Cataract Cannot Be Cured with LOCAL APPLICATIONS, as they cannot reach the seat of the disease. Cataract is a blood or constitutional disease, and in order to cure it you must take internal remedies. Hall's Cataract Cure is taken internally, and acts directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces. Hall's Cataract Cure is not a quick medicine. It was prescribed by eminent physicians in this country for years and is a regular prescription. It is composed of the best tonics known, combined with the best blood purifiers, acting directly on the mucous surfaces. The perfect combination of the two ingredients is what produces such wonderful results in curing cataract. Send for testimonials, free.

MARRIED AT NOON

Professor Raker and His Bride Coming Here at Once

Dwight L. M. Raker, principal and proprietor of the School of Commerce, this city, and Miss Charlotte Zeigelbauer, of New Albany, Ind., were married to-day at Columbus, Ohio, at the home of the bride's uncle, C. P. Zaner, 701 South Ohio avenue, by the Rev. Dr. Washington Gladden, pastor of the First Congregational Church of Columbus.

Owing to a death in the bride's family, only Mr. and Mrs. Zaner and M. E. Keller, of Mechanicsburg, were in attendance.

The bride resigned her position as supervisor of physical culture and penmanship in the public schools of New Albany, Ind. She is a graduate of Yale University, New Haven, Conn.; the Zanerian Art College, of Columbus, Ohio, where she received her degree in physical education; and the summer schools of Yale University, New Haven, Conn.; New York University; Lake Chautauqua, N. Y., and Lake Winona, Ind. She completed the physical culture course at Harvard, receiving a certificate from that school.

Professor Raker is well known throughout this part of the State as principal of the School of Commerce here and has been associated since 1907 with W. H. Keller in the school.

The early life of Professor Raker was spent on a farm, attending school during the winter months and later the Berryburg Seminary. He taught in the public schools for several years, attending the Millersville State Normal during the summer months and later the school has troubled in his ranking as one of the best in Pennsylvania. Its graduates have a reputation for accurate, efficient work.

Since assuming the principalship of the Harrisburg School of Commerce in 1907 the school has thrived in its ranking as one of the best in Pennsylvania. Its graduates have a reputation for accurate, efficient work.

Mr. and Mrs. Raker leave for Harrisburg in the afternoon, and will reside at the Donaldson, where they have taken apartments.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Anderson have gone home to Pittsburgh after a brief stay with Harrisburg relatives.

Resolutions on Death of Miss Rachel Briggs

Directors of the Florence Crittenton Home, 2410 North Sixth street, passed resolutions of regret on the death of Miss Rachel Tod Briggs at a recent meeting.

Miss Briggs was actively associated with the Florence Crittenton Home since its establishment in 1894 and served in the capacity of corresponding secretary for a number of years. She attended the last month's meeting on Lincoln's Birthday.

Among the most pleasant recollections which the inmates of the Florence Crittenton Home have of her is the part she took in the recent Christmas celebration. Miss Briggs herself purchased the Christmas tree and bent every effort to make the occasion as happy as possible for each one there.

Miss C. Wynne Cassell was the guest of her parents at Mount Joy. She attended the last month's meeting on Lincoln's Birthday.

of the board and displayed her usual interest in the plans for the home and in the discussion of the others present.
