

ROMAN TEAMS WON INDOOR TRACK GAMES

Greeks Made a Gallant Fight; One New Record Was Hung Up; Winners Get Medals

Winning the final event in the second annual indoor series of athletic games at the Chestnut street auditorium, Saturday night, the Romans of the Harrisburg Academy were victors over the Greeks, scoring 22 to 20 points. It was sweet revenge because of the Greeks' victory at Winterdale one year ago.

Only one new record was made. Widder, a Greek, in the pole vault went eight feet, four inches. Other events were closely contested but new records were impossible because of the slippery condition of the floor, the dash and hurdle events being slow because of the danger of serious accident in falling. Medals were presented to winners.

Individual honors went to John Lesure, a Greek, who scored five points, and Jesse L. Krall, a Roman, with four points. The attendance was large and the special features which included selections by the Harrisburg Academy orchestra, and the club, and A. E. Buchanan, Jr., magician, were given emphatic applause by the 700 spectators who enjoyed the entire program. The summary of the events follows:

- Spring Board—Part 1, won by Daniel Bacon, Greek; second, William Hennelium, Roman; part 2, won by John M. Lesure, Greek; Robert Ebreiner, second, Roman.

IF KIDNEYS ACT BAD TAKE SALTS

Says Backache is sign you have been eating too much meat

When you wake up with backache and dull misery in the kidney region it generally means you have been eating too much meat, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which overworks the kidneys in their effort to filter it from the blood and they become sort of paralyzed and laggard. When your kidneys act sluggish and clog you must relieve them, like you relieve your bowels; removing all the body's urinous waste, else you have backache, sick headache, dizzy spells, your stomach sour, tongue is coated, and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment, channels often get sore, water scalds and you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night.

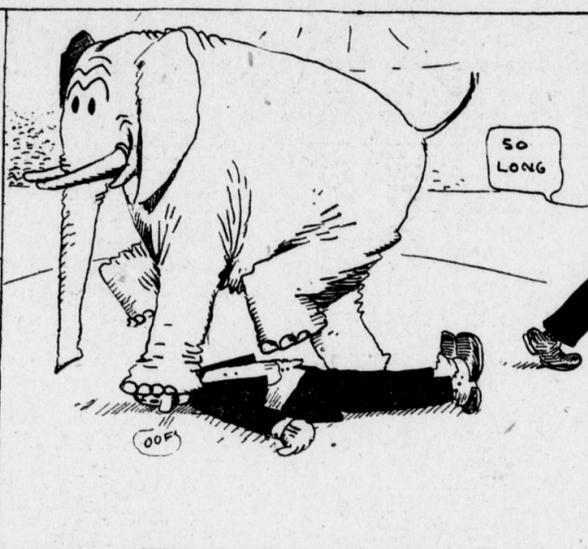

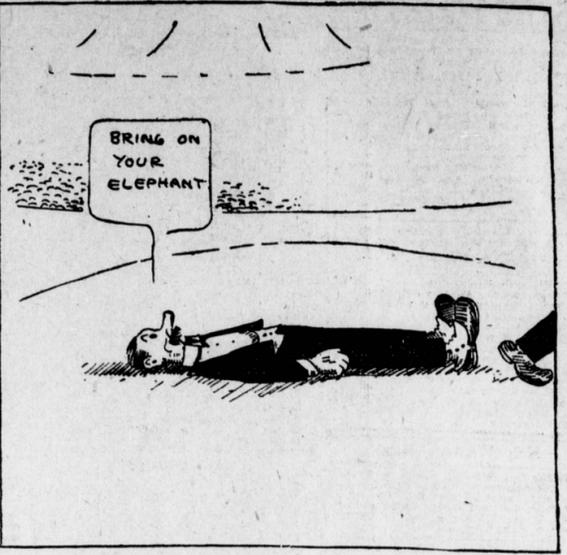

Either consult a good, reliable physician at once or get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to cleanse and stimulate sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder weakness. Jad Salts is a life saver for regular meat eaters. It is inexpensive, cannot injure and makes a delightful, effervescent lithia-water drink.—Adv.

Would You Call This a Good Suggestion?

By "Bud" Fisher

Dear Mr. Fisher—
I am a drummer and of course we boys on the road always read "Mutt and Jeff." I have been thinking that a suggestion may be welcome I offer the following idea:—
Have Mutt and Jeff working on a circus and have Jeff the elephant trainer and have Mutt lay on the ground and have Jeff make the elephant step over him. Now instead of the elephant stepping over Mutt have him step on Mutt's face. Hoping to see this in print I am yours truly,
Simon Steinman

Baseball Games of the Week Will Be Played in the South

Murphy Quit Baseball on Saturday, Disposing of His Stock to Charles P. Taft

Baseball activity starts in the South this week with interleague games and practice matches. The elimination of Charles W. Murphy, president of the Chicago Nationals, from organized baseball, came Saturday, when the sale of his stock in the Chicago club, amounting to 53 per cent. of the shares, was made to Charles P. Taft.

The price paid was not made public, but President Murphy retires from the game worth a million dollars and most of his wealth came with baseball. There is some talk of Harry Ackerman, the vice-president, taking charge of the Chicago enterprise. The settlement of the differences between the baseball magnates and President Murphy came through the sole efforts of President John K. Tener.

The Agathalatha and Franciscan girls will meet in the second of a series of basketball games to-night at Cathedral Hall.

Senator Fred Godcharles, of Milton, was here for the big State shoot on Saturday and was boosting for the live bird event to be held in Milton, March 17.

Leo Houck, the Lancaster middleweight, meets "Bill" Murray at San Francisco this afternoon in a 20-round bout.

"Pat" Chrisham, a former Tri-State umpire, has landed a job in the Eastern League.

William Newashe, the former Carlisle Indian baseball star, now a resident of Paxtang, has signed with the Indianapolis team of the Federal League.

Joe Wood, of the Boston Red Sox, was operated on at his home at Twin Lakes yesterday for appendicitis. The operation was a success, and "Smoke Joe" will recover.

On Saturday most of the Ell scores were due to the clever all around work of Stackpole and Swihart. Salmon, whose accurate goal throwing has aided the Tigers in previous games, fell below his mark and was able to score only five of a possible ten goals from the foul.

PRINCETON VICTIM OF YALE TOSSERS

Yale's basketball tossers defeated Princeton on the Tigers' floor Saturday night, score 30 to 23. This victory gives Yale third place in the intercollegiate series. For this standing much credit is due to the good work of Edward J. Stackpole, Jr., of this city, whose work at forward has not only prevented defeats, but helped in running up big leads in the victorious contests.
