CULTIVATION The dearest garden ever Needs but the friendly rain, Kind touch of sun and loving hands, To glow with bloom again. The dearest life that ever Lay fallow, dank and bare Will bloom, if given by kind hearts A little loving care. —Arthur Wallace Peach, in Buffalo Evening News.

HOW I CURED MY SUPERFLUOUS HAIR

A Friendly Scientist Showed Me How to Cure It Forever I WILL TELL YOU FREE HOW TO GET RID OF YOURS TOO For a long time I was sorely troubled by hideous growth of Superfluous Hair on my face and arms. My face was indeed a sight from the expasperating growth and I grew almost to hate myself for my unsightly appearance. There are many things advertised for Superfluous Hair but I have tried them all but have never had any result, except to waste my money and burn my skin. But, notwithstanding all my years of disappointment, I have not been able to get rid of it through following the advice of a friendly scientist, a Professor of Chemistry at an English University. The treatment he advised is so thorough, simple and easy to use that I have not only cured myself in America to know about it. It worked such a change in my appearance and my happiness, that I gladly waive my natural feelings of sensitiveness and will tell broadcast to all who are afflicted how I destroyed every trace of hair, never to return. If you are a sufferer and would like to have full details, just send along your name (stating whether Mrs. or Miss) and address and I will send you in full detail the advice and instructions which restored in my own cure after all else failed. Address your letter, Mrs. Kathryn Jenkins, Apt. 172-B, C., Wentworth Building, Boston, Mass. NOTE: Mrs. Jenkins as her photograph shows is a lady of refinement, and for years was well known as a Society Leader in Scranton, Pa.—Advertisement.

JUDGE KUNKEL TO FRONT FOR BENCH

(Continued from First Page.) ward Judge Kunkel among men who are active in State politics and the Philadelphia Press prints the following: "The candidacy of Judge George Kunkel, presiding judge of the Dauphin county court, for the Supreme Court nomination was discussed yesterday in Republican circles. Reports which have been received from the central part of the State indicate that a ticket headed by Boies Penrose for senator, ex-Governor Stuart for re-election; George E. Altz for lieutenant-governor, and Henry Houck for re-election as Secretary of Internal Affairs, with Judge Kunkel to be supported on the nonpartisan judicial ticket for the Supreme Court is being discussed. "Republican leaders in this city, however, say that sentiment has not crystallized for anyone for governor, lieutenant-governor and Supreme Court justice and that in this city Mr. Stuart, Superintendent of Schools Brumbaugh and Philander C. Knox are being most mentioned for the first named position."

News Items From Points in Central Pennsylvania Special to The Telegraph Wilkes-Barre.—The members of the Luzerne county mothers' pension fund board have named Mrs. J. N. Williamson, of this city, and Mrs. John Ferry Hazleton, as investigators to look into the applications for relief as provided for dependent widows. The compensation has been fixed at $50 per month. Lancaster.—Augustine Vitale, fruit dealer, was given a hearing here yesterday, charged with complicity in the murder of Tony Colatta, a rival fruit dealer, and was returned to jail for trial. It is alleged by the Commonwealth that Vitale planned Colatta's assassination and hired other men to shoot him. Easton.—"I'm not going to live very long. If you find my shutters closed after 7 o'clock any morning, break into the house," said Christopher Schlegel, aged 75, to his neighbors several days ago. Yesterday morning the shutters remained closed at 7:30.
