can furnish! One who has never experienced it can realize what it means in reading "The Back Yard Farmer," a new book by J. Willard Bolte (Forbes & Co., Chicago, $1); and if he is a flat-dweller he will be tempted to make plans for moving to the suburbs in the future. And if he is seeking a solution of the high cost of living problem he will be sure to go for this valuable book solves that question. And not only does it show how to reduce the expense of food but it also tells how to get better food and better health and get dividends and pleasure out of the wonderful possibilities of the back yard.

Success With Hens, by Robert Joos. Raise chickens and thereby reduce the cost of living and have a lot of fun doing it, is the advice of Robert Joos in his book, "Success With Hens," published by Forbes & Co., Chicago, $1.00. This is a complete guide to poultry raising that thoroughly covers the subject by an expert. It is clear, practical and up-to-date.

The Home Nurse, by Dr. E. B. Lowry. Dr. E. B. Lowry, the popular writer on health topics, has brought out another very useful book, entitled, "The Home Nurse" (Forbes & Co., Chicago, $1.00). It gives helpful directions for the care of the sick in the home and tells how to co-operate with the physician in providing for the comfort and cure of invalids. Full directions for first aid to the injured are also given. Technical terms are avoided and a complete index makes it possible to refer quickly to the desired information.

CRUSADE AGAINST THEATRICAL FILTH The Charleston News and Courier is one of those who refuse to be submerged along with New York, and it speaks up: "Mr. Winter's view is based upon conditions in New York; and it is scarcely fair to judge the rest of the country by New York. There are, we believe, outside of New York signs that the standard drama is reaching the zenith of its popularity and will henceforth decline. More often now than in the past determine the success of an announcement in this or that town in the provinces that a play known to be salacious will be presented in the local theater. Salaciousness, moreover, does not draw such large audiences as it used to. If one may judge by the 'white-slave' problem did a very poor business here, while the play which, more than any other, based its appeal on sweetness and cleanliness was witnessed by very large audiences. "The exploitation of vice on the stage will always attract a certain element, just as vice itself is irresistible to a certain class. But whatever may be the case in New York, there is ground for the hope that in the country at large the people are growing somewhat weary of plays which, no matter what may be their professed motive and les-

Three Little Slate Makers Meet in Room to Parcel Out Offices

Philadelphia, Feb. 10. - Some of the Democratic leaders of the State met in informal conferences here to-day to discuss plans for the coming primary campaign in Pennsylvania. Among those who participated were Congressman A. Mitchell Palmer, candidate for the nomination for United States Senator; Vance C. McCormick, candidate for the gubernatorial nomination, and Roland S. Morris, State chairman.

Mr. McCormick said that in a short time he would issue a statement of his views on questions that will enter the campaign. Senator Boies Penrose will make a number of speeches up the State this month and will also have about a dozen speeches to make in churches and patriotic meetings. Through here tomorrow for Altoona where he will address the P. O. S. of A. and on Thursday he will make the address at the Lincoln day dinner in Bethlehem. Later on he will speak at Lancaster and Hanover and on February 24 at Lykens.

Penrose Will Make Several Addresses in Interior Counties

State Grangers to Look Over Places For Next Meeting The executive committee of the State Grange to-day considered half a dozen applications for the next place of meeting, but left woman suffrage the referendum, local option and all other troublesome things for the legislative committee to fuss with when it meets here on February 26.

LEADER OF NEW COLONY HUNTED BY FOLLOWERS

New York, Feb. 10. - A shipload of negroes, mostly farmers and their wives from Oklahoma, waited here to-day from Alfred C. Sam to lead them to a new negro Utopia on the gold coast of Africa. The colored farmers were induced to come here, they said, by Sam, who had been collecting colonizers from Oklahoma, Texas and Mississippi. More negroes were expected from Galveston and the West and it was said that eighty-six were coming from Boston. Sam could not be found to-day.

DEMOCRATIC WAR IS PRECIPITATED

Compromise between two such men as Ryan and McCormick is impossible. When one considers their temperaments nothing is left but a fight to the finish, and many Democrats here have expressed the hope that the battle may be so severe that they will destroy each other.

he campaign for the nomination will be so bitter that the victor will not be on speaking terms with the vanquished and the defection of thousands of votes will be a natural sequence. The Palmer-McCormick group, with a pliable State chairman, will bend every effort to use the machine in control to advantage, and as far as any aid which might be expected from the headquarters, Ryan's people will have none.

State Chairman Morris is reported as having sent out a new batch of letters begging federal office holders for contributions, a practice which used to be denounced by Democratic newspapers when it was done among Republican placeholders of a Republican administration. Just what this cash will be used for is evident to a babe.

Friends of Michael J. Ryan have formed a club for him at Scranton and friends of Palmer have done the same for his faction at Easton. Clubs quashed and there is a gratified smile on the faces of the professional politicians of the Democracy. Creasy in the Dumps After waiting for thirty-eight years "Farmer" William T. Creasy, head of the State Grange, legislator, Democrat, Keystone and Democrat again, is about to go on a siding once more. The Columbia county man last night declared that he would not be sidetracked into the nomination for Secretary of Internal Affairs. Whether he thought that with Henry Houck as an opponent only a funeral would be in order for himself or whether he thought he was being minimized, no one can say. But a few minutes later when someone suggested that he would be good gubernatorial timber he remarked with a trace of sadness: "I haven't the money to make a fight for the nomination for Governor. And it will take a lot."

SICK HEADACHE, COSTIVE, BILIOUS, IF LIVER IS TORPID—DIME A BOX

You men and women who can't get feeling right—who have headache, coated tongue, foul taste and foul breath, dizziness, can't sleep, are nervous and upset, bothered with a sick, gassy stomach. Are you keeping your bowels clean with Cascarets—or merely dosing yourself every few days with salts, pills, castor oil and other harsh irritants? Cascarets immediately cleanse and sweeten the stomach, remove the sour undigested and fermented food and foul gases; take the excess bile from the liver and carry off the constipated waste matter and poison from the bowels. A Cascaret to-night straightens you out by morning—a 10-cent box keeps your head clear, stomach sweet, liver and bowels regular and you feel buoyant for months. Don't forget the children.

Grange executive committee and the friends got busy telling some Bull Mooers what splendid opportunities for the progressives lay in Creasy as a candidate for Governor. They got little encouragement from the local lights and when A. Nevin Detrich, the Washington State chairman, stopped around on his way to Philadelphia he put a snuffer on the Creasy boom by saying he was in a most advantageous position a year ago, but he threw it away, and having gone back to the Democrats, must henceforth make his bed with them. The upshot may be that Creasy will be a candidate for Lieutenant Governor or something else providing the Democratic bosses do not find someone who is stronger. Suffragists On Trail The active ladies of the suffragist propaganda are on the trail of the Democrats because of the rejection of overtures by President Wilson and the Democratic congressional leaders and some interesting quarter hours are due for certain candidates. Creasy got into the line of fire last night when Miss Frances Broomall, of Chester county, wanted to know why it was necessary to have a referendum on woman suffrage in the Grange when for years and years the committees had declared for it. Creasy was not very clear about the matter. The local optionists and prohibitionists are also hunting Democratic leaders and it is possible that some steps toward the framing of a platform for the coming State committee meeting to ratify will be taken at Philadelphia to-day. The Washington party straddled and the Republicans are discussing these matters seriously, while the Democrats are up in the air. And out in Allegheny one John Martin starts a boom for a nomination by having a neighborhood meeting to furnish a story for the papers.
